Some REFENT THERE ACTION .- Some of the patrons of the Sellwood School "whe signed the petion to the Board of Educa tion asking that another principal than Professor Strong be elected, for that school the conting year, having said that they signed under a wrong impression of preferring to leave the whole matter with the Board of Education, subj vesterday it yas simply a question of permitting the full of the garding contracte on Fair buildings and to the plain rules, which fayes the prin-conters. Janitor Hoard, said Frofessor Strong, refused to take any orders from tim and declared that the principal had to anthority to sell him to do anythine. Opai the authority to give the janitor orders. Janitor Hoard said Professor Strong refused to take any orders from him and declared that the principal had no authority to tell him to do anything. Under the circumstances Professor Strong found it necessary to ask the Board of Education to remove Mr. Hoard, but not until the janitor had been given every opportunity to do his duty. The janitor first resigned, but recalled his resignation and went back to work. Things were im-proved .says the principal, but the jani-tor again became insubordinate and his fismissal was recommended and it was done. Quite a number who signed the petition have stated that things were missepresented to them. Inamuch as the petition makes no charge agained Proressor Strong, it is not thought at Seli-wood that the Board of Education will office to their warehouse, 321 Hawthorne give the matter serious consideration.

But most do not care for such quiet diversion, and they are well cared for. Primarily the chutes attract. Last night crowds stood in line for an hour for a chance to ride, and have the glorious set sation of racing maily down the incline to splash with a thud into the pond at the end. Then there is a maze, a "inughing gallery" and something new and de-lightful, the "Chilcoot Pass." This little This little arrangement is a long inclined plane with big bumps in it. bring along a man who could dance well had herself to blame. And the place was filled with pretty girls, with chaps who did their best. The hall is surely higger than any in town, and has the advantage of having the free wind from the river circulate through it. What characterizes the Oaks as a re-sort is the respectability of it. Such places opened on the outskirts of most towns are immediately patronized by the worst element of the community, but not the Oaks it scems to have escaped that. For of the thousands of people who went out there last night, all behaved them-selves properly. There was one little row, and that was the case of a man getting punished for being too hasty in. trying to get into one of the chutes boats before a lady. If the Municipal Association should visit the Oaks it would immediate-ly informs it. ly indorse it.

WEBB JAY AUTO CHAMPION

Wins Ten-Mile Race With Steam Against Gasoline Motor.

Tonight at the Marquam Grand Thea-ter the distinguished singing comedian. Chauneey Olcott, will begin an engage-ment of three nights in his latest success-ful comedy-drama. "A Romance of Ath-lone." written by Augustus Pitou, his manager. The play has genuine heart interest, plenty of romance and comedy and just enough pathos to satisfy the average audience, and gives Mr. Olcott a chance to show all his paces, the part of Dick Ronyane calling for strong dra-matic work, while the comedy is most bright and, witty. It also gives him fine opportunity for his beautiful execution of his popular songs, among them being "My Wild Irish Rose." Seats are now selling for the engagement. selling for the engagement.
