A Perfect Hail of Ballots

Dill you get caught out in the hallstorm of Saturday hast? Remember how the clouds rained hallstones right off the top of Mount Hood into Portland's streets and coto her housetops? That's about the way bailots are being rained in on our counters who have charge of the Pupils' Exposition Coatest. The votes are published on Monday and Thursday evenings, and Thursday and Friday mornings; only the leading 20 names. Did we publish all it would crowd all other matter from this page. Purchasers must obtain votes at time of purchase, as positively none will be issued after or on duplicate checks. Contest ends Saturlay, July 1, at 6 P. M. No soliciting will be allowed in the store and our young friends are requested not to solicit in or about the entrances, as it may be annoying to some of the store patrons. We know they will giadly faver us in tals respect, as our Portland lads and lassies are of the sort that are ever mindful of the comfort of others before themselves. Any contestant whose name does not appear among the 20 leaders may ascertain his or her standing at any time by calling at the sivertising office—Welcome.

Grand Salons-Second Ploor, Women's Tailored Suits Half-Price

More Suits for today than on Monday. Remember the parable of the loaves and fishes? A multitude feasted and yet more remained than when the dinner-horn sounded. Multitudes are here at this writing, but more Suits are coming up from the resciving room, with more to come. Suits made for several of Chicago's leading houses—our buyers have skimmed the cream, and though hundreds feasted yesterday, still more values await today's buyers. This sale will last until the lots are closed. Regular values embraced in this fortunate and exceptional purchase include the $25.00, $28.50, $35.00, $38.50 and $42.50 Suits as made to sell by the Chicago houses. Materials include handsome serges, Panamas and rich broadcloths in blues, black and browns and smart mixed effects of mannish suitings. Both blouse and jacket styles.
