Those Giants got another touch of high life yesterday. It was administered by Tacoma's famous Tigers, with Doctor Thomas prescribing the bitter dose of nine large 00 capsules filled with nothing. While Doctor Thomas was administering pire Klopf could not see and this, the fortunate bunching of the hits in just two innings and Portland's mability to connect with the concoctions that Thomas up another shut-out for us. Just what Thomas had on the Giants there is no record to show, but it must have been a cross between the Indian sign, four aces and a royal flush. Like Mark Twain's playing a poor hand well-that was the ice of the grape, bubbles and all. Giants Become Infants.

Forgetting the fact that the Giants became infants in Thomas' hands, and that the locals were smeared all over with a coating of whitewash now something like eight layers deep, the game was a good one. There was not a great deal of hitting, but what there was certainly was clean and hard. Nordyke, first up in the eighth inning, stung one on the seam and it floated over the left garden wall and last reports had it that the Spaulding had hit the trail. A poke Runkle could not knock down clean and two singles were the promissory notes that Garvin issued in this same canto, which, with the homer included, when presented for collection called for three Up until the fifth inning, Garvin was as much of a mystery to the Tigers as Thomas was to the Giants, who be-came infants. With Graham away in the corgue, via the Murphy route, Thomas coidently hit for two bases. Doyle flew out to Van Buren and Garvin struck Sheehan, but Klopf refused to see those wide out curves and he walked the gentleman. Nordyke's single helped a Philadelphia. 10 14 2 Boston ... The Story Is Told.

This tells the story of Tacoma's scoring. What the Giants tried to do is another story. Out of the thirty men who faced Thomas, only one reached third base and this did not happen until the ninth in-Up to this time not a Giant had Bert Jones went in to bat for Garvin in the closing scene. Thomas thought he was easy and heaved a slow one that Portland's famous crooked-arm attacked. The ball floated up to Jones as big as a toy balloon. It was a slow one whack! Jones soon made it a fast one and it counted for a brace of pillows. Murphy was already in cold storage and Van Buren fungled out to Eagan. Man-ager McCredie, who has been assessed President Bert and the suspens too by President Bert and the suspension lifted, made his first single in twentytoree times at the bat. This sent Jones to third, where he died, because Schlaffy flew out to center. PORTLAND.

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA

"I had suffered terrible agony and pain for eight long years from a ter-rible eczema on the scalp and face. The best doctors were unable to help me, and I had spent a lot of money for many remedies without receiving any benefit. My scalp was covered with scabs, my face was like a piece of raw beef, my eyebrows and lashes were falling out, and sometimes I felt as if I was burning up from the terrible itching and pain. I then began treating myself at home, and now my head and face are clear and I am entirely mall. I feet bethed tirely well. I first bathed my face with Cuticura Soap, then applied Cu-ticura Ointment to the afficted parts, and took Cuticura Resolvent for the blood. I was greatly relieved after the first application, and continued use of Cuticura soon made a complete cure.— Miss Mary F. Fay, Westboro, Mass."
