SPANISH ANARCHIST PLOT

Police Say They Have Unraveled Details of Attempt on Alfonso's Life—King Attends Military Review and Is Cheered.

PARIS, June 1.—A semi-official version of the bomb explosion given today, increases the gravity of the affair and shows the narrowness of the escape of both King Alfonso and President Loubet.

SKY BRIBE WAS OFFERED

TEAMSTERS' LEADERS MAKE CHARGES AGAINST EMPLOYERS, BUT ARE UNWILLING TO TESTIFY IN DETAIL.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Charges of bribery against an official of the Employers' Teaming Company were made today to the grand jury by President Sheehy, of the Teamsters' Union.

Police Have Found Assassin.

M. Moquin, chief of the Secret Service, announces positively that the perpetrator of the crime is known and that the police are in possession of all the details of the plot and the facts leading up to it.

Magistrates have searched for incriminating documents at the residence of the Spanish anarchist Malato, who was arrested but refused to reply to questions without legal advice.

King Alfonso today continued to enjoy the festivities which France had prepared in his honor, apparently undisturbed by the anarchistic attempt on his life.

King's Pleasure Not Spoiled.

The King arose early and made anxious inquiries concerning the condition of the persons wounded by the explosion of the bomb.

HE FLED FROM SHIP TO SHIP

Story of Rojstevsky's Movements and Loss of the Donkoi.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The Japanese legation today made public the following dispatch from Tokyo, dated June 1, giving further details of the naval battle off the Tsu Islands:

THE DAY'S DEATH RECORD

H. C. Andrews, Heraldry Expert.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Herbert C. Andrews, of Los Angeles, Cal., a son of A. H. Andrews, of Chicago, is dead here.

Getting Used to Being Shot At.

At the time of the explosion, the King, noticing a momentary confusion among the escort, calmed them by saying: "Reassure yourselves, gentlemen. This is nothing."

Afterward the King told M. Loubet that this was the fourth providential escape from an attempt on his life.

It is understood that the King received a telegram from Emperor William congratulating him on his escape from assassination last night.

During the day members of the diplomatic corps called at the d'Orsay Palace and expressed the regrets of many countries.
