NEW FORTS IN MAKING

ESQUIMALT STRONGHOLD NOT ABANDONED BY BRITISH.

Absence of Navy in These Waters Given as Reason of Activity in Fortification.

SEATTLE, May 18.-According to statements made to the Post-Intelligencer by the staff photographer of a Chicago newspaper who gained admittance to the fort. Great Britain is not abandoning her fortifications at Esquimalt, as has been inferred from the dismantling of the old works, but, instead, is building stronger and more

"I saw the big 9.2-inch guns stored at the rear of the hill," he said, saw the engineers working on four bar-bettes, upon which they are to be

'The Royal Engineers have charge of the construction of the new fortifica-tions. I met Colonel English, senior officer in charge of the barracks at Es-quimait. He is not in command at the point where the work is going on, but informed me that a new fort was be-
