ANCIENT TOMAHAWK FOUND.—One of the workmen at "The Oaks" made quite an interesting discovery yesterday, while assisting in placing the wires to illuminate the grounds on some of the beautiful oak trees. In climbing one of the oaks to a height of about 20 feet, he noticed an old Indian flint, fully 50 feet in height, on the top of which there is a small beautiful tomahawk. The flint has grown fully six feet into the hollow of the tree, and it must have been placed there a century ago. It stands directly in front of the entrance to the island, an ideal place for a danger signal. The O. W. P. & Railway Company have decided to preserve the flint and tomahawk and will place a permanent light on top, so that visitors to "The Oaks" may see it by day and night.

DEATH OF WILLIAM J. PARTLOW.—William J. Partlow, partner of H. H. Pomeroy, in the cigar and news store on the Grand avenue, died yesterday at his home, 164 East Twelfth street. He was a son of J. M. Partlow, a well-known pioneer, also living at 164 East Twelfth street, who is also seriously ill. The young man was well known in East Portland, where he has lived since his boy and been in business. He had been sick for the past six weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. Mr. Partlow was born August 2, 1871.

HAYWOOD CLOSES ITS HALL.—The Haywood Dramatic and Social Club, of University Park, has closed its hall in the Thurman building. For two years the Haywood club was an important factor on the Peninsula, and the Thurman building was used for the club and the upper part was fitted up for the club and is a fine large auditorium. The club gave many dramatic entertainments, but the cost of maintaining the auditorium was found too great.

HEAVY TRAINS ON SOUTHERN PACIFIC.—The Southern Pacific is running very heavy trains on their system. Trains 15 and 16 are run in two sections frequently. Between Albany and Portland they stop only at the Car Shops, Oregon City, Woodburn, Salem and Albany. Trains 13 and 14 (the Albany Local) do the local work for 15 and 16. The day trains, Nos. 11 and 12, consist of 11 and 12 cars daily and stop at all regular stations and others when flagged. Cannon and Paper Mill are flag stations. Trains when pulling heavy trains always dread these two points and especially Paper Mill station when coming North. Both are on sharp curves. Last evening No. 12 was flagged at Paper Mill station for a passenger and it was fully five minutes after much jerking only being to P. M. On Thursday evening, Cannon and Paper Mill were again under headway. This, too, with engine No. 2189, one of the most powerful locomotives on the system.

JOHN BURROUGHS CLUB.—This afternoon the members of the John Burroughs Club will hold their regular field-meet at Macleay Park, as they are greatly concerned lest this beautiful haunt of the birds may be ruined by having the water diverted from Balch Creek, as has been threatened by private parties for commercial purposes. They believe that all nature-lovers will be sorely grieved at the prospect of having the unusual natural beauty of this favored spot destroyed. Today's outing will be led by Clarence Gilbert and the meeting place now and every Saturday, will be at the Depot, north-west corner. The hour is 2:30, and this will be the meeting time for the remainder of the Summer, without further notice.

FALLS TO HIS DEATH.—Michael Markey fell from the third story of the Home for the Aged, at Sunnyside, early yesterday morning, and was dead when found later by attending doctor. Markey was notified, and a representative went over for the body. There appears to be no means of ascertaining just how the death happened, but as Markey was very feeble, it is believed he fell out of the window while trying to open or shut it. The funeral will occur tomorrow, burial taking place in Mount Olivet Cemetery. Markey had no relatives here. He was aged 64 years.

MAJUNA AT THE GRAND

The Great Aborigines Making a Tremendous Hit at This Theater. Today and throughout the continuous performances at the Grand tomorrow will positively be the last appearances of Majuna, the real Indian actress, who has created such a furore in Portland. To give this artistic genius her real dues almost seems like an exaggeration. She is a Frenchman in every way, in her voice, gesture, and in her appearance, but she is a distinct hit. Mulvey and Ward offer a very lively comedy act, and the Alvinos are quite as good as ever. The Mauneros, the Japanese pedal manipulators, do very thrilling balancing, and the grand deo picture, with a hundred wives after one poor, lone husband, is screamingly funny.

YSAYE SALE BEGINS TODAY

Opens at the Marquam This Morning, and the Demand is Great. At 10 o'clock this morning the long-looked-for sale of seats for the evening more eagerly anticipated recital of Ysaye opens at the Marquam. If the line of people is one-half as long as the list of telephone inquiries as to the date of the sale, and the time of the recital, which has been received by the management, prospective buyers need to be ready, for there is more interest manifested in the coming of the master violinist than there has been in any musical event in months.

WHERE TO DINE.

All the delicacies of the season at the Portland Restaurant, fine, private apartments for parties, 305 Wash., near Fifth. Prohibitionist Will Speak. Oliver W. Stewart, of Chicago, formerly national chairman of the Prohibition party, and congressional candidate in the Illinois Legislature, will speak at the First Church tomorrow night. Mr. Stewart is known to Portland audiences as one of the most brilliant speakers on the American platform today. It is planned for him to speak at the Rodney-Avenue Christian Church, Knott and Rodney, at 11 A. M. Sunday.

BENTON KILLIN DIES

Passes Away After Lingering Illness of a Year.

WAS AN HONORED PIONEER

Rise of Prominent Oregon Attorney Was Closely Associated With Development of the State and the Northwest.

After a lingering illness of more than a year, Benton Killin, one of Oregon's oldest pioneers and Portland's most respected citizens, passed away at his home at Thirteenth and Columbia streets yesterday afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock. Mr. Killin had been failing in health for many months, and though confined to his bed but for a few days, his death was not entirely unexpected.

Mr. Killin's rise in life has been closely associated with the progress and development of the Northwest. He came to Oregon when but a child, and grew up with the State. A sketch of his career and tribute to his memory has been prepared by his law partner, J. C. Moreland.

Benton Killin was born in Doeapolis, Ia., on August 15, 1825. He was 79 years of age when he came to the coast, and his parents crossed the plains and settled on a homestead on Butte Creek, in the south end of Clackamas County. His father was a Scotch-Irish descent, a strong, stalwart, honest man. His farm was a good one and he had it well cultivated, and to the benefit of his children, he was able to give them a good education. He was a member of the Methodist church, and was a very successful farmer. He was a member of the Oregon Pioneer Association, and was a very successful farmer. He was a member of the Oregon Pioneer Association, and was a very successful farmer.
