Fighters Dispute Over the Right of Way.

TRAINERS PREVENT BATTLE

Sarcastic Bonmots Exchanged by the Bruisers Came Near Resulting in Fight Being Pulled Off Before Scheduled Time.

TACOMA, Wash., April 26,-(Special.) The Burns-Barry fight, which is scheduled for next Tuesday night, came very near being settled this morning when the principals met on the road between the city and South Tacoma. Both fighters were taking their reguar morning spin. Barry, who is training in South Tacoma, was headed toward the city, while Burns was go-ing in an opposite directon. The fight-ers, with their trainers, met at a narrow place on the bicycle path, and neither side was disposed to make way for the other. Burns claimed that Barry should take one of the other roads out of South Tacoma, and Barry remarked that he would take "any old oad" he desired. The real trouble was started when Burns commented on the belt that Barry was wearing. "Is that thing the middleweight championship belt?" saked Tommy. Dave replied that some one was "getting fresh" and told Tommy that if he didn't like the belt he had better try to take it off. This Burns proceeded to do, but before the men got well started their respective trainers stepped in and put an end to the trouble by taking their charges back to training quarters.
