SAN FRANCISCO, May 18 .- (Special.) The ball game at Recreation Park consumed enough time to please any old kind of a fan, but most of the period was covered by kicks, wrangles and other objectionable things. Jimmy Whalen was banished in the midst of the excitement and Wheeler finished the hattle. The Seeks won 5 to 2 the battle. The Seals won, 6 to 3.

The Scale wailoped French. They became friendly with his twists during the third and two runs followed after three singles had been torn off. This was enough for French and he sought the bench in favor of Virgil Garvin. Garvin's debut seemed to be an omer of success for the Giants. They com-menced to get into the going right away. With men on second and third and two Jown Eddie Householder lift-ed a high one to center. It looked like a dead one, but Waldron could not quite catch up to it and it dropped safe-quite catch up to it and it dropped safely, letting both men pass through.

The deadlock did not last long. The Seals could hit almost anything Garvin sent over when hits were needed. The Northerners went to pieces in the sixth and after that the home team had practically its own way. Garvin made a had error in fielding Newton's bunt by throwing it into the bleachers and allowing two to score. The score:

Last night there came near being a rough house between the two old gladiators. Mitchell came in from Vancouver. B. C., about I o'clock and as he had read somewhere that John L. was going to make him jump in the bay he was hot. When the champagne flowed last night he wanted it understood that he was not in the jumping business, for John L. or any other 'bloody man.'

This morning Mitchell slept late and when Sullivan burst into his room to awaken him the Englishman was Jovial again. Sullivan refused to john him in a drink, but Mitchell sough his "tub" and then stowed away a bottle of beer. Garrett hovered about anxiously and finally broached the agreement. Mitchell declared:
