HOME-FOLK'S PRE-EXPOSITION.

AS A MONEY-SAVING PROPOSITION FOR ALL ECONOMICAL SHOPPERS!

If Portland people do not bring their needs in personal attire and household wants to us this month, it is because they are indifferent to the value of time, money and satisfaction. That's a sermon in itself - think it over. And, moreover, one cannot afford to purchase, at any price, merchandise of poor or doubtful quality while the best that's made—the Olds, Wortman & King kind is offered at such generous reductions. Today is the third day of the greatest, most interesting sale of new and dependable goods, that bear the hall-mark of authoritative style, it has ever been the privilege of this store to give or Portland folk to enjoy. We have made tremendous efforts to make it so. Our success is attested by the unprecedented interest manifested the past two days in this wonderful, unparalleled sale. Here is a gigantic stock of seasonable merchandise at the mercy of your cash-profits lopped off and costs cut in two. By watching each day's sales one may fill a Summer's wants, have a Summer's buying over before Exposition days begin, and possess the ir aggregate purchase-bought piecemeal, as it were-at a figure as low or lower than that paid by this store "laid down" here in immense quantities. Now, if ever, it pays to watch the Olds, Wortman & King daily announcements, thro' the public press, "as a cat watches a mouse," and to plan a daily trip to the store. If you'll come today you'll find the richest list of bargains yet-among the WEDNESDAY "SPECIALS."

Home-Folk's Pre-Exposition Sale in the Bijou Millinery Salons-Annex, Second Floor

A Monster Sale of Handsome Hats at $5.00 $6, $7.50, $8 and $10 Values Included

A Special One-Day Sale

Looking backward a few months to a certain "Managers' Sale" when $100 in gold was offered to the departments showing greatest increase of business over a corresponding period of a year previous, we remember that the first prize of $50 was won by and awarded to Mr. Frank M. Hamburger, the able and popular young millinery section manager. Mr. Hamburger has served notice on us that he has decided to capture the first prize -also of $50-in the present competitive contest-this time, however, for the salesladies under his direction. Mr. Hamburger has never made a statement-to the best of our beliefin his life that he hasn't backed up. That's why this one looks exceedingly dangerous to competing departments. The resolute way he goes at it decides us to give no odds against him. Values like this of today should jam the department of millinery beauty to repletion with eager, enthusiastic buyers. What woman won't buy a $10 Hat for $5? especially when she may select from the newest of the new and the smartest of the most beautiful creations ever offered in the city of values, comprising the $6, $7.50, $8 and $10 Hats? Few, we think. That's why we advise millinery buyers to step around early today for first selections. About 200 Hats-that's all. $5.00 Choice-today only-at
