Everything seemed to run to nines esterday. The game itself was nine times too easy to even start a riot with Gussia Klopf. By taking yester-day's matinee, the Glants have won out of nine games-and right Chicago here let's hope they make it 19 times nine, before they lose another. Mc-Credie's crew made it five straight against the Commuters, five games that were won on their merits because they were clouted out with the but. The winning streak has done wonders for the different members of the ream. They start in each game as if it was already won and they have ginger to

The second was the fruitful tree that bere luscious results Larry Schlafly smote tha poor old bail as if it had been a rival candidate. The spalding salled out to Van Haltren, who is a fit subject for Osierization, and before, the ancient one could get his digits on the bail that had been knocked lobusted to schlaffy stormed for collected. sided. Schiafly stopped for orders at third. Larry McLean, with his right receiver done up in nine stitches, his face striped like a zebra, was cintoning at the Panama hat that Manager McCredie had promised him if he would do the receiving. While clutching the do the receiving. While clutching the hat in his mind's eye, he also clutched his swaf stick and when it swung and landed on one of Dr. Moskiman's nice ones, Schisfly racked some and the big fellow stumbled into second. This was one, but the tree was not through giving forth its fruit. Bill Essick's movements—which, like the graceful rocking of a river steamer were proving too snakelike for the somnolent persons from Oakland, land-ed on a slow one that Dr. Moskiman had generously proffered him and it dropped back of short stop. Jakey Atz bunted. Jimmy Byrnes grasped the abused bulb and heaved it to Kelly, hoping to murder Essick. The toss was a weird one and Essick, seeing the frenzied speed of the ball going on a hot dog chance through center, raced for home. He registered and Atz anchored at third. He lifted the anchor right 'quick though, for he delicat attracting a great deal of attention, not only from the autolists themselves, but from the public. Many have never seen an auto race and are looking forward to the eight events which will be on the programme on Tuesday afternoon at Irvington track.

AUTOMOBILE RACE PLANNED Great Evening Parade Will Be a Preliminary Feature.

Portland's first automobile race is attracting a great deal of attention.

Tonight the decorative parade will be the big feature. The committee in charge of this part of the programme declares that between 75 and 100 cars of all descriptions and makes will be in line. Chinese lanterns and ejectric in line. Chinese lanterns and electric lights will be the means of illumina-tion. There will also be another par-ade Tuesday before the automobiles are taken to the track. The parade tonight will start from the City E and will be led by the Elks' Band. The programme of races follows:

The money that will be taken at Tuesday's race meeting will be added to the $2000 aiready collected by the sprinkling committee of the club, and the entire amount, with more added, will be spent in oiling Limiton road. The committee has already ordered a couple of tanks of oil and they hope that by the time the oil arrives that the county roadmakers will have the

ROD AND GUN CLUB SHOOT

Held at Irvington.

A. J. Winters was the high gun at yesterday's shoot of the Multnomah Rod & Gun Club at Irvington. There was an unusually large number of shots present and from now on until the big tournament is held the traps will be kept busy by the marksmen. E. E. Ellis, of Seattle, was a visitor at the traps yesterday, and considering that the traps and grounds were new to him, his score, 91 out of a possible 160 was exceedingly proof. 100, was exceedingly good. ADVERTISED.

Pree delivery of letters by carriers at the residence of owners may be secured by ob-serving the following rules: Direct plainly to the street and number of the house. Head letters with the writer's full address, including street and number, and request answer to be directed accordingly. Letters to strangers or transient visitors in the city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked in the left-hand corner, "Transient." This will prevent their being delivered to persons of the same or similar names.

Persons calling for these letters will please state date on which they were advertised May 29. They will be charged for at the rate of 1 cent for each advertisement
