Leaders of Thought Will Attend Congresses.

FEW DECLINE INVITATIONS

Acceptances Coming in With Every Mail.

WIDE INTEREST IN PLANS

Eight Men of National Reputation Added Their Names Yesterday to the List of Participants in Conferences.

Eight names were added yesterday to the list of men prominent in the world of thought, who will participate in the conferences at the Lewis and Clark Exposition during the summer. The committee on congresses is rapidly securing acceptances and within a short time will be able to make out its calendar for the entire series of conferences and congresses. Here is a list of the eight men whose acceptances were received during yesterday by William G. Elliot, Jr., secretary of the committee on congresses:

- William T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education.
- Dr. Felix Adler, lecturer for the Ethical Culture Society of New York City, editor of the International Journal of Ethics, and a distinguished scholar and preacher of ethics.
- Clinton Rogers Woodruff, secretary of the National Municipal League.
- Rev. Arthur D. Brown, D. D., a recognized authority on Chinese and other Oriental problems.
- Professor Charles Zuehlke, member of the Economics Department of Chicago University.
- Howard J. Rogers, First Assistant Commissioner of Education of New York.
- Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, pastor of the Central Church of Topeka, Kan., and author of "In His Steps."
- Professor John Graham Brooks, president of the American Social Science Association, and at one time professor in the economics department of Harvard University.

Wide Field of Learning Covered.

The dates and subjects of the addresses that are to be given have been partially listed. The topics cover a wide field of learning and are of timely interest. One of the most interesting will be that given by Professor Brooks on the subject of municipal ownership, presenting arguments for and against that system. He will appear in the Exposition auditorium afternoon from August 14 to 19. Professor Brooks bears the distinction of being the foremost authority on the subject in the United States.

Municipal Improvement will be the subject upon which Professor Zuehlke will present his views.

Some phases of municipal improvement in the United States he has announced and he will appear on the same dates with Professor Brooks. William T. Harris will also appear at this time. He has been invited to deliver the invocation address.

Dr. Brown Will Speak.

Dr. Brown's appearance will be in connection with the conference on Oriental affairs, around which deep interest will center. Dr. Brown, who, by the way, was at one time pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Portland, spent several years in the Oriental mission fields and his views will thus bear added interest and importance. The date of this conference is still contingent upon the date of Secretary Taft's visit, probably early in July.

Commissioner Harris will participate in the educational conference to be held in August under the joint auspices of the educators of the Pacific Northwest and the Lewis and Clark Congress Committee.

WIDE PUBLICITY FOR PORTLAND

Exposition's Articles on City Reach All Parts of Country.

Daily exchanges of newspapers throughout the country show that Portland is receiving an amount of advertising through the Lewis and Clark Exposition's press bureau. There are no papers of any consequence in the United States that have not had some mention of the Exposition, and hundreds of leading publications repeatedly devote from a column to a page to the Exposition and the Oregon country.

WILL BOYCOTT BOYCOTTERS

Clothing Manufacturers Decide to Retaliate on Retailers.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Resolutions have been adopted by the National Association of Clothiers, which is representative of the second largest manufacturing industry in the country, now in annual convention at the Waldorf-Astoria, that they will unjustifiably cancel orders or return goods. The resolution adopted is as follows:

"After a customer shall have been determined by the affirmative vote of four-fifths of the directors of this association to be an unjustifiable canceller of orders or returner of goods, the secretary shall notify such customer and all retailers; the retailers shall in turn notify all members of the respective association, and after such determination and unless revoked or otherwise ordered by the board of directors, no members shall accept any orders for goods from such customer under penalty of suspension from the privileges of membership in the association."

Gaynor Guilty of Burglary.

James Gaynor, who was caught in the store of the Moyer Clothing Company, at Third and Washington streets, at 11 o'clock one night several weeks ago, was tried and convicted on a charge of burglary in Judge Cleland's court yesterday. The witness against him were Ed Schmidt and Ben C. Wing, who discovered him in the store, and Patrolman Endicott. The excuse given by Gaynor was that he was drunk and did not know what he was doing when he broke into the place. Gaynor only recently completed a year's sentence.

MISSOURIANS WILL LAY PLANS

Meet Tonight to Arrange for Extensive Operations During Fair.

At the weekly meeting of the Missouri Society of Oregon in the Chamber of Commerce this evening important matters relating to the plans of the society for the coming Exposition season will be discussed. President W. M. Davis hopes for a large attendance of Missourians at this meeting, he says, will be the most vitally important in the history of the society.

WILL SHOW STATE'S MINERALS

J. C. Hubbard, Mining Engineer, Has Been Appointed for Fair.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 6.—(Special.)—Judge C. Hubbard, of Seattle, has been appointed to take charge of the state's mining exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. He will assemble the exhibit in this city and remove it to Portland early next month.

Mr. Hubbard was appointed at the request of the North Pacific Society of Mining Engineers. He is a well-known mining expert, who has been engaged in mining in this state for 21 years.

Electrical Tests at Exposition.

Electrical tests were made last night at the Lewis and Clark Exposition grounds, the Forestry and Foreign Exhibits buildings and a portion of the Park being lighted. The two big exhibit pavilions presented a beautiful picture in their garb of light, while the long strings of dazzling lights in the Park gave fantastic shapes to the trees and foliage. Some insight was given of the incomparable beauty of the grounds by night, when the electrical work has been completed. A total of 600 lights were burning last night. As soon as the big turbine station which will furnish the necessary 600-horsepower is completed, a test will be made of the lighting facilities of the entire Exposition. This will be made the occasion of fitting ceremonies and a big open-night at the fair.

Illinois Commission is Named.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 6.—(Special.)—Governor Denny today named the following Board of Commissioners to the Lewis and Clark Exposition, at Portland: P. A. Peterson, Rockford; Cyrus Thompson, Bellville; John W. Edrees, Champaign; R. R. Tiffany, Freeport; William H. Hart, Benton; Fred H. Hand, Cambridge.

Will Race at the Fair.

ASTORIA, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—The Astoria horse team will begin training next week to enter the team races to be held in Portland during the Lewis and Clark Fair.

Nebraska Has Designs on Awards

Entire Appropriation of $12,000 Will Be Used in Installing a Magnificent Exhibit of Agricultural Products.

NEBRASKA will invade the Lewis and Clark Exposition with the avowed determination of carrying away the honors and awards for agricultural displays in a bunch. That the state stands some considerable chance of accomplishing this same feat is not hard to believe when taken in conjunction with the telegraphic announcement made yesterday by the Nebraska State Commission that the entire appropriation of $12,000 is to be spent on an agricultural exhibit. This appropriation has just passed the Legislature and the decision of the commission as to its use was reached promptly.

The whole Nebraska exhibit will be housed in the Agricultural Palace. It will stand in line with the displays made by Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Washington, California and Wyoming, and to head all these displays a high standard of excellence will be required, as each of the states will be vying in its best agricultural products.

Chief Commissioner H. G. Shedd, of Nebraska, asked for 5000 square feet of space in his telegram to Director of Exhibits E. Z. Moore. He will be able to amount cannot be supplied, a full block, which had been especially reserved for Nebraska, was immediately awarded. This block is 100 feet wide and 100 feet long, and is located in one of the most desirable portions of the building.

GRAVE OF JOHN PAUL JONES

Aged Woman Says It is in Dumfries, Scotland, Not Paris.

ST. PAUL, April 6.—J. A. Wheelock, editor of the Pioneer Press, who is present in Redlands, Cal., in a communication to that paper says that a Mrs. Preston, an aged resident of Redlands, but a native of Dumfries, Scotland, declares that the grave of John Paul Jones, for which Ambassador Porter has been searching in the old country, is really located at Dumfries, Scotland. When Mrs. Preston read of the quest of Ambassador Porter, she immediately wrote to him to tell him where the grave of John Paul Jones was. She will remember it, for it is marked with a stone which bears the sinister inscription: "John Paul Jones, the Black Pirate."

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT CASES.

While Municipal Judge Hogue was hearing evidence in three cases of violation of street and sidewalk ordinances yesterday morning, his attention was called to a woman, who directly opposite his courtroom, on Second street. His Honor left the bench a moment to view the blocked sidewalk. This reminded him of the other places he had knowledge of where violations were plainly and called the attention of Attorney Crouch and Special Policeman Mallet to them.

Judge Hogue fined Mrs. Mary Jane Seavey, who was sitting on the sidewalk, $5.00 for obstructing the sidewalk. He also fined Mrs. Mary Jane Seavey, who was sitting on the sidewalk, $5.00 for obstructing the sidewalk. Columbia Reopening Sunday.

The sale of seats for the opening of the new Columbia stock company began yesterday at the downtown box office in the Dolly Varden, 527 Morrison, and all the regular patrons and season subscribers either dropped in or called and signified their desire to have their old seats retained during the special three weeks that are to start next Sunday matinee. The first week "Woman against Woman" will be given, a strong, intensely interesting play that is bound to start the audience to follow in a manner befitting the high standard always maintained by the Columbia management.

Advance Sale Today.

This morning at 10 o'clock the advance sale of seats will open for "The Marriage of Kitty," which will be the attraction at the Marquam Grand Theater next Monday night, April 10, and 11. The "Marriage of Kitty" is a dainty, witty comedy, presented by Jules Murray's company, with Max Figman, a polished gentleman, up-to-date comedian, as Sir Reginald. Wit, humor, repartee and ludicrous complications follow each other with the rapidity of a falling discharge. The play is by Della S. Green, fresh from her triumph in "Little John Jones." She sings and plays her own accompaniments charmingly.

Theatergoers will be surprised when they see the excellent stock company at the Empire Theater, which opens Sunday matinee for the summer season. AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

At the Star.

Among the many feature acts that the Star has given since it has catered to the amusement public of Portland, none has been so novel as the bird and cat show on the bill this week. This act was brought down from the East and is considered the best in the business. This, however, is but one of the many clever acts on the Star programme. There are acrobatic and low price comedies, comedians and all the other diversions found in a first-class amusement palace. To see the Star bill this week is to view an entertainment that is unexcelled anywhere on the Pacific Coast. Next week the management announces the first appearance in the West of the Sisters Ferle and Diamant, brought from Paris. Williams Leaning, having a machine shop in North Portland, was next to be tried. Milton Smith was present as defendant's counsel, and while he did not particularly desire to see the defendant specify numerous other violations.

Thinks Client is Singled Out.

"I think my client has been singled out," said Attorney Smith. "If he is guilty, let him be fined, but what is the reason Marshall-Weiss Hardware Company is allowed to use the streets and sidewalks about the store, and no arrests occur?"

The Council has granted a special permit in that case," quickly replied Attorney Crouch.

"Well, has the Council power to grant permits to people to break laws?" asked Attorney Smith.

Judge Hogue there is a clause in the ordinance which gives the Council that right. I do not think it ought to have the right, for it impedes civic improvement, and causes annoying complications. However, in the case of your client, he has no permit.

Isensee Must Clean Up.

Attorney Smith, well, supposing we give my client until tomorrow to clean up the sidewalks at this place. I guess he will do it. In the meantime, why is the Hazelwood Creamery Company can block the street on sidewalk at Fifth and Oak streets with milk cans, and never be molested? Also, why can others do these things, and escape?"

Elks Will Hold Convention.

Today at the Elks' convention, which meets in Elks' Hall, in the Marquam building, at 10 o'clock, it will be decided whether the Elks of Oregon are to participate in the general fraternity celebrations to be held during the Lewis and Clark Centennial. Just what will be done in this respect is not known at present, as the subject has been left to the will of the convention. It has been proposed that all celebrations be delayed until the completion of the new Elks' building at Seventh and Stark streets, and that the just as all ATTERBURY CLOTHES are made. We admit there are a few large manufacturers who produce very presentable garments by machinery, and they'll hold their shape for a time. But something is lacking. If there wasn't the manufacturer would soon drive the custom tailor out of business. That "something" is Everything. It is character and unquestioned style which machines cannot produce.

THE clothes of gentility can be made only by hand.

ATTERBURY CLOTHES being hand-made and perfectly formed impart character to the wearer. Machine-made clothing conforms promptly to the defects of the figure. Not one man in ten is perfectly formed, hence nothing short of hand-tailored clothing can possibly fill the bill.

THE ATTERBURY SYSTEM is the custom tailor on an enlarged scale. It's the modern idea.
