For the next three days, until closing time at 6 P. M. of Saturday, the Olds, Wortman & King stores will be jammed by sensational special Easter offerings in every department. Not a section shirks the duty imposed upon it by the management, but all vie—one with the other and each with its neighbor—to surpass in liberality of value-giving and earnestness in the sort of price-cutting that makes genuine bargains of the wanted sort. The extraordinary values offered in women's raiment alone, stunning SUITS and SPRING COATS, SKIRTS and stylish SHIRTWAISTS, smartly-tailored RAIN COATS, handsome SILK PETTICOATS, pretty KIMONAS and serviceable WRAPPERS are alone enough to attract the presence of every dressy woman in the city. Smartness and style mark every line of the famous Olds, Wortman & King garments. From the magnificent evening costumes all down thro' the line to the morning housewrappers there's an air of superiority over all other elsewhere showings. At no time in our career as a store have these characteristics been more conspicuously observable in our garments than now in this specially-planned Easter event. This grand composite bargain offering will long be remembered among Portland women as the
