

CROSSES THE SEA TO BE RECEIVED

German Lass Travels to Portland to Become Bride of Andreas Schenk.

TRUSTS OLD SWEETHEART

German Friends Arouse Her From Her Dream and Show Her She Is Victim of Fraud—Now Schenk Is in Prison.

Far from her native home, separated from her relatives by the broad expanse of an ocean and a continent and unable to speak a word of English, pretty Miss Julia Yaeger is in trouble.

Julia Yaeger, Who Came From Germany to Wed Andreas Schenk.

berg to Portland, that she might wed the sweetheart of her youth. He wrote to her, it is claimed, asking her to come, and saying he would marry her.

Arriving in Portland Sunday night, she was met by the man, whose name is Andreas Schenk, and accompanied him to apartments in a rooming-house in the down-town district. She believed him to be a good man and trusted him implicitly.

Yesterday Miss Yaeger's dreams of happiness were brought to a sudden end, when Warrant Officer Goltz arrested Schenk, and caused him to be locked up in the City Jail on a serious charge.

Schenk is said to be a man of evil disposition, and it is charged that he has a wife and family, now living in the East. He is said to have married several years ago, and three years ago separated from his wife and family at Chicago.

Schenk, according to the story related to German people by the circumstances, told Miss Yaeger that in America a marriage ceremony was unnecessary; that as long as he had paid her way from Germany and would provide for her here, it was legal for them to live as man and wife.

MAY 30 IS THE OPENING DAY

PORTAGE ROAD WILL BE READY FOR TRANSPORTATION. Last Spike Will Be Driven and Formal Exercises Will Be Held to Commemorate the Event.

May 30 will mark a new era in transportation of products from the interior to Portland, for on that date the new Cello portage road will be opened. Unless some unforeseen contingency arises, it is certain that the last spike will be driven and the road opened on that day.

At a joint meeting of a committee of the Open River Association and the open river committee of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday the date was definitely fixed for the formal opening of the road, and imposing exercises will mark the occasion.

WINS FROM THE SURETIES

Mrs. Hoffman Gets Verdict—An Echo of Portland University.

A verdict for $15,000 and interest at 8 per cent since 1885 was ordered by Judge Sears yesterday in favor of Julia Hoffman in her suit against E. H. Habighorst, G. W. Williams, D. L. Edwards, J. P. Looney, S. A. Stansbury, Marian A. Smith, G. W. Staver, Richmond Kelly, John Corbish, E. P. Fraser, J. P. Rasmussen, Alfred Kummer, Thomas Van Scoy and F. L. Fossett.

be about $27,000. The defendants will move for a new trial, and if that fails, will appeal to the Supreme Court. The suit was begun by Mrs. Hoffman in July, 1894, and has been in the Supreme Court and back. The first decision was in favor of Mrs. Hoffman. Habighorst, Williams and the others were stockholders in the Portland Guaranty Company, now a defunct organization, which was formed to back the financial schemes of the old Portland University.
