RAILROAD FARE FREE

To each person residing outside of the City of Portland, who will buy from me 50 feet frontage, or more, at Lewis and Clark Observatory our regular prices and on our regular terms, on any street in University Park, Portsmouth or any other place on the Peninsula, I will refund his railroad fare to the Lewis and Clark Exposition and return to his home at the rate of 200 miles fare for each 50 feet of frontage so purchased. This proposition is open to all visitors to the Exposition. Prices $4 to $10 per foot. Terms one-tenth cash, balance $5 monthly on each lot without interest if paid when due. Five per cent discount for all cash.

University Park

Is the bon-ton residence portion of the whole Peninsula. It is eminently respectable to have a home at University Park. It has the Columbia University, Bull Bun water, Portland public schools electric street-cars. electric atreet lights, the only dry precinct in Portland, employment for il in the nearby mills, factories and docks: alleys back of all lots, wide structs, in short everything to meet the heart's desire. We intended to advance price June but in order to give early visitors to the Fair an opportunity to buy before the advance, the time has been deferred to June 10th. Don't forget the date. Francis I. McKenna, Room 606 Commercial Block. 9 to 12 A. M. University Station 1 to 6 P. M.
