All Interest in Northern Pacific and Great Northern Goes With Stock, Harriman Control of Union Pacific Saved by Deal.

NEW YORK, May 1 .- (Special.)-Promint banking interests said about no today that all possibility of trouble between the Union Pacific and Great Northern railroad interests had been removed as a result of a big deal just accomplished. According to trustworthy authority, a syndicate has been formed, under the leadership of First National Bank Interests, to take over the balance of $60,000,000 of Northern Securities stock owned by the Union Pacific Company at $150 a share. The latter recently sold $20,000,000 of its Northern Securities stock at the high price that held at the time.

Besides taking over the Union Pacific holdings of Northern Securities at a price which gives the Union Pacific a big profit, it guarantees that there shall be no encreachment by the Northern Pacific and other interests in the Union Pacific ter-

Concerning the recent slump in Union Pacific, it was said that interests close to the management had accumulated 100,000 shares of the stock within the last few days. They probably knew of the sale of the company's Northern Securities

Bankers said today that there was not likely to be any tightening of money for some time, unless one or two of the big institutions combined to put up the rate for call loans during the present excitement, but that, even if they did so, they would not be able to maintain a higher rate for many days. As a matter of fact, many loans were voluntarily paid off to day as a result of the last week's tremen-

HIS CONTROL WAS AT STAKE

Hostile Forces Caused Harriman to Fight Hard for Existence. BOSTON, Mass., May 1 .- (Special.) - The next man to follow Gould in resigning from the Union Pacific directorate will be E. H. Harriman. This resignation need not be expected in a week, or possibly a month, but it will come, as there is good reason for saying that the man who was the real head of the Union Paclife two months ago is not the real head

Two weeks or so ago the prediction was made that, when the smoke of battle cleared away in the Northern Securities Union Pacific fight, it would found that Hill, Vanderbilt, Bockefeller, Frick, Baker, Rogers and Stillman were on one side, and that Harriman and Schiff were on the other. The two forces are today lined up as above stated, except that Schiff has gone back on Harriman.

If Harriman wants to fight Hill, he will be obliged to conduct his fight un-The others have arrived at the conclusion that there is room enough and business enough for all, and Harriman's former associates today believe that Hill could "beat them to death" in case of a railroad fight.

Harriman is desperately working to get every available proxy for the Union Paelfic meeting May L. He sent four repreentatives to get proxies on one large block, which were first offered to Morgan and declined. Harriman, who was a selier of Northern Secuities at 20 points above present prices is now buying them back. About ten days ago a certain member of the so-called Rock Island party privately transferred to the Harriman party a large block of Union Pacific, but what this means is still a mystery,

There still exists a cloud of mystery about Union Pacific, scores of rumors are affest, and the same tremendous private dealings in the stock continue. The New York Central will shortly announce a plan to issue new stock and give valuable rights to stockholders, and this may prove to have some connection with the original New York Central-Chicago & Northwestern-Union Pacific scheme.

HOOKER'S REMOVAL RECOM-MENDED BY COMMITTEE.

New York Legislature Informed That One of Supreme Judges Was Corrupt Congressman.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 1.—(Special.)—A ensational outcropping of the postal candals was the recommendation of the committee of the lower house of the State Legislature this evening that Supreme Justice W. B. Hooker be removed from the bench owing to various acts committed by him in the matter of securing positions in the postal service for friends and supporters while a member of Congress. Justice Hooker two years ago, while a member of Congress, was appointed to the bench by ex-Governor Odell to fill a vacancy. Later he was elected to the position.

Upon receiving the report the Assembly unanimously agreed to make the question of its adoption the special business for Thursday. The report, signed quantimously by the Republican and Democratic members of the special committee, declares that several appointments made by George W. Beavers, the former postal official, who is under many indictments for fraud in the conduct of his office, at the suggestion of the Judge, were culpable and show a personal unfitness in Judge Hooker to occupy the position of Justice of the Supreme Court.

Hooker to occupy the position of Justice of the Supreme Court.

Concerning the appointment of Katherine K. Clark to a position in the postal service, the report declares that it was immoral and corrupt. The report further declares "corrupt" the jurist's attempt to influence a brother jurist to render a corrupt judgment in his interest and to the injury of the City of Dushirk.

While the While the committee declares that there is no ground for imposchment proceedings, the acts being committed while he was not a member of the bench, it holds that his acts previous to his appointment constitute just cause for removal. The report declares that in securing irregular appointments in violation of the civil ser-ciet laws the United States was defrauded of $302.77, the amount of salaries Judge Hooker's appointees drew for their ser-

HIS CANCER BEING CURED

Dr. Harper on High Road to Recovery From "Incurable" Disease.

NEW YORK, May 1 .- Dr. William Rainey Harper, president of Chicago University, is said by his physicians to be on the high road to recovery from a cancer, a disease heretofore pronincurable.

Dr. Harper arrived in New York from Chicago Inte Sunday night in company with Dr. Frank Billings, his physician, and is at present stopping at the Hotel Manhattan. For two long hours yesterday Dr. Harper underwent an examination by Dr. William James Morton at the latter's office, and awaited the verdict of the expert with unconcealed anxiety. The result exceeded his fondest hopes, and he waiked out into the sunshine with brutalities toward her and his threats step as springy as a boy. Later in the to kill her: the constant family quarafternoon at the Manhatian he received rels and troubles; the threats of his congratulations of scores of friends.

Dr. Morton found that not only had the growth of cancerous tumor been arrested. but that it had decreased nearly two thirds of its original size. Three weeks ago the growth covered an area of more han 18 square Inches. Yesterday the Xray showed that the disease was confined to an area of hardly seven square inches.

The session began at 10 o'clock this morning, County Attorney Buxton addressing the court for the state. He was followed by John M. Ponder and M. A. Langhorne for the defendant. A. J. Falkner, of Olympia, Assistant Attorney-General closed for the state. The courtroom was packed to the utmost capacity all day.

Julge Rice charged the jury at 'clock, closing at 4:35, when it retired. Public opinion was divided as to what the verdict would be, it being thought at least a manslaughter verdict might have been rendered. The news that the jury had agreed on a verdict spread rapidly and the courtoom was quickly filled tonight. There was a demonstration of handelapping by a few when the verdict was rendered, but order was quickly restored. The mother and the attorneys for the defendant overwhelmed the jurors with thanks for the verdict.

Thomas Brown, a youth of about 18 aw and ungainly, shot and killed his father, Thomas Brown, on Deep Creek, 12 miles from Chehalts, Wash., Friday evening, December 13, 1964.

According to the boy's story, the father and family had had trouble for a number of years. Brown would come to town and get drunk, and upon re-turning home would curse and beat als wife and children unmercifully. Two years ago things became unbearable and Mrs. Brown was granted a separa-tion. Brown then made his home on a small ranch about a mile this side of the corresponding period last year.

There has been quite a flurry in the prices for salmon at Chinook, owing to a controversy between two packing companies over some net racks on the north side of the river. As high as 8 cents per pound has been paid, but as very few fish are being delivered the expense of the fight has not been heavy. The controversy is strictly local and so far as known does not extend to any other section of the river.

People in Orderly Demonstration Slain by Troops in Wanton Massacre.

WORKMEN TAKE REVENGE

They Shoot From Ambush at Patrols and Throw Bombs, Killing Cossacks, and Another Fusillade Follows.

WARSAW, May 1 .- Nearly 100 persons were killed or wounded in disturbances in various quarters of Warsaw today The troops, apparently, were uncontrollable and violated all orders to act with moderation. They fired into the crowd of demonstrators, and workmen in desperation resorted to the use of firearms and bombs. Many children and women are among the dead and dving.

What approaches a reign of terror exists tonight; the city presents a most gloomy aspect, and the temper of the en-tire community augurs iii. The presence of numerous patrols of Cossack cavalry and infantry is the only reminder of lurking danger.

No untoward incident was reported until afternoon. The first disturbances oc curred between 1 and 2 o'clock this afteron, when a procession of several thousand workmen, carrying red flags, marched along Zelasna street. The demonstration was quite orderly and proceeded without molestation for some distance Suddenly several squadrons of Uhlans appeared, but without interfering with the procession, and took a position along the sidewalks, while the workmen passed through the lines.

Wanton Attack by Troops.

Then a company of infantry approached from the front, and immediately the cavalry charged into the procession, driving it with the flat of the sword into a disorganized mass. When the cavalry with drew, the infantry fired a volley, where upon the demonstrators turned and fled. The infantry continued to discharge volleys into the retreating, shricking multitude. Thirty-one persons were killed and many wounded, and of the latter it is be Heved 15 will die.

The shooting is denounced as having been quite unprovoked. It has aroused the most intense indignation among all classes in Warsaw. Many of those who were killed or wounded were shot in the Russia. Page 4. were killed or wounded were shot in the back, showing that they were running away when they were struck. Another terribie scene was enacted at 5 o'clock at the corner of Hlota and Sosnore streets, when workmen fired from behind a wall at a patrol, which immediately opened fire on the passing crowds, killing or wounding 20 persons.

Bomb Kills Cossacks. The first bomb-throwing occurred at 9:35 o'clock tonight, when a bomb was thrown into a Cossack patrol near the Vienua station. Three Cossacks and one police mun were killed and two women who were leaving the station at the time were severely wounded by the explosion of a omb. Cossacks and infantry fired a number of volleys, and it is reported that many persons were killed or wounded. Troops surrounded the whole neighbornood. It has been impossible, up to the present time, to secure accurate information as to the casualties in this affair. At 10:45 o'clock P. M. disturbances broke out at Zomkowska gate of the suburb of Praga, across the Vistula River. A great crowd had assembled there, threatening the troops, when Hussars fired upon the crowd and killed four and wounded many others. In Jerosolini street a man fired into a patrol from the roof of a house, but without result. It was reported by telephone from Lodz this afternoon that a crowd there had stoned a military patrol, whereupon the oldiers fired and killed two men and wounded a boy. A similar incident oc-curred later in Balüki Square, in Lodz, when two persons were killed. In Lodz also at 3 o'clock tonight bomb was thrown at a patrol, but it was not effective. The patrol fired into the crowd and killed three and wounded two persons.

A student, who was distributing proclanations in Wolla, a suburb of Warsaw, was killed tonight by a patrol. In Nawrot street, in Warsaw tonight, a patrol killed a woman Anger at White Heat.

Today's bloodshed is likely to affect very eriously the general situation, and may cause a general strike. The temper of the people is at white heat, and there is much apprehension regarding the possible events of May 5, the 114th anniversary of the proclamation of the Polish constitution, when disturbances and demonstrations always occur.

Tonight there is every indication of trouble. All the ground that had been gained since the disturbances of last January has now been lost,

Only passenger trains are leaving Waraw tonight, and these are crowded with refugees and manned by officials of the engineering departments, all the enginedrivers, firemen and porters having quit

WARSAW NOW ARMED CAMP.

Cossacks Patrol Streets, While Police Search for Bombs. SPECIAL CABLE.

WARSAW, May 2.-(2:30 A. M.)-After 36 hours of terror the city is at present quiet, but the trouble is by no mea over, and the people are waiting in sul-len discontent for an opportunity to get even with their oppressors. The city is an armed camp, with Cossacks patrolling the streets in platoons ready at the slightest show of opposition to the authorities to shoot without warnthe squares ready to be sent to any point where trouble may break out, and all the conditions that follow the declaration of martial law are very much in evidence. So serious is the situation cons ered that more troops have been sent for and will be held in reserve outside of the city until the trouble is quelled. Today can hardly bring about any improvement in the situation, as the strike proclaimed yesterday in all the workshops and foundries is now to go into effect, and the thousands of life workmen will hardly submit tamely to being denied liberty of speech or freedom to parade the streets at will.

How many were killed during the fight-ing on Monday and Monday night cannot be said. The bodies of the siain have all been conveyed to the barracks and information is withheld by the Governor General and subordinates and all inquir ers have been threatened with arrest. The wounded are in the hospitals, which are surrounded by police and Cossacks, and admission is denied to those who are known to have relatives within Bomb Scatters Deadly Missiles.

During the day there were three very encounters and innumerable minor clashes. The latest of these took place in the evening just outside of Vistation. Here a Cossack patrol was being massed when some one threw a small bomb filled with nails and scraps of copper into the center of the squad. It exploded, the fragments covering a considerable area. Great confusion followed, and the infantry stationed at the right of the building fired repeated volleys into the crowd. The people dispersed in all directions, leaving the ground covered with dead and wounded.

The dead were hurriedly conveyed to an upper room of the station and a guard mounted over the door, while the wounded were taken to the nearest hospital. How many were killed or wounded is problematic, but it is certain to have been a considerable number. Inquirers at the police station were referred to the office of the Governor-General, but there information was refused.

The commandant of the troops reported that the original bomb explosion caused the death of three Cossacks and two policemen, the serious wound ing of a dozen others and the fatal injury of two ladies, who were leaving the station at the time. The names of the latter could not be ascertained, al-

Barrett's criminal record follows: William Barrett is believed to have the thief who got away with $50,000 fr from a bank messenger in Paris. Although Barrett and his gang are believed by the pollec to have been guilty of the Paris robery, the Paris police have not asked that he be held and he will not be held to answer. he be held and he will not be held to answer for that case unless such a request is made. The members of the gang, with which Barhas worked are four crooks known to the police as George Willard, "Dan" Alsin, "Billy" Burke and "Micky" Gleanon. It was these men, the police believe, who succeeded in getting away with a bag of gold containing specie to the amount of $80,000 in our money, from a messenger of the Bank of France. One of the reasons on which the police base this theory is the action of the gang in connection with a robbery committed some time before that in Cleveland, O. Barrett and his pai, "Micky" Gleason, were recentled for robbing a Cirveland jeweler of ted asme time before that in Cleveland, O. Barrett and his pal, "Micky" Gleason, were arrested for robbing a Cleveland jaweler of $15,000. They jumped their bail and went to Europe. Shortly after the Paris robbery occurred they returned to this country, and the case with the Cleveland jeweler was compromised. The police say that the $50,000 which was stolen in Paris helped to bring about this compromise. The theft which brought about their arrest in the jewelry case was really another one which happened a short time afterward, also in Cleveland. Barrett and Gleason took the pocketbook of a man who had just drawn out a large sum of mosey from a bank. They were arrested not long afterward.

In 1855 Barrett was sentenced to the Illinois State Prison at Joliet for an indefinite period, and was discharged in 1802. That year he was again arrested, but the Chicago simal jury falled to indict him.

As William Thompson he was arrested in Chicago in 1804, but was acquitted and later in the year he was sentenced to four years for a bank theft in Pittsburg. In 1808, as William Thompson, he was arrested for another bank theft, but escaped conviction, and in October, 1809, he was arrested in Milwanke for the robbery on which he will now be held. His last term of imprisonment was served
