Bishop J. S. Mills and Bishop E. B. Kephart aided Dr. D. S. Cornell, of Denver, in supporting the plan.

'If the delegates are capable of clearly understanding the syllabus as it is sub-mitted to them," said Bishop Kephart. they will see that it does not provide for an organic union of the three churches but only for a closer federation. Surely no one can have any objection to this, as it is in accordance with the beliefs of Jesus Christ himself regarding the relations that should exist among his chil-Later, if organic union in desirable, you can appoint delegates to auother council, but at present you are only asked to agree to a closer fellowship in religious feeling."

Many More Who Voted for Levee Bill Tremble and Blame Governor Davis for Indictments.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 18 .- (Special.)—Three more members of the Ar-kansus Legislature have been indicted by the Pulaski County grand jury on the charge of offering or accepting bribes in connection with the passage of the Killough levee bill during to session of the General Assembly just closed. Those for whom warrants were issued today are: Senators A. W. Rison, of Pulaski County: William C. Gress of Crawford County, and Representa-tive George B. Chapline, of Monroe County, Illson and Chapline have at ready been arrested and it is expected that there will be no difficulty in apprehending Gross.

With these turee, a total of four members of the Arkansas Legislature are charged with boodling, Representa-tive Andrews having been arrested a week age. All of the charges grew out of the passage of the killough levee bill a measure seeking to authorize the issuance of a large bond issue for levee purposes. The end of the inves-tigation is not in sight and it is prom-ised that a number of sensations and possibly a dozen more indictments will be returned before the investigation is concluded. Almost all the state officials and many preminent members of the late General Assembly have been summoned as witnesses, as well as the leading bankers of the state.
