DO YOU WONDER AT THE CROWDS IN THE STORE?

MONDAY we started in upon the task of selling upward of $100,000.00 worth of new, fashionable and down-to-date merchandise, of the seasonable, quality sort, for less than $75,000. We've set ourselves to do the stunt in eight days—two of which have passed as you read this. Such a sale involves sweeping loss—most of it taken by mill-owners, manufacturers and importers thro' cancellations of orders by big Chicago houses; some of it will be charged off to profit and loss—on the latter end—to this store. Taken now in a drastic store-clearing, before the Exposition opens, instead of during the usual Midsummer clearance, when we expect to be very busy with a city doubled in population thro' the influx of visitors to the great Centennial. 'Tis a pleasing task, and in the end a winning one—for you and for us. Mark you, reader: The things offered are first class—in every case new goods of the wanted-now-by-everybody sort. All the bargains are reasonable and desirable. Scores of new things are advertised here. THIS ANNOUNCEMENT IS A FRESH DISH—NO HASH OR CROQUETTES FROM FORMER SERVINGS. PARTAKE TODAY.
