

GIANTS SURPRISE THEIR FRIENDS

Take an Unexpected Game From the Tacoma Tigers.

SCORE STANDS TWO TO ONE

When the Fans Had About Given Up Hope of Seeing Portland Win Luck Comes to the Aid of Local Team.

Table with columns for League (Pacific Coast, National, American), Team, Wins, Losses, P.C., and Standings.

You can take off your hats to Jakey Atz. The Flying Dutchman was a star in his own class yesterday afternoon.

There was a palpitation of the heart for those same faithful fans, who go to every game, when the third opened full and wide on the horizon.

There was a palpitation of the heart for those same faithful fans, who go to every game, when the third opened full and wide on the horizon.

There was a palpitation of the heart for those same faithful fans, who go to every game, when the third opened full and wide on the horizon.

Table with columns for Player, AB, R, IB, O, A, E, and Total.

Table with columns for Player, AB, R, IB, O, A, E, and Total.

Strike out—By Jones, 2; by Brown, 4. Bases on balls—Off Brown, 2; off Jones, 2.

BARELY ESCAPES SHUT-OUT

Oakland Scores Saving Run Only Against Seals.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The locals secured a grip on today's game in the second inning, when a couple of hits against Moskman produced three runs.

MUD RATTLES THE ANGELS

Siswashes in Their Element Clinch Game Very Early.

SEATTLE, April 27.—A heavy rain delayed the game for a half hour this afternoon, and Los Angeles found it difficult to play effective ball on muddy grounds.

Los Angeles.....003000000-3 7 3 Seattle.....020000000-7 2

FOLLOW ME REPEATS HIMSELF

Wins Another Race, Which Is Marred by Accident.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Although played at 12 to 1, Follow Me proved to be a repeater and won the second race, which was highly exciting.

At Cumberland Park

NASHVILLE, April 27.—Cumberland Park race results:

Six furlongs—Miss Jojo won, Layson second, McVain third, time, 1:18.

Four furlongs—Gus Strawn won, Torio second, Velour third, time, 0:55 1/2.

One mile—Benvolio won, Postmaster second, Bugler third, time, 1:44.

Seven furlongs—Laura F. M. won, Warte second, Mrs. M. C. Cap third, time, 1:34 1/2.

Five furlongs—Gus Strawn won, Torio second, Velour third, time, 0:55 1/2.

One mile—Redmont won, Hindoo second, Circus third, time, 1:42.

One mile—Glendon won, Missmam second, The Trifer third, time, 1:41.

At St. Louis Fair Grounds

ST. LOUIS, April 27.—Fair grounds race results:

Six furlongs—St. Carter won, Torio second, Bishop West third, time, 1:21 3/4.

Half mile—Rustic Lady won, Bahol second, Chica third, time, 0:24.

Six furlongs—Lena Wolf won, Bavarian second, McDevia third, time, 1:22.

Seven furlongs—Baleland won, Matador second, Floral third, time, 1:34 1/2.

Six furlongs—Gus Strawn won, Torio second, Velour third, time, 1:22.

One mile and a quarter—George Vivian won, Never Such second, Veto third, time, 2:23 1/2.

At Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 27.—Elm Ridge race results:

Five and 7/8 mile—Trinity Bell won, Del Carina second, Gus Strawn third, time, 1:34 1/2.

One mile and a quarter—stephance—Creslin won, John E. second, Collegian third, time, 2:28 1/2.

Five furlongs—Lady Navarre won, Hadar second, Jurist third, time, 1:06.

Seven furlongs—Harpoon won, Leader second, Zerkow third, time, 1:30 1/2.

Six furlongs—Royal Legion won, Graphite second, Darius third, time, 1:18 1/2.

Five furlongs—Kakoa won, Ada Barbara second, Durbar third, time, 1:04 1/2.

At New York Aqueduct Track

NEW YORK, April 27.—Aqueduct results:

Four and a half furlongs—Deux Temps won, Bantam second, Tario third, time, 0:56 3/4.

Five and a half furlongs, handicap—Burlingame won, Tascan second, New York third, time, 1:35 3/4.

Six furlongs—Bohemian won, Teacrose second, Belle Storme third, time, 1:15.

Six furlongs—Astral will win, Gold Phoenix won, Ecutech second, Gold Flyer third, time, 1:15 3/4.

One mile and 7/8 mile—Lord Hodge won, King Rover second, Aracal third, time, 1:41.

Four and a half furlongs—Phidias won, Aurora second, Sidney F. third, time, 0:55 3/4.

No Horses Wanted at Chicago

NASHVILLE, April 27.—The following was posted on the track bulletin board today:

"Chicago, April 27.—E. S. Brasley, Race Track, Nashville. Prevent the horsemen from coming here.—George J. Gibbs."

WILL MEET SEATTLE MEN

Multnomah Club Sends Its Champions to the Sound City.

A delegation of Multnomah Club members left last night for Seattle, where they will witness the return meeting of wrestlers and boxers from the Multnomah Club, who will pit their strength and ability against wrestlers and boxers of the Seattle Athletic Club.

The events carded are between Frank Leno, Johnson and Graham, Bottler, of Multnomah, will don the padded gloves with Plumber.

When the Seattle athletes came to the Multnomah Club some time ago, the local clubmen (Ore.) were in honor, Seattle had to be content with the local clubmen.

This time the Multnomah boys feel confident that they will bring home a victory in each contest.

Among the local club who will visit Seattle and root for the home athletes are Frank Watkins and wife, Bert Kerrigan, L. Herdman, Charles Brandan, J. C. Beyers, Henry Metzger, Hood Butler, Ed Johnson, Fred Rennick, Newton Atherton and Ed Frank.

H. M. A. Versus P. H. S.

This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the cadets of the Hill Military Academy will line up against the High School on the Multnomah Field for the fourth game of the Academic League.

As all three teams are 100 men, the outcome of this game means that one team will go to the top and one to the bottom of the list.

For this reason, both teams have been practicing hard, and the game promises to be hotly contested. Ed Rankin will umpire.

Following is the way the teams will line up:

H. M. A. P. H. S. McCoy.....C.....Goodall

Chiffoleau.....C.....Goodall

Smith.....IB.....Ganong

of Washington's weak points even when their teams have won all of their games. It has been impossible for the coach, within the time allowed, to get the work team into shape, to devote much of his time to the kicking part of the game.

Portland Made Headquarters for Woodcraft.

Convention Carried by Clever Manipulation of Votes and Surprise Sprung on Other Cities Which Were Left Out.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 27.—(Special.)—Portland won the honor of becoming the permanent headquarters of the Woodcraft into this afternoon, after the convention was thought to be hopelessly deadlocked through the action of Denver supporters, who declared they would win or no decision would be made this session.

But the Portland contingent had the best strategists and the best card up its sleeve, although up to noon those outside the magic circle fondly supposed the fight lay between Chicago, Oakland and Los Angeles, with the odds with the latter two.

At noon the Portland supporters made a combination which almost absorbed the entire Los Angeles vote, ate up the Boise City contingent and made a great hole in the Oakland circle.

It proved a grand officers' slate, so successful earlier in the session. The skillfully acquired support proved to be needed.

It was supposed a two-thirds vote was necessary for acting upon this firm belief, the convention balloted twice.

First ballot—Portland 159, Denver 118, Oakland 118, Leadville 29, Los Angeles 29, Lake City, offering 27 alleged $15,000 site, received nine votes.

Second ballot—Portland 255, Denver 115, Oakland 50, Leadville 19.

Denver and Leadville and more than a score of Oakland supporters refused to give ground, and controlled more than the fatal one-third of the convention.

Then Portland's big card was sprung, in the shape of a section of the constitution which seemed to call for a majority vote only to decide on a headquarters. Grand Guardian Van Orsdel, Oregon, held that view of the section, and upon appeal a big majority of the convention sustained her decision.

Although Portland had a bare majority on the second ballot, the grand guardian graciously called for another vote, with a result as follows:

Portland 246, Denver 110, Oakland 145, Leadville 29, Lake City, offering 27 alleged $15,000 site, received nine votes.

Dr. Kirkendall gave notice that he would raise the question of the interpretation of the question tomorrow, but Portland has the decision officially tonight.

HELD FOR AN OLD CRIME

Suspected Murderers of Old Miner Held on a Boy's Testimony.

GRANT'S PASS, Or., April 27.—(Special.)—There appears to be a reasonable certainty that the murderers of William Dunlap, a two men now in jail, charged with the murder committed in March, 1902. Dunlap, who was an old soldier, a native of Pennsylvania, lived by himself at Louise Creek, six miles from Grant's Pass, where he had worked 30 years on a rich placer mine.

He was shot in the breast and instantly killed as he was approaching his house with an armful of wood.

The neighbors found the body several days afterward, and found that the house had been robbed by persons searching for gold the old man was supposed to have. Though the authorities made an effort to find the murderers, no trace could be found.

Monday, a telephone message was received here by Sheriff George Lewis from Lloyd Ingram, at the Monumental mine, in Del Norte County, California, stating that he had a man named Dunlap, who was 17 years old, a son of Andrew Ingram, a former residence of Grant's Pass, but lately of Crescent City, Cal.

At Sheriff Lewis' request, the boy came to Grant's Pass, arriving here last night. Here he told that his father and Estley Dodson killed Mr. Dunlap, and that he was with them, and was made to help search the house, in which they got the money. How much gold he did not know.

Dodson, who was working in a local livery stable, was arrested today and placed in jail. He denies the crime. He has been about Grant's Pass for the past three years, coming from Texas, where he was a cowboy. Here he has been mining and cutting wood, and has borne an average reputation.

Ingram was arrested today at Crescent City by the Sheriff of Del Norte County, and is now in jail there, awaiting the coming of the Sheriff from here with a requisition for him from the Governor of Oregon.

Ingram's wife left him several years ago. He and the boy have lived in Grant's Pass, and the boy's father, Ingram's reputation is not of the best. The boy states that the reason he informed on his father and Dodson was that he feared they would kill him. His father had been cross to him of late, so he left him and came to the Monumental mine last week.

The Circuit Court is now in session, but Judge Hanna has the docket so cleaned that he will probably adjourn court Saturday, though if sufficient evidence is had at once to warrant trial, he will likely hold an adjourned term now to hear the cases of Ingram and Dodson; otherwise, their trials will not take place until the regular July term.

NORTHWEST DEAD.

Rev. Daniel Bagley.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 27.—(Special.)—Rev. Daniel Bagley, who died here today, was a pioneer minister of the headquarters of Salem, Or., and a resident of the Willamette Valley from 1852 to 1860. He came to Seattle in 1860, and was chairman of the commission that established Washington State University.

In Oregon, his labors extended from the Puget sound, on the south, to the Columbia River on the north, and it was rare for him to remain at home 30 days in succession. A large part of his life was in Oregon, and he was employed in tinners work, traveling through heat and dust, rain, snow, mud and floods, by days and night, nearly entirely on horseback.

His original engagement with his board of missions was for a term of five years, with the munificent salary of $500 per annum. He filled the contract to the letter, but after the first 18 months all remittances from the board were stopped. He then added to his labors the sale of the American Tract Society books, and was thus enabled to eke out a bare living for himself and family.

He was an anti-slavery leader before coming West.

Ira Hutson.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 27.—(Special.)—Ira Hutson, aged 32 years and a veteran of the Civil War, died of paralysis at his home in this city today. The deceased was an inventor of some prominence, having patented a number of his best inventions. For many years he was a locomotive engineer. He is survived by a wife and two children.

Few Pardoned by Mead.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 27.—(Special.)—The application for the pardon of Paul Underwood, a young Chehalis County shingleweaver, who was convicted of murdering his infant child with chloroform, was denied by Governor Mead today. The Governor also denied the application for the pardon of Frank Zennon, who was the first person convicted under the law making it a felony to live off the earnings of fallen women; of A. J. Symes, under sentence from Whitman County for 15 years for manslaughter, and of Sigur Paulsen, convicted in Snohomish County of burglary.

In the case of Renwick McCammon, sent up to have returned home on parole, the Governor denied the pardon, but expressed a willingness to parole the prisoner if the approval of the Superintendent of the Penitentiary could be secured. The same decision was rendered in the application for the pardon of A. Quillar Justus, sent up from Chehalis County for robbery.

The Governor has agreed to pardon Fred Hoyt and Charles E. Clark, convicted in Lewis County of assault with intent to commit robbery, provided the trial judge and prosecuting attorney will sign their applications.

Turns Weapon on Himself.

BUTTE, Mont., April 27.—A special to the Record from Billings says Mrs. Robert Bruce, wife of a railroad man, died today from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the right lung. Bruce, her husband, is said to have returned home unexpectedly last night and to have found a young man named Jesse Copenhaver, of Livingston, in a compromising position with his wife. He attacked Copenhaver, who fled. Mrs. Bruce grabbed a pistol and threatened to shoot Bruce and her brother, F. Wheeler, who accompanied him. She was dissuaded and then turned the weapon upon herself. Bruce, Copenhaver and Copenhaver have been arrested pending the outcome of the inquest, being held this afternoon.

Albany Outgrows Its Limits.

ALBANY, Or., April 27.—(Special.)—The official census of the city of Albany, taken under the statutory provision that the county should have an official enumeration of its inhabitants every ten years, was completed by Deputy Assessor Earl Fisher today. It shows a total population of 228 within the incorporated portion of Albany. This number is distributed as follows: Price Precinct, 45; Albany, 536; West Albany, 165; and East Albany, 118. The incorporated limits of Albany have not been changed for years, and it is estimated that fully 280 people residing along the outer edge of the city are not included in this enumeration.

Editor Sues for Libel.

BOISE, Idaho, April 27.—(Special.)—C. H. Fisher, until lately editor of the Capital News of this city, today filed a libel suit against the paper for $10,000. The case is based on an editorial article that appeared in the News after Fisher had been deposed as editor, in which the statement was made that he had entered into a conspiracy with J. H. Brady, Republican state chairman, to wreck the paper, resorting to misrepresentation and fraud to accomplish his purpose.

Benefit for "Kid" Sullivan.

Tommy Tracey, who is always lending a helping hand to the needy boxer, has finally arranged a big benefit for "Kid" Sullivan, the local boxer who lost his foot in a railroad accident some time ago. The benefit will be given at Merrill's Hall tonight, and in addition to three four-round boxing matches on the part of six of the cleverest boxers that Tracey could evenly match, there will be a vaudeville programme.

The boxing matches will be between Young Mowatt and Perkins. The lads will put a fast four-round mill, and this will be followed by a mix-up for the name of rounds between "Kid" Freeman, of Oregon City, and "Kid" Swanson. Brown and Mike Kenney will furnish the last bout. The money which Sullivan will derive from the benefit will be used to purchase an artificial foot.

Local sports, who have seen Sullivan box most of his amateur fights, have expressed a willingness to give a helping hand. The local sports of the evening's entertainment will be furnished by Mysterious Billie Smith and Jimmy Reilly. This pair will also box four rounds. This bout will be sure to be full of fun and action and will be worth the price of admission alone.

Kid McCoy's House Raided.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Detectives made a raid early today on the racketeer in the Hotel Delavan, Fortieth street and Broadway, and saloon across the street known as "Kid" McCoy's. Proprietor Thomas O'Rourke, of the Delavan, a well-known sporting man, was arrested. He carried a large cache of conducting a disorderly house. Similar charges were made against the manager of McCoy's, in O'Rourke's eight women also were arrested.

Gives Reading at College.

MINNIVILLE COLLEGE, Minn.—(Special.)—Last night in the college chapel Mrs. H. Wayne Jones, a popular dramatic reader, rendered a reading of "The Lost World," under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

Body and Brain

Are Equally Nourished, Invigorated and Strengthened

When Winter Chills have Weakened Your Brain and Nerve Cells.

When Kidney and Liver are on Strike and refuse to Arbitrate.

When Life seems all wrong and everything is out of gear.

You Need

Rev. Daniel Bagley.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 27.—(Special.)—Rev. Daniel Bagley, who died here today, was a pioneer minister of the headquarters of Salem, Or., and a resident of the Willamette Valley from 1852 to 1860. He came to Seattle in 1860, and was chairman of the commission that established Washington State University.

In Oregon, his labors extended from the Puget sound, on the south, to the Columbia River on the north, and it was rare for him to remain at home 30 days in succession. A large part of his life was in Oregon, and he was employed in tinners work, traveling through heat and dust, rain, snow, mud and floods, by days and night, nearly entirely on horseback.

His original engagement with his board of missions was for a term of five years, with the munificent salary of $500 per annum. He filled the contract to the letter, but after the first 18 months all remittances from the board were stopped. He then added to his labors the sale of the American Tract Society books, and was thus enabled to eke out a bare living for himself and family.

He was an anti-slavery leader before coming West.

Ira Hutson.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 27.—(Special.)—Ira Hutson, aged 32 years and a veteran of the Civil War, died of paralysis at his home in this city today. The deceased was an inventor of some prominence, having patented a number of his best inventions. For many years he was a locomotive engineer. He is survived by a wife and two children.

Atterbury's System

Clothes of Gentility

Afterbury Clothes have no standing on a bargain counter. They are too high-priced for that. Yet they are the cheapest to be had in the sense that the best is always the cheapest in the end. The clothes are so aptly described by the title "The Clothes of Gentility," that we advertise solely to induce you to examine them. After that they will conduct their own sale.

Afterbury System Labels in Each Garment. Authorized Agents in All Cities.

Afterbury Suits and Overcoats $20 to $40

The Atterbury System

OFFICES AND TAILOR SHOPS

110-112 Fifth Avenue, New York

WIDENING HIS VIEWS

Portland Made Headquarters for Woodcraft.

Convention Carried by Clever Manipulation of Votes and Surprise Sprung on Other Cities Which Were Left Out.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 27.—(Special.)—Portland won the honor of becoming the permanent headquarters of the Woodcraft into this afternoon, after the convention was thought to be hopelessly deadlocked through the action of Denver supporters, who declared they would win or no decision would be made this session.

But the Portland contingent had the best strategists and the best card up its sleeve, although up to noon those outside the magic circle fondly supposed the fight lay between Chicago, Oakland and Los Angeles, with the odds with the latter two.

At noon the Portland supporters made a combination which almost absorbed the entire Los Angeles vote, ate up the Boise City contingent and made a great hole in the Oakland circle.

It proved a grand officers' slate, so successful earlier in the session. The skillfully acquired support proved to be needed.

It was supposed a two-thirds vote was necessary for acting upon this firm belief, the convention balloted twice.

First ballot—Portland 159, Denver 118, Oakland 118, Leadville 29, Los Angeles 29, Lake City, offering 27 alleged $15,000 site, received nine votes.

Second ballot—Portland 255, Denver 115, Oakland 50, Leadville 19.

Denver and Leadville and more than a score of Oakland supporters refused to give ground, and controlled more than the fatal one-third of the convention.

Then Portland's big card was sprung, in the shape of a section of the constitution which seemed to call for a majority vote only to decide on a headquarters. Grand Guardian Van Orsdel, Oregon, held that view of the section, and upon appeal a big majority of the convention sustained her decision.

Although Portland had a bare majority on the second ballot, the grand guardian graciously called for another vote, with a result as follows:

Portland 246, Denver 110, Oakland 145, Leadville 29, Lake City, offering 27 alleged $15,000 site, received nine votes.

Dr. Kirkendall gave notice that he would raise the question of the interpretation of the question tomorrow, but Portland has the decision officially tonight.

HELD FOR AN OLD CRIME

Suspected Murderers of Old Miner Held on a Boy's Testimony.

GRANT'S PASS, Or., April 27.—(Special.)—There appears to be a reasonable certainty that the murderers of William Dunlap, a two men now in jail, charged with the murder committed in March, 1902. Dunlap, who was an old soldier, a native of Pennsylvania, lived by himself at Louise Creek, six miles from Grant's Pass, where he had worked 30 years on a rich placer mine.

He was shot in the breast and instantly killed as he was approaching his house with an armful of wood.

The neighbors found the body several days afterward, and found that the house had been robbed by persons searching for gold the old man was supposed to have. Though the authorities made an effort to find the murderers, no trace could be found.

Monday, a telephone message was received here by Sheriff George Lewis from Lloyd Ingram, at the Monumental mine, in Del Norte County, California, stating that he had a man named Dunlap, who was 17 years old, a son of Andrew Ingram, a former residence of Grant's Pass, but lately of Crescent City, Cal.

At Sheriff Lewis' request, the boy came to Grant's Pass, arriving here last night. Here he told that his father and Estley Dodson killed Mr. Dunlap, and that he was with them, and was made to help search the house, in which they got the money. How much gold he did not know.

Dodson, who was working in a local livery stable, was arrested today and placed in jail. He denies the crime. He has been about Grant's Pass for the past three years, coming from Texas, where he was a cowboy. Here he has been mining and cutting wood, and has borne an average reputation.

Ingram was arrested