PORTAGE ROAD OPENING

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, FIXED AS Fifth and Washington Streets THE DAY.

Vice-President Fairbanks and Senatorial Party May Be Present at The Dalles.

The Portage Road will be opened to the iblic on Saturday, June 3, instead of on May 30, as was intended, according to an agreement reached at a meeting of the executive committee of the Open River Association yesterday afternoon. change has been made in view of the fact that the date first set apart fell on Decoration day, and so many of those who were expected to take part in the opening exercises had promised to assist at different Decoration day celebrations. Another reason for the change was that senator Fulton had agreed to meet the Senator Fulton and agreed to meet the Senatorial party now on the way here from the East to attend the opening of the Exposition, and ask the members of the party, together with Vice-President Fairbanks and Speaker Joseph Cannon, to lend their presence to the occasion of the opening. It will be arranged for the entire party to be taken up the Columbia ntire party to be taken up the Columbia by boat on Saturday morning in time to be present at the exercises at The Dalles. An elaborate programme is being ar-ranged, which will include speeches by several of the distinguished visitors who have been invited to attend, as well as by members of the State Board and the Open River Association. This programme will be announced as soon as all details have been settled.

Will Now Vote for Williams.

PORTLAND, Or., May 18.—(To the Editor.—My name has been used in a report of the so-called "citizens" meeting" of Wedneda; night in Alisky Hall. I have been a resident of Portland much longer than Harry Lane, and attended the meeting with the in tention of giving him my support, but when they refused to allow the mame of any one to come before the meeting for consideration, and when I found that it was set up, cut end deled, and when I heard men who ought to be ashamed of themselves for their disgraceful conduct and for their attacks upon Hon, George H. Williams, who would not allow any person to speak in his behalf, I concluded that Dr. Lame's supporters were unfair. While I never supported Mr. Williams in my life for any office, I did not wish to indone the methods of his enemies. I was, upon going to the meeting, an adherent of Dr. Lame, but upon leaving, a pronounced Williams man, for whatever faults Williams may have he cannot be cursed with having such an ungentlemanly gathering as assembled at this meeting as his followers.

They say that I went to the meeting to steal it from the "citisens." By their action they will make a Lame man vote for Williams. They said it was a "citizens' meeting," but it was presided over by a Democrat and the majority attending were "pornhead Republican." When they refused to listen to anything but Democratic talk and stated that it was called for a particular purpose, which I knew was not either citizen or Republican, I withdrew. I had been invited to attend as a "citizen," but could not remain as a Democrat or turncost Republican.
