Camping on Right of Way of Proposed Electric Road, They Create Belief That Railway

Will Build South.

LEWISTON. Idaho, May 12 .- (Special.)-Northern Pacific surveyors have again entered the field and there is much exciteover their presence, though they have been expected for several days by certain informed individuals.

Engineer Estep and 14 men arrived on this evening's train and are quartered at the Grand Hotel tonight. It was learned that the party will sitch camp south of Lewiston, on the old Northern Pacific right of way, which right of way is now held by the electric railway people. There held by the electric railway people. There is considerable speculation as to the object in camping at this point. Two months ago this same party occupied a camp on the Snake River on the Clarkston side and below Lewiston, and were running a line down the Snake River. From present indications it would appear that the party will run a line south from Lewiston following the survey now lo-cated for the Lewiston-Grangeville elec-

EASTERN OYSTERS FOR SOUND

Olympia Has a Shipment of 106 Barrels to Plant.

OLYMPIA, Wash., May 12 - (Special.)-A carload of Eastern oysters, the first shipment of its size and character to be received here, arrived in Olympia today, and will be planted in Oyster Bay, in this county. The shipment is the first comnercial application at the head of the Sound of the planting of young Eastern oysters and their cultivation-an industry that has made its originators and imita-tors in Pacific County wealthy. The shipment consists of 106 barrels of small oysters from beds on the Connecti-cut shore of Long Island Sound. There are from 20,000 to 20,000 young oysters in each barrel. It costs from $12 to $16 per barrel to lay the oysters down at the beds. Although this is the first commercial application of this branch of the cyster industry for the upper Sound oyster beds, a few years ago a sample barrel was imported and successfully grown. Less than 10 per cent of the oysters died, the balance reaching maturity and find-ing a profitable sale.
