Trainfer Tax a Factor in Suspension of Operations.

NEW YORK, June 1.—There was hardly enough business in the stock market today to constitute a metive power on prices. The price movement dragged and changed constantly within a narrow range. The rank and file of the trading element gave themselves over to a discussion of the stock transfer tax, and were inclined to agree that the burden of that charge was a factor in the present partial suggestion of operations. The hay market is weak. New crop is coming forward freely, and old hay of which a large stock yet remains, is being offered liberally. Degrees look for a hig Oregon roy, notwithstanding the arreage has toose decreased by many farmers who believed there would be more money in case and barley. No changes have yet been made in quintations.

Oats are very firm, $30 being quoted yeareday for both white and gray. The latter are exceedingly source. Barley is also strongly bold at full rates.

The wheat market has raised quiet for several days. Millers are bot in the market, and the 50s Pannibon inquiry is also lighter. No change has occurred recently in the fleur market. There is no Oriental movement.
