Dies of Heart Disease on Street.

From heart trouble, Samuel W. Marks died suddenly on Third, near Salmon street, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. He sank to the sidewalk and expired before a physican could reach him. Deputy Coroner A. I. Finley took charge of the body. He stated that no inquest would be held. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

Mr. Marks was 60 years old and was one of the most widely-known men in Port-land. For a long time he was Constable in Judge Bullock's East Side Justice Court, but recently had been engaged in other business.
