For Appointment Lindsley Was After.

BAKER FOR MARSHAL

Government Wanted Attorney of Experience.

LAND-FRAUD TRIALS AT HAND

Charges Against Both Men Are Disproved, but Lindsley is Not Heavy-Weight Enough for the Work Ahead.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, April 6.-The Attorney-General toounced the appointment of A. G. Avery, of Spokane, as United States Attorney, and George H. Baker, of Goldendale, as United States Marshal, for the new Eastern Washington judicial district, Mr. Baker's appointment was anticipated, but Mr. Avery's appointment came as a complete surprise.

Soon after the Washington Senators nded Mr. Baker for Marshal and Joseph B. Lindsley, of Spokane, for Attorney, charges were preferred against both men. An investigation by Special Agent Ramsey exonerated both Mr. Baker and Mr. Lindsley, in fact, his report spoke in high terms of both men and completely cleared them of all charges. He, however, reported that Mr. Lindsley was young and had bad little practice in the Federal courts.

Must Have Experienced Man.

When this report was shown to the President, he expressed his willingness to appoint Baker, but refused to make Lindsley District Attorney. He said, and the Attorney General agreed with him, that that important office should be filled by a lawyer of marked ability and long experience, for it is on the District Attorney that the Government must largely rely to secure convictions in the Federal courts. Furthermore, the Attorney General informed the President that before long the Government would have very important cases to try before the new Eastern Washington court, cases that would require much skill and wide knowledge of law on the part of the officer. It was solely because of Mr. Lindsley's youth and lack of experience that he was turned down.

Senators Choose Avery.

Whan the President made known his casons for rejecting Mr. Lindsley, the Senators appealed to him to reverse his decision and pointed to Mr. Lindsley's strong indorsements, but the President remained firm. Then it was that the Sonstors decided to pick another man. It was agreed that they should recomme some Spokane man for whose legal attniuments Senator Piles could wouch, and for whose character and reputation Senator Ankeny would stand responsible. Charles Sweeney, of Spokane, was consulted and at his suggestion the Senators recommended Mr. Avery. The Attorney General had Mr. Avery investigated, the report was received last night stating that he was satisfactory and his appointment today follows. Both Senators regret that Mr. Lindsley was turned down, because they fear his rejection may injure his standing in his

Land-Fraud Trials Coming. It is unofficially stated that, when the Oregon land fraud trials are concluded, similar cases will be brought before the Federal courts of Washington, and it is to these cases that the Attorney General referred when he insisted upon having an experienced man for District Attorney. Senators Piles and Ankeny left

He has practiced law in Spokane for a number of years and has served one term as Cor-poration Counsel, but has taken no active part in politics recently. Mr. Avery is between 40 and 50 years old, and is a lawyer of ripe experience.

Chairman of Protest Committee's Comment on Dodd's Statement.

"We did not originate these charges," said Mr. Evans. "We say that Mr. Rocisefeller and the Standard Ofl Company are charged with various indictments and are not yet cleared, and, not being cleared of them, we do not feel that we have the moral right to stand in relations of honor with them. The printed story of the Standard Oil Company gives specification after specification as to what the company has done, not only in the matter of rebates, but in levying tribute upon other concerns, in crushing out competition, in establishing a system of espionage to find out the private business of other concerns. etc. These documents are either positive proof of the iniquitous methods of the Standard Oil Company or magnificent opportunities for a suit for libel against the

Among the apostles sustained were Messrs. Taylor and Cowley. In his tesimony before the Senate investigating littee at Washington, Senator Smoot stated that an investigation was being made by the church into the charges that these two spostles had taken polygaous wives since the manifesto, and that if the charges were proven, he would not vote to sustain Taylor and Cowley. Mr. Smoot was not present today, not were Mesars. Taylor and Cowley.

Smith Denounces His Critics. President Smith in his address referred to some recent criticisms of the policy of the church under his leadership. Speaking of his critics, who are or have been within the church, the President said they were "the boils, carbuncles and other excrescences of the body of the organization." In such instances, he said, there was "but one thing to do-what the surgeon does a patient is thus afflicted-cut them out and off."

If any members of the church were dissatisfied with the manner in which the tithings had been handled, let them omplain, he said, and he would gladly neet them. If the church desired to call him to account, it could be done without causing noise or disturbance.

Will Build Temple in Missouri.

Speaking generally of the expenditures, he said the people of the church in the Southwest had suffered neavily from floods, and the church had helped them. Others had suffered from drouth, and they had been helped. The church had purchased a piece of land in Jackson County Missouri, for the erection of a temple as foretold by the prophet, Joseph Smith. Large sums had been expended in foreign lands, includ-ing Great Britain, Norway, Sweden and Islands of the South Sea, where mediately. has been bought and churches established. The Emperor then shook hands with the Italian Ministers, whom he already knew, after which the Sov-ereigns presented to each other the members of their respective suites. The whole party lunched on board the Hohenzollern. It was reported later that Emperor William and King Victor Emmanuel conversed lengthily about the International Chamber of Agriculture planned by the latter, who had previously been openly congratulated on the subject by all the European rulers, with the exception of Emperor William. A gala dinner was given at the royal palace tonight in honor of Emperor William. There were present Prince Adal-bert, Foreign Minister Tittoni, Admiral Mirabello, Minister of Marine, and the suites of the two sovereigns.

King Victor Emmanuel, toasting the German Emperor, said in Italian that the presence of the Emperor in Italy gave him pleasure, arousing dear remem-brances of earlier days. He recalled the recent presence in Italy of two of the German Princes and said that on their arrival the Queen and he had been glad to meet and welcome them. "These," said the King, "are reciprocal bonds of intimate affection, which for two alited peoples are pledges of peace and a pros-perous future." He ended by drinking to the imperial family, which, he said, rejoiced in an approaching happy marriage, and also to the noble German na-tion, the loyal ally of Italy. Emperor William, answering in Gar-

The Orchestrelle

THE HOME ORCHESTRA

Of all forms of instrumental music, that of the Orchestra is the noblest and best. Itself the aggregation of all the accepted means by which man has ever expressed himself in music, the compositions written for it are among the grandest efforts of human genius. With remarkable fidelity and with a beauty and variety of tone coloring impossible to describe, it simulates the various voices of the orchestral family-the flutes, the reeds, the horns, the strings, the brasses-now separately and in detail-now one or more together, producing theme and variations-now altogether in one grand climax of harmonic power and grandeur.

If one is a musician, the Orchestrelle can be played with the keys the same as an ordinary manual instrument; but it can be played even better with the Acolian Company's perforated music rolls, in which case no technical knowledge is necessary, and only a snort period of practice.
