CONGREGATIONALISTS TO MEET.

The annual meeting of the Portland Congregational Association will be held in the Methodist-Avenue Congregational Church, Albina, Tuesday and Wednesday next. The convention will open Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, when it will be organized by election of a moderator and secretary, and appointment of committees. Rev. George A. Taggart will deliver the address of the evening. Wednesday will be devoted to papers and discussions of pertinent topics. Large attendance of the pastors is expected.

WILL HOLD SOCIAL CONVENTION.—At the regular meeting of the Board of the Federation of Women's Clubs, held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Samuels, reports of committees were received, and the arrangements for the social convention, which will be held in May, considered. The time was not fixed, but will be soon. It was announced that Mrs. Rose Hoyt, president of the Federation Board, who has been spending the winter in Arizona, will return in time to preside at the convention.

BURGOLAR ESCAPED THROUGH WINDOW.—Caught in the act of pilfering the offices of Studebaker Bros., East Side establishment, last night, a burglar leaped through a window and made his escape. He was in the store when W. R. Rigby, an employe of the firm, called to secure his overcoat. The police were notified last night.

TAKE THE WIFE ALONG when you go to see Holladay Park Addition. She will want a home there, and you can secure one on easy terms. Small cash payments and the balance in monthly installments. Better than paying rent. The Title Guaranty & Trust Co., 6 and 7 Chamber of Commerce.

BOOKED FOR VAGRANCY.—Frank Lamb, aged 20, and May Robinson, aged 16, were arrested in Chinatown last night by Detectives Kerrigan and Snow. At police headquarters they were booked on charges of vagrancy.

GO TOMORROW AFTERNOON—see Holladay Park Addition, the most attractive residence district in the city. Lots for sale on very easy terms. The Title Guaranty & Trust Co., 6 and 7 Chamber of Commerce.

RECITAL FOR MONUMENT FUND.—A recital for the monument fund, under Grand Army auspices, will be given Thursday evening, April 27, at Auditorium Hall. A. H. Webster has charge of the program.

WASTED—At Seaside, overlooking the ocean, a modern, two-story, seven or eight-room house; fireplace, cellar, south and west porches and ample grounds. J. V. Oregonian.

BRASSER South Bay sails Monday evening for San Francisco; cabin, $12.00; steerage, $8.00; meals and berth included. C. H. Thompson, agent, 123 Third Street.

GRAND EASTER LUNCH.—Very perfect. Reasonably priced; large lot; wholesale price. Burkhardt Bros., Main 502.

LOCKLEY HALL will be formally opened to the public May 1. L. A. Carlisle.

GLAFKE STATES POSITION

Writes Federated Trade as to His Stand on Questions.

W. B. Glafke, candidate for mayor, sent a personal letter to the Federated Trades Council last night in which he stated definitely his position regarding labor and capital, as far as local conditions go, and incidentally gave his first statement on how he stands regarding an open or closed town. As to the latter, he stated that the city ordinance, whatever they are, will be enforced if he is elected mayor and as to the former, he believes that labor and capital should work in closer harmony.

The particular point which he made was regarding his membership in the Citizens' Alliance. It was known that he belonged to that institution and he felt that the antagonism which the labor unions felt towards the Alliance was doing him an injury. In his letter he states that his membership in the organization is merely nominal and that he believes above all things in better relations between labor and capital. In his letter to the Federated Trades Council he says in part: "Regarding an open or closed town, I can only say that the city ordinances and laws will be enforced. In my conception of a business administration there will be no such thing as class discrimination. The mayor of Portland should and ought to be a mayor of its inhabitants, and mayor of all interests—to labor and capital equally."

"As regards the views I hold toward labor and other bodies, it has been asked of me: 'Do you belong to the Citizens' Alliance?' Answering, I say 'Yes.' Last year (I cannot even give approximately the date) I was asked by one man to join the Citizens' Alliance, an organization for the purpose of bringing labor and capital together. To-day, so far as I know, there are only two members of the Citizens' Alliance, the man who asked me and myself. Since that time I have never known that even a meeting has been held. I cannot say to-day if I am still a member, but if that organization stands for better citizenship and better and more harmonious feeling between labor and capital, and is the means of bringing such into closer touch with each other, I am in favor of the Citizens' Alliance."

"I think this explains my position fully and can only repeat the main plank of my platform, 'Fear or favor to none; Justice to all.' "Thinking you for your consideration, I am, yours very truly, "W. B. GLAFKE."
