

DEAR MADAM:

Many women prefer to have their new Spring Carpets laid before Easter, believing that the Easter season is most enjoyable when the house is most beautiful. If you are of this way of thinking, we urge you to make your selection at once, as the remaining time is short. You will find the choice of carpets a pleasant task this year, as we have prepared an especially large and attractive line for the Spring season.

Suggests Central Market.

Apropos to the present crusade of the house-wives in the investigation of markets in this city. I would bring up the question as to the needs here of a large market building, some-what after the pattern of the fine markets of San Francisco. Such an institution centrally san Francisco. Such an institution centrally located would from its very beginning be a fine investment, and, in addition therete, would prevent the present state of affairs. Were a majority of the markets of the city installed under one roof in a structure erected for such s to the appearance of what they have to offer The upper floor of such a building could be muse into a fine hall for the use of concerts and public gatherings. Portland is also de-ficient in this. SIMON HARRIS.
