OCCUPATION TAX NEXT.-The nounced verdict of the people of St. Johns against licensing saloons again brings forward the occupation tax prominently. With an income for the present year of little more than $900 and expenses aggrehttle more than $900 and expenses aggregating nearly $5000 per annum, the administration will have to look to the occupation tax to make up the deficit that is so plainly in sight. To meet the current expenses of the city government it will be peccesar; to collect between $300 and $400 per month from some source.

WATER FOR PENINSULA.-Residents on the peninsula will get an increased supply of Bull Run water before the large main is laid to the Upper Mount Tabor reser-voir. ASK PRINCIPAL'S REMOVAL

Petition Against C. L. Strong, of Sellwood, Filed.

A petition containing the names of & patrons of the Sellwood Grammar School Walling. has been filed with the City School Board, has been filed with the City School Board, asking for the removal of C. L. Strong, the principal. Inasmuch as the name of J. G. Hoard appears prominently upon the petifion, Superintendent Rigier and others of the Board are of the opinion that the effort to remove Principal Strong. is the effort to remove Principal Strong is the outcome of the removal, about two months ago, of Hoard from his position of Janitor of the school, upon charges of neglect of duty preferred by Strong. It is alleged that Hoard made the statement soon after his discharge that be would sooner or later secure the Sampe Post and Sympa Computer of Principal Sympa Computer Sympa Sympa Sympa Computer Sympa S that the effort to remove Principal Strong scalp of Principal Strong, and as no specific charges are embraced in the petition filed with the School Board Monday night. Civil-Service Appointments.

John Moylan, one of the applicants for a position on the police force, who was successful in passing the examination, and who was placed on the eligible list and afterward certified to Chief Hunt by the Civil Service Commission, has declined to accept the place, and a vacancy has thus accept the place, and a vacancy has thus been created, which will be filled today from the eligible list. It is understood that Moylan's reasons for declining the place are based upon the fact that the pay is not sufficient inducement, amounting to but $75 a month, which is less than he can earn in civil life.

John G. Osterman and Victor H. Dahl, heretofore certified to the Chief of Police by the Civil Service Commission, have also failed to qualify for the same reason, the former having gone to Alaska, son, the former having gone to Alaska, while Dahl has found more remunerative employment as a fisherman on the Co-

Charles H. Robb, Assistant Attorney-General, Arrives.

PURPOSE OF HIS

Will Recommend a Successor to the Late Judge Bellinger on His Return to Washington in

For two days Charles H. Robb, Assistant Attorney-General of the United States, has lived quietly at the Portland Hotel and no one has known of his preence. In fact it has been the wish of the visitor that he should remain incognito, but fate has wifed otherwise and it is now known that one of the men who holds the Federal Judgeship, left vacant by the death of Judge Bellinger, in the power of his recommendation, is in the city to look into the qualifications and records of those who aspire to become It was just past midnight last nigh when the assistant to Attorney-Genera to a coat of kalsomate work properly cleansed. Some time ago the Mayor's office was brightened up a little, but this is the first time there has been such a general everhauling.

I don't know," he said. "I really wish would not say anything just at this would not say anything that I can you would not say anything just at this time. There is really nothing that I can "The only statement I can make," continued Mr. Robb, "is that I have come here to confer with the United States District Attorney."

"When will Mr. Heney be here?" was anked.

"I thought he was in Portland when I came." replied Mr. Robb, "and I expect him to come before I leave." Inasmuch as Mr. Robb will remain in Portland but a few days his statement can be taken as pretty good evidence that Mr. Heney will reach Portland close to the first of June. Other than the remark that he was here to confer with Mr. Hency in regard to the appointment of a Federal Judge to fill the vacancy caused by Judge Bellinger's death, and the intimation that the District Attorney would be in Portland before he left. Mr. Robb had no information to give. "It is possible that after I have seen

Mr. Hency or in a short time, I may be able to tell something of interest," ne said in closing. It is evident from the fact that Mr. Robb is here to consult with Mr. Hency before making any recommendation, that the latter will have much to do in the naming of the lucky man to fill the vacant place on the bench. In the mean-time, and before the arrival of Mr. Heney, it is supposed that Mr. Robb will spend his time in looking into the quali-fications and the records of the various applicants for the Judgeship.
