DEATH OF PERRY HINKLE.—Word reached Portland yesterday that Perry Hinkle, an old-time resident of Portland, died suddenly at Chico, Cal., early this week, and that his body had been shipped to Gakland, Cal. The body will be reshipped from Oakland tonight and will reach Portland Friday morning. The funeral services will be held at Holman's undertaking parlors on Friday aftergoon. Mr. Hinkle was a prominent Mason and the funeral services will be conducted by Portland Lodge No. 55. He was member of Portland Lodge No. 55 and also was a Scottish Rite Mason in good standing. He had many friends in Portland who will regret to hear of his death. Struck by a Street-Car.—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Batchelder, of Hillsboro, were severely bruised yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock by being thrown out of a buggy, near the corner of Twentieth and Glisan streets, which was run into by a street-car. The buggy and the cocepants were thrown from the middle of the street to the sidewalk. The bugsy turned over on Mr. and Mrs. Batchelder, but it fell in such a way as to shield them from the horses, who were entangied in the wreckage. At the time of the accident the street-car was running at a high rate of speed.

MRS. ADDITON IS IN SOUTHERN ORDGON. -Mrs. L. H. Additon, state president of the W. C. T. U., is in Southern Oregon visiting and addressing the local unions of that district.

Called and Questioned.

District Attorney John Manning and the members of the Multnomah County grand jury spent a busy day resterday in their investigation into the municipal scandals. The entire Executive Board, with the exception of State Senator Sig. Sichel appeared before the grand jury, called undoubtedly for the purpose of telling of the transaction which caused a hange in the granting of the Front-street bridge contract. Those who were subparand were Whitney L. Boise, Charles F. Bebee, E. D. Curtis, Rodney L. Gilsan, William Floidner, Henry W. Goddard, Joseph Weber, H. C. Wortman and George H. Howell.

The entire afternoon was taken up in the taking of testimony given by the members of the Board. Some of the members were exceedingly annoyed because of baving to wait on the bench outside the grand jury room. It took between 15 to 20 minutes for each member of the board to tell his story. Archie Mason, a contractor, testified during the morning. It was expected that Mason would know something of the methods of obtaining contracts, but it is understood that the information he had to give was of little importance.

there was taken up by the grand jury. There has been some violation of the local-option law at Montavilla. Testimony in these cases was given by Fred Metager and Dr. Murry. This case took up several ours of the morning session.

Promise to Wear a Rose!

Portland is the Rose City and the flower is the badge of the town. Therefore every one should wear a bud or a blossom at all times and in all places, especially during the Summer months, when the city will be thronged with the visitors from every part of the United States. There are more than enough flowers to go around and every resident should ge the habit and get it now before the Exposition begins to bring its guests to the place. This is the argument made by those behind the plans to organize the club, and they are confident that the idea will meet with favor and success.

"Wear a rose," will be the motto of "Form getting pay for his work, or from from getting pay for his work, or from from getting pay for his work, or from from getting pay for his work, or from

Be organized.

Roses are to be in evidence during the Summer, however, whether or not the Boutonniere Club is ever organized, for the Portland Rose Club will have a permanent exhibit at the Forestry Building during the Fair. At the last meeting of the club it was decided that this should be done and the management of the Exposition has set aside a portion of the building for the use of the club.

Twenty sub-committees have been, or will be, appointed throughout the city to assist in the plan. These committees will cover all of the city from the outskirts of South Portland to Williamette Heights, and from the West Side to the suburbs on assist in the plan. These committees will cover all of the city from the outskirts of South Portland to Willamette Heights, and from the West Side to the suburbs on the East Side. Each district will be in charge of a captain who will have a corps of workers to assist. Every morning from the time the Fair opens these committees will gather the choicest roses from the gardens over the city and will take them to the Forestry building, where the finest of all the collections will be placed in vases and otherwise put on display. The remainder will be sorted into bouquets and boutonnieres and distributed to the visitors who stop to admire the show. It is expected by these means to fix upon the minds of the guests of the city the fact that Portland is indeed the Rose City and to leave the flower as an emblem of Portland in the memories of those who attend the Exposition.

Jury Finds D. B. Sigler Not Guilty of Extortion.

BUT ONE WITNESS CALLED

City Auditor Devlin Shows by Records That Sigler Could Not Have Carried Out His Alleged Threat to Joplin.

Eluford D. Sigler, County Assessor, was acquitted in Judge Sear's court yesterday of extortion in using his power, while he was a member of the City Council to compel Pardinand Joplin, a street contractor, to pay him a debt of $512, or which the statute of limitation had you can. tractor, to pay him a debt of Sil2, or which the statute of limitation had run out. Judge Sears instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty. The court rendered this decision in sustaining a point made by Arthur C. Spencer, one of counsel for the defense, that the proof showed that Siglar did not possess the power to carry into effect the threat which it was said he made to Joplin, and this being the cases no crime had been this being the case no crime had been

Auditor Devlin Called.

The only witness called was City Auditor Devilin, who produced the city records regarding the street contracts which Jophn & Grebisch were carrying out. This disclosed the fact that six days before Sigler made the alleged threat, the Council had taken the last possible action in relation to the contracts, and Sigler and his fellow Councilmen were an official of the county now, it was no reason for excusing him of the act of which he was accused.

RINER GOES ON TRIAL TODAY

Tanner-Creek Sewer Scandal to Be Aired in Court.

The Tanner Creek sewer scandal will-be aired in the State Circuit Court today. R. M. Riner will be placed on trial for attempting to obtain money under false pretenses from the City of Portland. He is one of the contractors who built the sewer, and the offense he is alleged to have committed consists in the fact that he did not construct the sewer according to the plans and specifications, and that to the plans and specifications, and that he knowingly falled to comply with his contract in order to increase his profits. The defense in part will be that Riner was the victim of a conspiracy, and that enemies bribed some of the men employed on the sewer to do poor work.

William C. Elliott, ex-City Engineer; J. M. Caywood, inspector of the sewer, and Henry Chandler, a surveyor under Elliott, are also under indictment for making false certificates that the sewer was completed according to contract. Their trials will occur later on.

PATTERSON JURY DISAGREES

Defendant May Not Be Placed on Trial a Second Time.

In the case of R. W. Patterson, who was charged with robbing Marie Paim, the jury disagreed, and was discharged by Judge George yesterday afternoon. The jury stood six to six, and was discharged after they had argued the matter for three hours. They reported to the court that there was no prospect whatever of an agreement. It his argument to the jury Deputy District Attorney Adams stated that the cases would be taken upone at a time meaning that one at a time, meaning that a charge might be entered against James B.
