

PLAN AN OUTBREAK

Socialist Committee Announce Armed Parades.

RUSSIAN MAY DAY CHOSEN

Strike Will Break Out on Railroads and Government Sends Soldiers to Siberia—Enforced Holiday in Warsaw.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 4.—(U. A. M.)—Undeterred by the complete order which prevailed in St. Petersburg on Monday, according to the Western European calendar, and the energy and potency of the government's measures to prevent disorders, the Social Democratic committee is going ahead with plans for great demonstrations on May 1, according to the Russian calendar, which falls on May 14, according to the Western calendar.

The committee has placed the public and police in possession of its plans in a widely circulated proclamation issued today, but doubt is expressed in well-posted liberal and industrial circles of its ability to accomplish much in the line of demonstration and disorder.

The proclamation announces a number of parades in various quarters of the city, convening at a central point. It also declares the intention of offering armed resistance, if the police or troops endeavor to disperse parades, but, though the most active revolutionists and anarchists are provided to some extent with bombs and firearms, the great mass of the industrial population, on which they rely for the success of the demonstration, are said to be unprovided with weapons. Much depends on the temper of the workmen, which varies from day to day.

At present, the workmen appear to be disinclined to a programme of rioting and pillage, but it is quite probable that a strike on a large scale will be declared on May 1. Railroad strikes especially are anticipated. The employees of the St. Petersburg-Moscow railroad are said to be planning a tie-up and on the Trans-Caspian, as well as on the Trans-Siberian lines strikes are so probable that the government is now sending trained men from the railway division of the army over the roads to acquaint themselves with their operation in order to be able to step in in case of a strike.

LASH DISPERSES CROWDS.

Brutal Cossacks Use Whips, and One Carves Boy.

WARSAW, May 4.—(U. A. M.)—With the exception of a few minor disturbances the day passed quietly, but the riotous behavior of the Cossacks, who gathered here and there were quickly dispersed by troops armed with whips, and several persons were seriously injured. Great popular unrest continues and it is being increased by wanton cruelty of soldiers. For instance, this afternoon a 10-year-old boy named a Cossack, who pursued him many feet from the shoulder to the waist with one blow of his sabre. Crowds continue to gather around St. Hospital, in Jerusalem street, where several persons have died as the result of injuries received in the May day disturbances. The people wish to prevent secret burial by the police. A strong force of police maintains order.

FLEES AT THREAT OF DEATH

Famous Opera Singer Condemned for Betraying Polish Rebels.

WARSAW, May 4.—(U. A. M.)—A Polish opera singer, has left Warsaw suddenly under fear of death at the hand of the revolutionary party. She was a great favorite with the officers of the garrison, who recently presented her on her birthday night with a diamond butterfly worth $10,000. The revolutionary party threatened that she could well afford to give them $200 for their fund. She gave them $25, and promised them she would give them more on the morrow. In the meantime she allowed the police to hear of the affair, and when the revolutionaries called next day for the money they were promptly arrested. Mile. Kawaeka shortly afterwards received the following telegram from Brussels: "Condemned, No. 45."

WHOLE CITY FORCED TO MOURN

Polish Socialists Compel General Idleness in Honor of Dead.

WARSAW, May 4.—All business, and street traffic, particularly, ceased at noon. The offices and stores are closed and have their shutters up. Some of the houses are barricaded. A few merchants who tried to keep open were visited by pickets of workmen, who ordered them to shut their places of business immediately. Nearly all the street-cars have been stopped and the cab service is entirely suspended. Many cabs earlier in the day were stopped by parties of youths, who compelled their occupants to alight, in some instances forcibly, and then ordered the drivers to go home.

COSSACKS FIRE INTO CHURCH

Seven Die by Bullets for Singing Rebel Songs.

LODZ, Russian Poland, May 4.—A terrible riot occurred at the Church of the Holy Cross yesterday. When a number of Roman Catholics around the edifice began singing revolutionary songs a Cossack patrol came up at a gallop and began firing into a crowd of people huddled on the church steps. Some of the bullets entered the sacred edifice, striking the altar. Seven persons were killed. A panic inside the church followed and many people were injured in the rush for the doors. After the crowds had dispersed workmen in groups fell upon a member of the

It is and always has been conducted on a mutual basis, and its surplus of over eighty million dollars is the fund from which policyholders receive their dividends. The amount distributed each year in dividends to policyholders for ten years past is a sum much larger than any other company has ever distributed in a like period.

We believe the Equitable is absolutely solvent, but we want to find out what its future policy is going to be."
