were several loyal citizens who sat arou the press box who saw it and express themselves in open and impressive is guage about that piece of red and whi bunting that smothered the country flag. As soon as they naw it, they ma a wish that the Giants should lose. Th got their wish, for Los Angeles took t game in the twelfth inning by the sco of 5 to 2.

Wrangling and HI-Temper.

There was all sorts of baseball thround the these 12 innings. Good baseball, s ful miscues, wrangling and displays bad temper that should not be tossed into any ball game. Manager McCredi while standing on the plate disputir Umpire Klopf's decision, had a ba thrown directly at his head by Pitch Conduct. It was a stated on the stated Goodwin. It was a vicious and row act, and while McCredie was in a mea ure not to blame for losing his temp and starting after Goodwin, who fied | a scared wolf when the Ginnts' managestarted after him, what followed betwee Klopf and McCredie was inexcusable. his display of temper McCredie was fin $5 and driven from the game. This a an error by Schlafly at a critical time the game, a time when Bert Jones v tually had them shut out 1 to 0, and t fact that the flag had been insuited, we the causes of yesterday's defeat. The game started off as if it was to che of those whirlwind affairs and pltcher's battle, but it degenerated into rough-house affair before the end. was not until the third that the Gin vere able to get a man across the ru ber. With Jones and Van Buren dow McCredie reached first on Jud Smith error. He stole second and scored Schlaffy's two-bagger that went into crowd in left field. This one run look as big to the Loo Loos as the Gover ment building at the Exposition group for Bert Jones was the master of Capt. Dillon's ball-tosmers. The hard-work! southpaw's curve department was wo ing like an eight-day clock. In the inning Cravath hit for two bags, but he was caught at third by McLean and Runkle. In the previous four innings 12 men had faced Jones, and he mowed them down in one, two, three order.

Fatal Eighth Inning.

Net a Loo Loo got a chance to plant his spikes on the third cushion until the fatal eighth canto. Cravath was first up and, thanks to Klopf's generosity, he was given a cushion on four balls. Schiafly fell down in handling an easy one dropped down by Toman. Then a mixup at first, and a few other things that could nilly be avarcased on asheaton proce has only be expressed on asbestos paper, hap-pened and two runs were scored. This the visitors a lead of one run, a lead that the Giants tied when it came their turn in the ninth. Murphy, who had taken McCredie's place in right, was out taken McCredie's place in right, was out on a pop up to Smith. Schlaffy walked and then scored on Eddle Householder's long drive that hit the fence. In the the Appales hit Jones twice, but tenth Los Angeles hit Jones twice, but they didn't count for runs. The Giants cisco outbatted Oakland, but fine fielding failed in their half of the eleventh, as by the victors decided the play. The did Los Angeles. The twelfth was the scores: did Los Angeles. The twenth was the same for the locals, but it was curtains when Dillon's crew faced Jones. Brashear was safe, due to a collision between Schlaffy and Murphy. Cravath singled and was safe, due to a collision between Schlaffy and Murphy, Cravath singled and the pair were advanced on Ross' sucrifice. and Shea. Judged scored Cravath and Brashear. Multnomah Men at Practice.

Easter Sunday was a busy day on the M. A. A. C. grounds, and in addition to a hard-and-fast practice for the baseball squad, two of the club's league games took place. In the latter the Irish Giants defeated the Dark Horses 5 to 2, and the High Balls landed over the Little Potatoes with a score of 6 to 4. The grounds were in good shape, and it might be said that the boys had the first real practice of the year. In spite of their late inactivity, the men were in good shape, and are ready now for the training ahead. From now on regular practice will be held each evening, and the teams will be worked into shape as fast as possible.

Waverly Team Is Beaten.

The game between the University Park and Waverly baseball teams yesterday was very much of a one-sided affair and epded with a score of 14 to 1 in favor of the Parkites. Moore of the University had a good stock of elusive shoots with

Portland will hum this week with the coming clash of meeting and conference, the objects of which will be the iyn and Boston teams. The contest re-suited in another victory for the home team, as the visitors were shut out by the same score as on Saturday-4 to 8. Iand on the Republican ticket. H. Over 11,000 persons were present, and there was no interference by the police other than the taking of the names of the sales of the selection of some preferred can-didate to run for Mayor of Port-land on the Republican ticket. H. S. Rowe will be the guest of honor at a meeting called for Tuesdag night at Alisky hall, at which his friends will raily the law of the selection of some preferred can-ticket. H. rally to his support by organizing a Rowe club of many members. The supporters of Mr. Rowe have issued invitations calling the meeting and assurance has been given that many will be on hand to fill the hall. A club will be formed and an executive committee will be appointed to take charge of the active work of the campaign from this time on. During the time Mr. Rowe was absent in the East the voice of his cause was quiet, like the still small voice of conscience, not because there was no breath to give it utterance, but that there was no authority to proclaim his candidacy. Now, however, since the candidate has re-turned to his home, he is in the hands of his friends who are swarming around his banner with the earnestness of those who, knowing their chief, burn to fight in his behalf.

The delegation from this city will number something over 100, and includes prominent fruitgrowers from the Valley, who are evincing an active interest in the work of the Hood River Commercial Club. E. L. Smith, president of the league, will leave here Tuesday afternoon to arrange matters needing his attention before the convening of the convention. Speaking of the coming meeting. President Smith says: Yes, we expect to have the targest convention of business men ever assembled in this state-so large, in fact, that the active work will necessarily have to be done in sections. "One of the minor objects of the meeting is to bring these men together for acquaintanceship and, consequently, for more friendly relations. The speeches will he brief and by representative men from different sections of the country. We must improve to the fullest extent the opportunities that will be presented this year for investment, settlement and observation by the hosts that are coming from the states east of the Rocky Mountains, and even from foreivn countries, and I anticipate happy results from our meeting this week.

The Hood River delegation will leave here in a special car at 5:30 o'clock Wednessay morning. The Perkins Hotel will be the headquarters for the Hood River delegation while in the city, and it has been arranged that the delegates shall march in a body to the convention hall in the Marquam Grand Theater. Inasmuch as Echo has named two prom inent O. R. & N. officials to represent that city at the Development League Convention, Hood River, not to be outdone, has appointed E. H. Harriman and James J. Hill. "While Mr. Hill will probably be unable to attend the convention, we shall look for a paper from this eminent railroad man on 'How to Merge and Unmerge," remarked Mr. Smith
