Active Enemies.

NEW YORK, June 4.-(Special.)-One of Mr. Harriman's associates was asked last week why Mr. Harriman is so decided in his statement that he will not leave the United States this Summer. The gentleman smiled as he answered:

The last time Mr. Harriman went abroad he came home to find that the Bock Island crowd had swiped the Al- San Francisco and then ho ton. Also, he discovered that the Sielcken crowd had pretty nearly swiped the Kansas City Southern. Edwin Hawley had turned against him, and there was not a single railroad affair under the hand of Harriman that had not gone distinctwrong. Mr. Harriman decided that the best thing for him to do was to stay where he could reach things easily. I guess there is no other magnate in the country who has less confidence in his lieutenants-and with better reason."

The Prohibition Latch-String Out.

PORTLAND, Or., June 5 .- (To the Editor. -In a letter published in an evening paper of this city on the 20th inst., Dr. E. P. Hill are about to place the stamp of approval or disapproval upon certain things. We are to decide whether or not the saloon power shall dominate this city." He goes on to assure his readers that whether the Republican or Transcentist thether when the about will or Democratic ticket wins, the saloon will re-main. We are greatly pleased to have our distinguished fellow-citizen make such a logmain. We are greatly pleased to have our distinguished fellow-citizen make such a log-loal argument for every voter who is op-posed to the saloon as a factor in our social, commercial and political affairs to vote the Prohlution ticket in the election on next Monday. We are glad to know that the sa-loon is up for approval or disapproval. The Prohlutionistic have contended that this is one of the issues of every election and that a vote for a party which will continue the saloon in business for a license fee is a vote of approval of the liquor business. Our view of the matter being substantially confirmed by Dr. Hill, we invite him and all other con-mientions fore a the reall figuor trade to vote the Prohlution ticket at the coming election. T. S.
