DEATH OF MES. BINA HOVER.—Mrs. Bina Hoover, a well-known teacher, formerly of the public schools of Portland and Mount Tabor, and wife of Professor C. L. Hoover, principal of the North Central School, died yesterday afternoon at her home. 78 East Taylor street, after an illness of ten weeks. Mrs. Hoover was born near Cleveland. O., July 18, 1866, and came to Portland in July, 1835, and at once became a teacher in the East Portland High School. After consolidation she taught in the Central School for nine years. She taught in the Mount Tabor School district No. 5, for two years, although recently was not actively engaged. Mrs. Hoover was a woman of lovely character, devoted to her profession and highly respected by a wide circle of friends. For the past three weeks Professor Hoover has been at home devoting his attention to Mrs. Hoover, stricken rather in mind than in body over the certainty of approaching death. Mrs. Hoover was a member of Rose City Chapter, Order Eastern Spar, which will have charge of the funeral.

Falls Amono the Rocke-Richard Koegan, watchman for the shingle mill at University Park, a few nights ago met with an accident while making the rounds of the plant. It was midnight, and he had reached the south end of the dry kiln, when he missed his footing, and slipping, dropped to the rocks below, a distance of 30 feet, where he lay for more than an hour before he could make any one hear his calls for help. At last a man, living half a mile off, at the John Mock farm, heard him. He was lifted with difficulty from his place among the rocks and by means of a stretcher carried to St. Johns, where he received medical attention. The watchman was badly bruised, and several ribs were broken, but at last accounts he was recovering.

Trouble Over Nonunion Band. The Oregon Water Power & Raliway Company baying hired a nonunion band to play at its Summer resort, the Oaks, has called down the wrath of the local union of the American Federation of Mu sicians. D'Urbano's Royal Italian Band having made the lowest bid for music at the Oaks, the railway company signed a contract with it, and asked nothing about its affiliations. Now comes the Musicians Mutual Association and holds over the railway company the threat of calling it "unfair," but the company feels rather helpless. It has contracted with the Italian Band in good faith and cannot break its agreement.

Concerning the seport that Mrs. Fiske

Concerning the seport that Mrs. Fiske will fill an engagement at the Belasco curing June. Frederick Belasco yesterday gave out the following statement:

"Neither Mrs. Fiske nor any other Mar or traveling attraction will be seen at the Belasco Theater. We took charge of the house on May 1. The theater belongs to us, and will be used exclusively for stock purposes. When we open with our stock company on May 2 it will be for a run of an entire year, and positively no other attractions will be booked. We have made no agreement or contract whatever to play Mrs. Fiske. In fact, when we bought the theater we expressly stipulated that we would assume no bookings which might have been made prior to that time. We are permanently esto that time. We are permanently es

WILL RECTIFY THE ERROR

County Consains Defects.

Defects in the referendum petitions circulated in Multinomah County requesting a vere on the general appropriations bill passed by the last sealon of the Legislature are being remedied. The petitions contain 1500 signatures, and the Secretary of State refused to file them because they had not been preperly certified to. County Clerk Fields states that the mistake was the fault of the committee whick circulated the petitions. Speaking upon the subject, Mr. Fields said:

"The petitions were brought to me for certification by J. R. Ryan, of the committee which had the circulation of them in charge. The names had been compared with the books, and that umber of signatures which corresponded with the books and that which did not were set down. He said the petitions were all ready for certification, and after noting that what the petitions contained was correct. I certified to them, without looking up the law any further. The law requires that not only shall the number of signatures which correspond with the registration books he set down, but the names which correspond, and that is where these petitions were deficient."
