to Theater

PARIS, May 1.-King Edward started day. Another automobile containing French and British officials followed. On his way to Versailles, King Edward in-spected the famous stud of running horses belonging to Edmond Blané. He afterwards visited Versailles, took an informal luncheon at a restaurant and then attended the races at St. Cloud, where he was an interested spectator. The King occupied a private tribune, strolled about the paddock with Prince Murat, Edmond Blanc, and other turf celebrities and took a glimpse at the French betting ring. His Majesty's presence was quite unexpected, and, therefore, no special card was prepared. The feature was the Prix Le Rol Solell, in which Mr. Vanderbilt's Bengal was pitted against nine French including Proud Petit Frere orth Pole and other popular favorites Between races the King, accompani

After the races the King returned in a motor car to Paris. Tonight he was present at a performance of "Le Duel" at the Theater Français. This is not a gala event, as the King earnestly desires to remain incognito. He says he intends to be a frequent visitor to Paris If he is al-lowed to mingle unnoticed amid the

RED FLAG WAVES AT TOULON

Disorderly Labor Demonstrations by French Anarchists. PARIS, May 1.—Labor day was ob-served throughout France. The trades unions of Paris held a monster meet-ing, and adopted resolutions in favor of an eight-hour day. Disorderly manifestations occurred at Brest and St. Etlenne, where the streetcars were stopped, but no serious incidents have been reported. Later it was announced that the demonstration at Toulon has assumed a threatening aspect. Anarchists marched in a procession carrying red flags, chanting a revolutionary hymn and bearing a banner inscribed, "Remember the Victims of Capital at Chicago. Limoges and Martinique."

An affray occurred in front of the naval arsenal, during which several workmen were slightly injured.

AT THE THEATERS

"The Marble Heart" at the Empire

The eternal duel of poverty with wealth, the way of a heartless coquette with an honest man, the conquering of usefulness and genius by a useless love and the final triumph of reason and common sense these are portrayed in "The Marble Heart." which is the bill this week at the Empire Theater. Though this is but the fourth week of the Empire Stock Company's season, it is evident that this group of players has won a corner in the heart of the Port-land public, for packed houses at the two performances yesterday listened to the story of Raphael and Marco. Expected Outbreaks of Disorder in Russia Do Not Occur.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 2.-(2 A. M.)-Aside from the expected Mayday disorders in Poland, where revolutionary parades led to sanguinary encounters with the police and troops in Warsaw, Lodz and other industrial centers, perfect order prevailed yesterday throughout Russia. There was no sign even of a desire to stir up trouble, indicating the baseless ness of rumors that had been current for some time of plans of rioting and pillage on the second day of the Easter holidays Associated Press correspondents at Mos ow, Odessa, Kieff, Minsk, Kishineff and other points state that Russians of all political faiths devoted themselves to the customary holiday festivities with apparently no thought of disorder, and in St. Petersburg, even the industrial quarter, which had previously been throbbing with discontent, for the day took on the appearance of merrymaking and feasting. Governor-General Trepoff, who is close ly in touch with the situation, early real ized the state of public feeling, and, while he did not withdraw the troops or police from strategic positions, issued orders that they keep out of sight and avoid any unnecessary display of force. The explosion of a bomb early Monday morning in a room in an apartment-house while not connected with any plan of rioting, indicates that the terrorists are still preparing to execute vengeance against individuals undeterred by the arrests of score of participants in one plot.
