POLICE AND FIRE PARADE

Inspection of the Two Departments Will Be Held Tomorrow.

in has been arranged by the municipal authorities to hold an inspection of the Police and Fire Departments of the city tomorrow. The parade will start at 11:30 A. M and will be reviewed at Fourth-street entrance to the City Hall by the Mayor, members of the Executive Board and Council, together with other city offi-

This will be the first general inspection nd review of the Fire Department since has become a fully paid department and the idea of having it take place at the time indicated is to show the publi its present sistus as compared to condi-tiona existing at the time Mayor Williams assumed the reins of municipal government. It is expected that about 165 fire men will appear in line, and probably a corresponding number of members of the Police Department. There will be fully 20 pieces of fire apparatus, including en-gines, hose wagons, hook and ladders and chaming applihemical engines. It was planned originally to head the parade with a brass band, but the fire ammittee of the Executive Board, at the propriating from the funds of the city the amount necessary for this purpose, sithough it is understood the police com-mittee of the board was willing to con-tribute its share of the required 550.
