DEATH TAKES

Orville H. Platt Killed by Cold Taken at His Late Colleague's Funeral.

IN SEVENTY-EIGHTH YEAR

Long Service in Senate Marked by Leading Part in Admission of New States of the Northwest-His Last Struggle for Life.

WASHINGTON, Conn., April II.-United Connecticut, died at his Summer home in Washington, his native home, at $:53 tonight. The end came almost unexpectedly, the immediate cause being the breaking of the abscess which had formed in the right lung, and which produced strangulation. Only a few minutes before, Dr. Ford, the family physician, had prepared a bulletin from the sickroom to the effect that if the patient did not have another sinking spell such as had come to him during the forenoon, he would probably live through the night.

When the physician left the sick chamber the Senator was perfectly conscious, appeared to have no pain and had answered questions put to him by those at the bedside, showing that his mind was James P. Platt, of the United States

The funeral will probably be held next Tuesday, with services in the Congregational Church. Both houses of Congress will be represented.

Caught Cold at Hawley's Funeral.

Senator Platt took a severe cold while the Swayne impeachment trial at the National Capitol was in progress before the Senate. He had not fully recovered from it at the time of Senator Hawley's funeral. He stood in the railway station at Hartford for some time awaiting the arrival of the train on which Senator Hawley's body was brought from Washington. During the wait he complained of a slight chill, in consequence of which, after the exercises at the Capitol, he returned directly to his country home in

On Friday, March 31, the Senator wa taken with the illness which proved fatal. The first attack was of bronchitis with pneumonia of a comparatively slight nature. This was followed on April 4 by a second attack, which iasted for about a week. On April 11 he showed signs of improvement, so that hopes of his recovery were entertained, but soon after an abscess developed, and on April 18 he had a bad chill. The following day his physicians and nurses feared it would be the end, but he railled from that attack, Other chills, however, followed at intervals, culminating in a particularly severe

Although the aged man seemed to rally somewhat from this attack and become comfortable during the afternoon, it was evident that his life was ebbing away. The pelt of the hear killed by the President that his life was ebbing away. His physician, at 8:45 o'clock, stated that the end would come with another chill and the thread of life would snap suddenly. This proved to be the case, and a few of the Department of Agriculture. minutes later Senator Platt's life was

Orville Hitchcock Plait was born at Washington, Conn., July 19, 1827. His Roosevelt's Party Makes Early Start father, Daniel Platt, was a farmer. He himself worked on the farm until he was 20 years old, receiving his education in the common schools and at Frederick Gunn's Academy, styled the "Gunnery," which has since become a well-known institution. He afterwards studied law in the office of Gideon H. Hollister, the historian of Connecticut,

He was admitted to the bar of Connecticut in 1849, and later to the bar of Pennsylvania, where he spent six months in the Towanda office of Ulys-ses Mercur, Chief Justice of the Court of Pennsylvania. In 1851 he resumed his law practice in Connecticut, set-tling in Meriden, where he made his home while he lived. In 1855-56 Mr. Piatt served as clerk of the Connecticut Senate, and in 1857 was elected Secretary of the State. He was elected a member of the State Sen-ate in 1861-62, and was a member of the House in 1864 and 1869, filling the position of Speaker during the lastnamed year. In 1877 he was a Judge of Probate and was appointed State Attorney for New Haven County, retaining that position until 1879, when he was elected to the United States Senate to succeed W. H. Barnum.

His Service in the Senate.

Mr. Platt was his own successor to Mr. Platt was his own successor to the United States Senate in 1885, and again in 1899, having been elected by the unanimous vote of the Republican members of the State Legislature, and has been re-elected again until his teath. He served on various impor-tant committees during his Senatorial career, including the committee on pen-sions and the committee on contingent expenses, and was chairman of the committee on patents, and acting chairman of the committee on revision In the 50th and 51st gresses he was chairman on territories WASHINGTON, Conn., April 21.—United Juring which time North Dakota, South States Sensior Orville Hitchcock Platt, of Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Wyoming were admitted into the Union. He was chairman of the subcommittee having in charge the "copy-right" bill, passed in 1891, and to his efforts in committee and on the floor of the Senate are due in great part the passage of that measure.

Stood High as Lawyer and Senator. Mr. Platt was a forcible speaker, his style was finished, his words well hosen and his arguments logical. In the Senate he was regarded as a careful legislator, a close student of political questions, and a man of sound judgment. He always maintained a high standing in the legal profession, doing a large general business, though making a specialty of patent law. He was prominently connected with religious and philanthropic works of the city of clear. In the room at the time were Mrs. Meriden, and in a quiet, unostentations. Platt and the Senator's only son, Judge way was the friend of the needy and troubled, who never hesitated to go to him for assistance and advice. The veteran of the war and the soldier's widow conferred upon him the degree of LL D. in 1881.

Rock Island Tried to Capture Union Pacific.

CAUSE OF RECENT DECLINE

Large Holdings Secured Would Have Hindered Harriman's Plans, and He Bought Them Back-No New Fight With Hill.

NEW YORK, April 21 .- (Special.)-A new reason was learned today for the recent big decline in standard stocks. It came from an inside source, and is believed to be authentic. According to this authority, the Rock Island interests had for some time been buying Union Pacific stock, until they had at last accumulated 300,000 shares. Their possession of this stock was regarded by Union Pacific people as a direct menace to their interests, that might interfere also with the plans which involve the issue of $100,000,000 of Union Pacific preferred: A determined effort was made to get it from them. This was finally accomplished yesterday, it is said, and no trouble is now expected.

This report would explain the enormous transactions in Union Pacific last week, so large a transaction as the acquisition of 300,000 shares being possible only in the midst of an extraordinary volume of buying and selling.

The reports that there was a renewal of the old fight for the control of the Northern Pacific; that the present management of the Enjon Pacific had lost control of that road, and that Hill and Harriman were going to fight again to the death, were said today by those comone this forenoon, between 9 and 11 facilities for setting news, and they are entirely out of touch with Mr. Loeb.

Preparations are under way here to They also expressed the opinion that the

NEW JOB FOR ROOSEVELT

May Apply Strenuosity to Killing Tammany When Term Expires.

NEW YORK, April 21 .- (Special.)-Theo fore Roosevelt was nominated for Mayor of New York in 1910 at a meeting of the Roosevelt Home Club at the house where the President was born, 28 East Twentieth street, last night. The suggestion made by Thomas L. Chadbourne was received with enthusiasm. Mr. Chadbourne argued that when Mr. Roosevelt retires from the White House he will be too young and too energetic to retire from politics; that he is needed to put an end to corruption and Tammany rule in New York; that he only can do it, and that he would probably be willing
