

WILD DISORDER IN PARLIAMENT

Shouts of Opposition Drown Voice of Government's Champion.

SPEAKER ENDS SESSION

Refusal of Balfour to Answer Liberal Attack Provokes Uproar Which Lasts an Hour—Effort for Fiscal Debate Fails.

LONDON, May 22.—The sitting of the House of Commons tonight was marked by scenes of the wildest disorder, growing out of a motion by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman to adjourn the House in order that he might discuss the charge against Premier Balfour of having violated his pledge not to deal with the subject of colonial preference without first appealing to the country.

The matter came up at the afternoon sitting, when Mr. Balfour, replying to questions on the subject, said he did not consider himself pledged to inaction in regard to colonial preference except so far as parliamentary action was concerned.

Uproar Drowns Speeches.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, charged Mr. Balfour with violating the pledge he had made in his Edinburgh speech and moved the adjournment of the House to discuss the matter. The debate on this motion came up at the night session, and was marked by scenes of the wildest disorder.

Speaker Adjourns House.

Mr. Lyttleton again made an attempt to speak, but the uproar was renewed. Finally the speaker said it was obvious that the scene could not continue, and he attempted, therefore, to adjourn the House under the rules empowering the speaker to take such action in cases of grave disorder.

Attempt to Stifle Debate.

Thus, when Mr. Lyttleton was put up to speak instead of Mr. Balfour, a storm burst such as has not been seen in the House of Commons since the days of the Gladstonian Irish debate. The opposition interpreted the government's course as an attempt to stifle discussion, although moderate members admit that Mr. Balfour's attitude was perfectly correct.

Mistake Causes False Alarm.

PARIS, May 22.—M. Bompard, the French Ambassador to Russia, who left St. Petersburg Saturday evening for Paris to spend the holidays here, was stopped by a telegram directing him to return to St. Petersburg. This gave rise to reports that important negotiations are impending, but the Foreign Office here says the telegram was due to a misunderstanding and that M. Bompard is again starting for Paris today.

Servian Ministry Resigns.

BELGRADE, Servia, May 22.—The Pasasic ministry has resigned. The cabinet formed December 11, 1904, under the Premiership of M. Pasic, resigned February 6 last in consequence of court intrigues against the Premier. The King requested the Minister to retain office until he had conferred with the politicians and the cabinet's resignation was withdrawn February 8.

O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the City Council at Kingston, Jamaica, writes as follows: "The little Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble, and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me, there is no doubt, and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by all druggists.

Irish Join in Hubbub.

Whenever the storm showed signs of subsiding, the Irish members joined in helping the hubbub, until finally the Deputy Speaker, for the first time, put in force one of the new rules adopted by the present Parliament, empowering the Speaker in cases of grave disorder to adjourn the House.

Dis dissenters Hope for Defeat.

The dissenters from the East and South, who apparently made no concerted effort outside of secret committee meetings to defeat consolidation tonight declared that the General Assembly opened the avenue to defeat by referring to a committee the work of arranging the details of consolidation.
