

EMUL COLLEGE WORK

Young Dentists Hold Their Commencement.

DIPLOMAS FOR FORTY-ONE

Having Completed the Course at the North Pacific Dental College the Graduating Class is Now Entitled to Practice.

The First Baptist Church was filled to its capacity last night, on the occasion of the commencement exercises of the North Pacific Dental College.

Forty-one members of the 1905 class received diplomas conferring upon them the degree of doctor of dental medicine, and as each of these stepped forward to receive the insignia of his knowledge and the authority for his fitness in his chosen profession, he was greeted with hearty applause.

A pleasing programme, interspersed with advice, commendation and music, was arranged for the exit of the seniors from college life.

Judge Alfred F. Sears delivered the annual address, in which he dwelt at length on the obligations of citizenship and the necessity for professional men recognizing and fulfilling such. He made a strong plea that in the coming primaries not only the graduates, but the audience, should do all in their power to see that men were nominated for office who would make, enforce and execute all proper laws.

Dr. B. F. Eshelman conferred the degree, and in a pleasant strain commended the class for its past work. In his charge to the graduates Dr. Thomas L. Elliot in his free way offered wholesome advice for the guidance of the new dentists in the future, and urged upon them the necessity of maintaining the high standard now set in the profession.

The valedictory was delivered by B. N. Hamm, A. B. D. M. D. In "A Red, Red Rose" and "The Nightingale Song," Miss Edwina Mastick was never heard to better advantage, and the selections rendered by the trio, composed of Miss Huggins, piano; Mr. Spitzner, violin, and Mr. Konrad, violoncello, were particularly pleasing. The "Trauma Valse," composed especially for the occasion by Mr. Spitzner, was a feature of the programme.

Those receiving diplomas were:

Jack Aylwin, George Jay Bacher, Chester Franklin Becker, M. Montebello Bettman, Robert Nicholas Brewster, Henry Ernest Burmaster, Cornelius Sherman Collier, Harry Gardner Davis, Walter Scott Dorfner, James Francis Drake, Solomon Crawford Endicott, Ellis B. Flett, Walter Manual Gallagher, John Gill, Benjamin Norman Hamm, Henry Adolph Harr, William Elmer Hartel, Frank DeForest Hasbrouck, Edward Hirstel, Arthur W. Lister, Cornelius Silvey Kelsey, Albert William Kinney, Yo Taro Koudo, Alexander MacDougall, Earl Cornelius McFarland, Tom Meadax, Chester Arthur Morris, Herbert Adolphus Moss, Bert Clarence Olinger, Milford Austin Price, Alton David Remington, Orville Robert Reyburn, Urial B. Shantz, Bert E. Schoonmaker, Henry Brough Sook, Ralph Cecil Swinburne, Dana Isaac Wadsworth, Lewis Free Walker, William Adam Wallther, Edward Hale White, Anna Long Yates.

THE AUTOMATIC FRANCHISE

Fred Merrill Says He Is Not In Favor of It.

Two mooted questions will be before the City Council today, and there seems no probability of either being settled. The automatic telephone franchise is one supporter absent and one or two who are accredited with backsliding and the billboard ordinance is being used as a shuttlecock between the Council meeting and the license committee.

Four members of the Council have stood resolutely out against the automatic telephone and to secure one of these would be necessary to pass the franchise. It was rumored yesterday that such a one had been found. It was not Rumelin, nor Sherrett, but was said to be Fred T. Merrill. When asked yesterday if he would change his vote on that question, Merrill at first almost said he would. He said he might spring a surprise on the Council meeting. Then he explained why he thought the automatic telephone franchise was a bad thing. The seventh member of the Council necessary to vote for a franchise for the automatic telephone was evidently not Fred T. Merrill. However, he did not say yesterday what he was going to do today.

He can do what he pleases if Dr. Sanford Whiting does not appear, for with him absent, as anticipated, a sufficient number of votes cannot be obtained to pass the franchise.

The billboard ordinance seems to be in the usual condition of nobody knowing just what is wanted and no two members of the Council having the same ideas on the subject. At the last meeting of the Council an ordinance was introduced on this subject and was passed over to the license committee to see what could be done about it. The license committee held a hurried meeting last Monday at which it read over a portion of the proposed ordinance and decided that the Council could not do much with the ordinance in its present shape, and that a further expression of opinion was desirable, so it referred the proposed ordinance back to the Council, and there is no telling what will become of it now.

IT DOES NOT FAVOR PLAN

Chamber of Commerce Refuses to Commend New Department.

The proposition in which the Chamber of Commerce was asked to co-operate, by which an agitation was to be started tending to the creation of a Government department into which the interstate commerce commission should be merged, was indefinitely postponed as it was not thought time for the consideration of such a question at a meeting of the Chamber yesterday. The plan proposed called for the merging of the commission into a department, the secretary of the commission to be the secretary of the department. To it would be submitted the establishment and maintenance of all railroad freight rates and the settlement of all rate disputes.

The petition of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce asking that the Portland organization join in an effort to have the Government dredge Chinook remain at work on the Columbia river bar was refused. It being thought by the trustees that the question had been settled by the Government.

The following persons and firms were elected to membership in the Chamber: Dr. William Jones, The City Steam Dyeing and Cleaning Works, W. W.

St. Johns Must Have Money for Municipal Government.

In order to get money for current expenses the St. Johns Council at its meeting Monday evening decided to impose an occupation tax on all business houses of that place. For this purpose, and to secure an estimate as to how much of a tax to levy, the whole matter was referred to the finance committee, to report at the next meeting. It is said that the business men generally favor an occupation tax as they realize that money must be had for expenses, provided that it is not made too steep. It is thought that an occupation tax will not be burdensome will yield about $100 per month.

At this meeting it was decided to hold a special election Monday, May 23, to give voters an opportunity to vote for or against issuing $10,000 in bonds, to bear not over 6 per cent interest and to run ten years. The money is wanted for City Hall and grounds, to pay off debts, erect a public dock at the foot of Richmond street, and pay for fire apparatus, the whole issue aggregating $10,000.

WOULD KICK AND SCREAM

Baby's Awful Suffering from Eczema — Could Not Hold Her — Tora Face and Arms Almost to Pieces — Grateful Mother Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES SAVED HER LIFE"

"When my little girl was six months old, she had eczema. We had used cold creams and all kinds of remedies, but nothing did her any good; in fact, she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her on the table, for I could not hold her. She would kick and scream, and when she could, she would tear her face and arms almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I see no traces of the humor left. I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and I should advise any one suffering as she did, to give Cuticura a fair trial. Mrs. C. A. Conrad, Lisbon, N. H., Feb. 7, 1898."

FIVE YEARS LATER

Mrs. Conrad Writes

Added to this number of accredited delegates it is estimated that more than 1000 visitors will accompany the excursionists either as members of the organization or friends.
