ARMED TRUCE IN WARSAW Report of Bouligan Commission on

Soldiers Patrol Streets, while Workmen Throughout Poland Strike. More Bloodshed Expected at Today's Celebration.

WARSAW, May 2-(9:11 P. M.)-The May-day death roll totaled & including ten persons who died in hospitals during the night. Probably 200 were injured.

Crowds gathered at the Tenth District Police Station this morning, where 20 victims, men and women, and three chil-dren, were awaiting identification. Some minor disturbances occurred today in different sections of the city, but no casualties have yet been reported.

All day long infantry and cavairy pa-trolled the streets, which were crowded with people who did not spare their critism of what was generally termed un-necessary slaughter. The popular irrita-tion could not be concealed. The soldiers evidently were nervous, and open out-breaks resulting in a repetition of yearterday's terrible scenes were only averted by the evident desire of the authorities to prevent a clash, coupled with the fear inspired by the soldiers' bullets. The pulation is most bitter against the milipopulation is most ditter against the mat-lary, and the government officials expect many attempts at revenge upon the offi-cers commanding the troops, all of whom are known. The Polish press is silent on the subject of yesterday's happenings. The official Russian paper prints a short and entirely inaccurate report. The Governor-General of Warsaw is said to be greatly upset by the turn of affairs

More Bloodshed Likely Today.

The Nationalists have arranged the ueual demonstrations for tomorrow, the 114th anniversary of the proclamation of the Polish constitution, and disturbances are highly probable. The workmen are in an ugly and uncertain mood. The work in an ugly and uncertain mood. The work-men in all the factories struck today, and great efforts are being made to bring about a general strike, but this is not likely to be successful. The people have not yet recovered from the exhaustion and losses resulting from the last strike. Reports conflict regarding the beginning of yesterday's encounter in Jerusalem street. According to the most gen-erally accepted version, the authorities had forbidden workmen marching in pro-cession to carry red flags but the workcession to carry red flags, but the work-men decided to ignore the order. When the procession reached Jerusalem street the police ordered the workmen to stop, but they refused to do so, and a police officer thereupon fired a revolver, giving a signal for the infantry to fire. It ap-pears that in other cases the demonstra-tors were the aggressors, but that in this instance the soldiers fired first.

Strikes Spread Again.

The industrial population is deeply examples of yesterday's encounters. The strikes in-augurated on a large scale here, at Lodz and other cities are rapidly spreading, and 75,000 persons are out on strike in Lodz. Cossacks are patrolling the streets of Warsaw by companies, on account of the danger to smaller detachments.

A free fight ensued, during which weapons were wrested from the police, shots were exchanged and stones were thrown. A dragoon, a woman and a man were killed

There was an explosion in the police of Cossacks. The latter replied and order was soon restored. The strikers at Lodz now number 75,-

The authorities had given due warning of their intention to permit no demonstra-tions, and the troops quelled the disturt-ances ruthlessly. All reports, however, indicate that the demonstrators were comparatively few in number, the vast bulk of the population, fearing trouble, remained todoors. Where trouble occurred, the crowds were armed with bombs and

According to the reports which have reached St. Petersburg from Kallsz, the workmen there for a time had the upper hand of the police and gendurmerie, dis-arming and stoning them until rescued by a squadron of cavalry. The early morning reports today say the Pollsh press is intensely excited by yesterday's bloodshed, and it is feared the trouble will be re-

The only place in European Russia there trouble occurred yesterday was at finsk, which, strictly speaking, belongs to Poland. There also, the reports re-ceived here say, were bomb-throwing and firing upon Cossacks and patrols from windows, but the fatalities were few.

Supplementary reports of the rioting yes-erday just received confirm the earlier Warsaw advices of the revolting cruelty of the Cossacks and other troops. People were driven into courtyards and beaten with the butts of rifes, some of them into Beensibility. The limbs of some of

At Lodz a woman leoking out of a win-dow was shot by a Cossack. While there were practically no disturbances in the Jewish cities in the border of southwestern Russia, dispatches this morning state that the people are in a state of excitement. The streets are filled with moving patrols. The millowners at Byclostok, southwest-ern Russia, fied in fear of their lives. The situation is especially strained at Borisoff and Gomel, southwest Russia.
