

TICKETS ON SALE

Commutation Books for Fair Are Issued.

CHILDREN TO GET A RATE

Branch Office Established Down Town, and Experiment of Fifteen Days Will Be Made in Sale of Rate-Tickets.

Tickets of admission to the Lewis and Clark Exposition will be sold on sale this morning at 10 o'clock. For a period of 15 days two forms of commutation tickets will be sold at a branch office which has been established at Woodard, Clarke & Co's. One form is the 25-cent commutation book and the other the 10-cent book. It is expected that some insight may be gained into the extent of the local patronage that may be depended upon through the sales of the next 15 days.

The tickets are well made, clearly printed and handy. When compared with the tickets in use at former expositions they stand out as the most convenient in size, being of such proportions as to fit an ordinary vest pocket. Their use will be principally for those who are contemplating a number of visits to the Exposition. The reduction in price is very great, the 25-cent book going for $12.50 and the 10-cent book for $5.00. The front of each book has the official design of the Exposition stamped on it, with a space on the reverse side for the photograph of the purchaser. The tickets cannot be used by any other than the person whose photograph appears on the cover.

On the back cover is engraved photographs of Francis W. Pettigrove and Amos L. Lovejoy, together with the pretty story of how Portland came by its name. Here is the version as contained on the tickets:

How City Was Named.

Amos L. Lovejoy, of Massachusetts, and Francis W. Pettigrove, of Maine, the first a pioneer of 1842, and the second a pioneer of 1843, acquired the original site of Portland in 1842. The question of naming the place was discussed at that time. Mr. Lovejoy wanted to name it Boston, because that town was the principal city of his native state. Mr. Pettigrove desired to name it Portland for the same reason. Upon falling to agree Mr. Pettigrove suggested the matter be decided by tossing a copper cent, to which Mr. Lovejoy agreed; whereupon Mr. Pettigrove produced a copper cent and tossed it, and his choice, heads, came up twice, thereby winning for the future city the name of Portland.

This narrative and the pictures presented beneath are from the Oregon Historical Society's records and are authentic. A question that has been arousing considerable interest about the city is what inducements are to be offered to families. It is contended that the working man with a large family cannot afford to pay the full admission price of 25 cents for each member of his family. This matter is to be taken up by the Exposition management at a later date and the assurance is given that there will be a special rate made for children.

OYSTERS COMING TO FAIR.

Bed With Growing Specimens to Be a Washington Attraction.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 11.—(Special.)—At a meeting held in Olympia the Puget Sound Oystergrowers' Association determined to prepare a unique exhibit and maintain it at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The exhibit will be in the form of a miniature oyster bed.

A zinc frame will be prepared, and soil, gravel and other material from the Puget Sound oyster-beds will be placed therein. The bed will be made to resemble as closely as possible an actual oyster bed. Oysters in various stages of development will be placed in the water will be supplied, and in this manner oysters will be growing on the grounds throughout the fair. It is desired to make this exhibit a part of the Thurston County display, but in the event that Thurston County cannot spare the space, the State Commission will be appealed to by the association.

REPRODUCE LINCOLN'S HOME

Plan of Illinois for State Building at the Fair.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 11.—Members of the Illinois commission in charge of the state exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland met with Governor Deneen today. The general affairs of the commission were discussed, as was the proposal that the Illinois state building be a copy of Lincoln's home in which he lived in Springfield.

This home is now kept as a museum and if the present plan of the commission is carried out, much of the old furniture may be taken to Portland as a part of the exhibit. Work on the exhibit will be rushed as soon as the plans are definitely formulated.

CALIFORNIANS MUST HURRY.

Commissioners Are About to Close the Exhibit Headquarters.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—(Special.)—The headquarters of the California Commission to the Portland Exposition will be closed on Saturday night. The commissioners are preparing to go to Portland to remain during the big show. Commissioner Fitcher and possibly Robert Furlong, the head of the department of education, will go to Portland next week.

The final work of assembling exhibits that are needed to complete the California display at Portland is progressing. Commissioner Fitcher says that practically everything that is required has been obtained.

ILLINOIS READY TO BUILD.

Telegram Indicates Early Action on Part of State Commission.

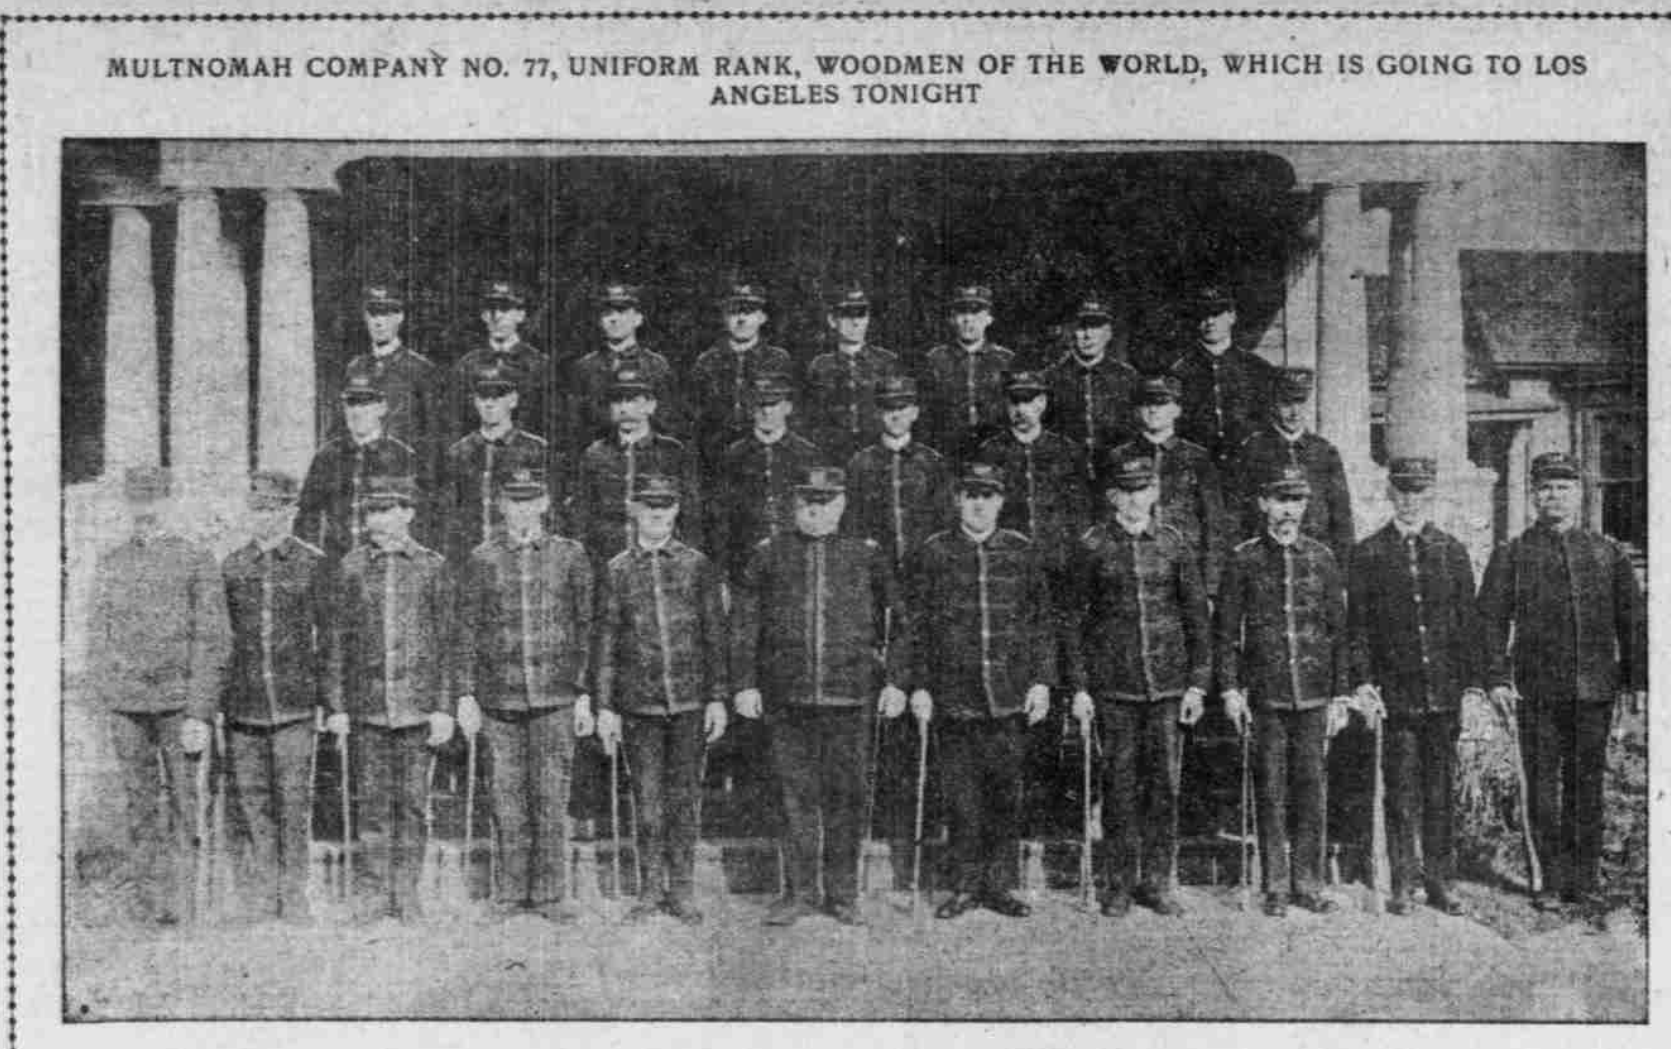

Illinois is ready to build, within a short time a suitable site will be assigned to the state and construction work on the $25,000 building begun. Exposition headquarters were advised yesterday that Illinois readiness to start work. During the afternoon a telegram was received from the Illinois commission inquiring into the labor situation and the desirability of the building sites that remain unclaimed. The reply was at once made that an excellent site was being reserved for Illinois and that labor was both cheap and plentiful.

EXHIBIT IS WORTH MILLIONS

Diamond Company Will Send Costly Display to Fair.

The most valuable exhibit that will be seen at the Exposition was secured yesterday when Director of Exhibits Dosch assigned a big Chicago diamond firm to space in the Liberal Arts building. The firm in question is the largest diamond-cutter establishment in the United States. The value of the exhibit it will send is $2,000,000, or considerably more than the cost of a dozen exhibit palaces.

Through a number of sales visitors will see diamond cutters at work. The gems will go through all the processes from the diamond field to an ornament. Ten private detectives will mingle with the crowds that watch the exhibit in order to prevent a sudden rush of criminals or other mishap. One feature of the display is a diamond necklace that represents a value of $100,000. Some of the finest diamonds in the world are included in the exhibit.

Oregon's pride company of the uniform rank, Woodmen of the World, Multnomah Company, No. 77, will leave Portland upon a special section of the California Express tonight for Los Angeles, where the head camp of the Woodmen of the World will convene next Tuesday. Accompanying the uniform company will be delegates from the Northwestern states to the head camp and Mr. Hood field team, Women of Woodcraft. The train will consist of five Pullman sleepers, observation and dining cars and baggage coaches. Multnomah Company will be under the command of Brigadier-General J. C. Jones, who will act as the captain of the company during the drills at Los Angeles and elsewhere. Mr. Hood field team will be in charge of Mrs. J. C. Henry, of Portland. The first stop of the company and the delegates will be at Oakland, Calif., where a monster reception is to be given. Head Clerk Bank, of the order, who in all likelihood will be chosen the new head camp of the woodmen, to succeed the late F. A. Falkenberg. The Northwestern delegates will remain in Oakland until Saturday morning, and will then go to San Jose, where they will be the guests of the Chamber of Commerce of that city, and will be treated to a luncheon; by the members of the order of San Jose. Saturday evening the members of Multnomah Company will journey to Santa Cruz, where 400 candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the order in the great "Great Pavilion." The dinner work will be given by the Portland representatives. At Los Angeles the local boys will go into camp in true military fashion, where they will remain during the head camp session of ten or twelve days. During this time Multnomah Company will enter the competitive drills and give exhibitions of its training. This is the first time that the uniform rank of the Woodmen of the World has ever been represented at the head camp sessions, and a great effort is to be made to have that branch make a favorable impression. Multnomah Company is one of the eight companies of the First Regiment of Oregon, under the command of Colonel William North. The Second Regiment consists of nine companies under the leadership of Colonel H. L. Day. The Third Regiment is eight companies strong, and is commanded by Colonel C. E. Parrish, and the Fourth Regiment of 15 companies is under the command of Colonel E. N. Agre. The expense of taking the uniform rank company to Los Angeles is considerable, but the money, amounting to more than $2000, was raised by the members of the company and Multnomah Camp, Woodmen of the World. The names of the members of the company who will go to Los Angeles, reading from left to right in the first row are: William Griffith, J. McMillen, David Studer, George Hall, Sam Griffith, William Johnson, M. C. George, E. G. Gordon. Those in the second row are: Joseph Murphy, Nick Becker, Thomas Krueger, Joseph Krueger, E. Minar, E. H. Bennett, E. O. Moore, F. Freedman. Those in the lower row are: Lieutenant Jake Crabill, John Ryan, G. E. Basal, E. Day, Eugene Knight, J. C. Jones, Brigadier-General; E. W. Greene, Charles Crabill, Harry Isaac, L. Rivera, Lieutenant Rudolph.

A TRIED AND TRUE REMEDY. Safe because made of roots and barks of medicinal plants without the use of alcohol. Cures Weak and Sick Women

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION for nearly forty years has cured thousands of women, for it establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. Cures headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and other consequences of womanly disease.

$1000 REWARD is offered as a GUARANTEE that "Favorite Prescription" contains no Alcohol, Opium, Digitalis or any harmful drug. Dr. Pierce invites everybody to visit his great laboratory, in Buffalo, N. Y., and see for themselves.

out bonds, as his victim, Pietro Tozzo, is lying at Good Samaritan Hospital between life and death, as the result of bullet wounds. If he dies, a murder charge will be filed against the prisoner.

Tozzo may recover, in the opinion of City Physician Zan, but his chances are slight. His wounds are very serious, and it is believed a bullet lodged in his lungs. This is apt to cause pneumonia. Should this develop, the patient will lose his life. Immediately after he waived preliminary hearing, Caudelli was removed from the City Jail to the County Prison, where he is now.

DISTRIBUTIVE RATES INLAND

Railway Men and Jobbers Will Discuss Them This Afternoon.

The question of distributive rates inland will be talked over this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when J. C. Stubbs, traffic director of the Harriman system, and J. G. Wadsworth, general traffic manager of the Northern Pacific, will meet with the committee of the North Pacific Coast Jobbers' and Manufacturers' Association for the final conference.

The committee appointed at the meeting of a week ago to delve into the proposition offered the shippers by the railroad men met yesterday at the office of W. A. Mears, the secretary of the Association, and a conference lasting the greater part of the afternoon was held. At that time the offer of the traffic men was taken up in detail and discussed, and at the meeting this afternoon will be rejected.

It has been found on investigation that the proposition would not be to the advantage of Portland, and it is believed by the jobbers that the railroad representatives had no thought of its being accepted, that the offer was tentative and was made

Dr. Hickey Will Probably Recover. It is believed that Dr. Joseph Hickey will recover from the bullet wounds inflicted by himself at his home on Portland Heights Monday night. He is resting quite comfortably at Good Samaritan Hospital, and is under the care of City Physician Zan and Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie.

Goes on Business Trip to Tacoma. A. D. Charlton, assistant passenger agent of the Northern Pacific, left yesterday morning for a short business trip to Tacoma. He will visit the local offices of the Northern line in Washington for a day or so before returning to Portland.
