"PARSIFAL"

A Portland audience saw "Parsifal" at the Marquam last night. Not the genuine Richard Wagner song tragedy done in thunderous German, as our New York brethren have heard and seen, nor the Anglicized version which Colonel Savage has permitted most of our neighbor cities, but the next best thing. The audience saw the pictured story of the search for the sacred spear, the triumph of the youth, Parsifal, and the transfiguration of the girl Kundry. Thanks to J. Alex Hanna and a moving-picture machine, we saw all the views depicting the wonderful religious opera-drama, which has created the sensation of a decade in musical and theatrical circles. We were also made clear as to the purpose by Mr. Hanna, who lectured anent the pictures. In addition there was a Wagner musical programme. An excellent orchestra gave "The Evening Star." S. J. Storey at the orchestrelle contributed "Parsifal Vorspiel" and a "Tannhauser" selection. Mrs. Walter Reed sang "Gebert der Elisa-beth." and for a second number "I Know a Lovely Garden." both of which present-

The pictures were shown upon a mammoth screen and were clear and complete. In connection with the lecture they proved intensely interesting. The theater was filled with a music-loving audience and the entertainment was altogether one of the most novel and successful of the year. There is a general demand for a repetition, and it is probable that such arrangements will be made.

Minnesota Society Entertain.

The members of the Minnesota Society flocked to Alisky Hall last night to participate in a social entertain-ment and musical programme. All the ment and musical programme. All the seats in the hall were occupied and many had to stand. One of the most excellent numbers of the programme rendered for the entertainment was a laughing song by President Isaac Staples, of the society.

A recitation by Judge Waldemar Seton was well received and he was saveral several several consultry in this city, May 5, 1805, D. W.

times. A cornet solo by Albert Lud-berry and a violin solo by Miss Cor-nella Barker were also good. After the programme refreshments were served.

Unions and Mayoralty Fight.

On Monday night the Officers' Asso ciation, whose members are the officers of the various unions of the city, will hold an open meeting at which the question, "Shall the Unions Take Part in the Municipal Election?" will be dis-

Among those who will speak at this meeting are J. W. Shrader, the Social ist candidate for Mayor; R. A. Harris and T. M. Leabo. The plans for this meeting were decided upon at the meeting of the Federated Trades Coun-Monday night meeting will also be held.

Thought They Had Robbers. "Come out to Twenty-first and Powell streets right away, for the robbers who stole the money from the bank at Wood-burn are out here." Such was the request telephoned to police headquarters late yesterday after-noon. Chief Hunt assigned Balliff Goitz and Driver Gruber to go to the scene, heavily armed and in great haste. They found, when they arrived, two well-known gin fiends. They had been in the vicinity all of the afternoon, evidently prowling about for junk. They were taken to the station, where they were promptly re-
