

PASSED OVER
MAYOR'S VETO
Meat Inspection Ordinance Becomes a Law in This Manner.

MEMBERS RESORT TO TRICK
Deliberately Adjourn to Gain Time
in Which to Drum Up Enough
Members to Make Passage of Act Valid.

The City Council presented the sorry spectacle yesterday afternoon of taking a recess during a regular session of the body for the sole purpose of drumming up enough members to pass an ordinance over the Mayor's veto. It was not so many days ago that the same persons who were so anxious to be present at yesterday's meeting were playing a game of hide-and-go-seek with the Police Department in an effort to stay away and prevent a quorum, thus defeating the will of 3000 taxpayers who had petitioned the body to pass an ordinance closing the saloons at the entrance to the Fair grounds.

The question was upon the message from the Mayor returning without his approval the notorious meat inspection ordinance, and the City Auditor had no sooner read the Mayor's objections to the measure than a motion was made to pass the ordinance over the veto. Fiegl raised the point of order that under section 31, article 1, of chapter 3 of the charter, a two-thirds vote of all the members constituting the Council was required to pass an ordinance over the Mayor's head. As there were not seven members of the body present, and it was certain that Fiegl would vote to sustain the Mayor, it was obvious that another count of noses would be necessary. The Mayor promptly moved that the Council adjourn for one week in order to permit a sufficient attendance to insure the passage of the ordinance over Mayor Williams' veto.

Fiegl Meets the Issue.
Mr. Fiegl was prepared for just such an emergency, however, and raised the point of order that, under the charter, action must be taken at the first regular meeting of the Council after the return of any resolution or ordinance without the Mayor's approval, and therefore if no vote were taken at such meeting, the passage of such resolution or ordinance, it shall be deemed to have failed to become a law because unapproved by the Mayor.

Mayor Williams vetoed the measure only after a careful analysis of the situation, and stated yesterday that he was an overwhelming sentiment against it; also, that in the event of its becoming a law, it would separate to the great disadvantage of many persons who would be subject, under its provisions, to all kinds of petty annoyances relative to the marketing of their meat products. In addition to this, he said, it unnecessarily imposes upon the municipality a monthly expense of about $25, and these were not the least obnoxious of its features, either.

WANTS AN INVESTIGATION.
Councilman Sharkey Demands One of His Colleagues.

The roll call had hardly been made by the City Auditor at the regular meeting of the City Council yesterday afternoon before Councilman Sharkey was on his feet with a motion of resolution. He stated that last Saturday the grand jury of Multnomah County had charged him with malfeasance in office in connection with an alleged partnership in the Wilds Construction Company, and had recommended his expulsion from the body. He thereupon demanded an investigation, and Councilman Zimmerman moved that a committee of three be appointed for this purpose. The Mayor thereupon appointed Councilmen Zimmerman, Albee and Dr. Whiting as such committee, and they will render their report at the regular meeting on Wednesday next at 3 P. M.

The Auditor was instructed to invite the members of the new Council, together with the Mayor-elect, to attend the meeting of the Council at its next session, and also to furnish each new member with a copy of the codified ordinances. Several of the newly-elected Councilmen attended yesterday's session of the body, and unquestionably secured a fine line on parliamentary law, as it is practiced with reference to passing measures over the Mayor's veto. This knowledge may be of peculiar future benefit, especially when it is considered that there is a wide difference of opinion politically between the newly-elected Council and the municipality's outgoing chief executive.

The following petitions were granted: Mount Hood Brewing Company for permission to construct a sidetrack on the main line of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company with the brewing plant at Sellwood; authorizing City Treasurer Werlein to redeem improvement bonds from $74 to $98, inclusive; permitting Hilda Steinlein and others to improve East Salmon street from East Thirty-fifth to the east line of the city limits; Frank Lee to erect a sign at 144 1/2 Sixth street; W. T. Bush to remove a sign from 209 First street; Mrs. P. A. Hultberg to erect a sign at 247 Couch street; L. J. Garland, to hang a sign in front of 621 Washington street; Woman's Exchange, to erect a sign in front of their store at 123 Tenth street; and William Hahn, for the refund of unexpired liquor license at 234 Stark street.

The report of the City Auditor indicates that the sum of $45,922.24 was drawn in warrants from May 17 to June 7, and that the available balance amounts to $496,157.66.

The City Treasurer reported the following balances on hand at the close of business, June 6: General fund, $69,121.91; fire department, $49,987.42; police department, $47,008.66; street repairs, $28,819.91; bonded indebtedness interest, $97,866.76; lighting, $50,924.89; fireboat, $239.83; Albina ferry, $279.82; Sellwood ferry, $124.92; water, $147,928.32; park, $18,812.34. Total, $593,147.23.

A number of petitions for sewers and street work together with miscellaneous matters, were referred to the proper committees.

TO SUE SOUTHERN PACIFIC
M. V. Bishop Says He Was Put Off
a Train.

M. V. Bishop, formerly of Everett, Wash., but now with the Gaar-Scott Bicycle Company, will bring an action for damages against the Southern Pacific for injuries to his feelings and unnecessary and unjust exertion.

Mr. Bishop wished to take the West Side train for McMinnville yesterday afternoon and bought a ticket as prescribed by the rules and regulations of the corporation. When he boarded the train, however, he found that there were no seats for his use.

When the conductor appeared upon the scene, and asked Mr. Bishop for the token of his privilege to ride over Mr. Harriman's railroad, the uncomfortable rider refused to give up until he was furnished a seat. This was contrary to the rules and regulations and the conductor told Mr. Bishop as much, adding the gentle admonition that unless he forthwith made an exhibition of his ticket he would make an exhibition of Mr. Bishop by ejecting him into the rural regions through which the train was passing.

Plans for the new addition, prepared by Henry Chas. Moore, shown and accepted by the meeting, and the directors held a meeting at once to authorize the preparation of specifications so that a contract for the new structure may be let at once.

It is proposed to establish a High School center, though perhaps next year. Several teachers will be required this Fall, and the following so far have been elected: Professor Darnall, principal; Mrs. Darnall, Miss Everts, Mrs. Annemus and Miss Ostrom, teachers.

TOWN NOW ON EASY STREET
Milwaukie Has Income of $1600
From Option and Liquor License.

The City of Milwaukie is on an easy street as far as finances are concerned. At the last meeting of the Council a license was granted to Gratton to run an "option" house at the clubhouse in Electric Park, which is completed and was opened up for business yesterday.

Johnson Pays and Vacates.
He would not heed the urgent request of Mrs. Marion Hummage to leave her premises with his family and to pay his bond and lodging bill, but when Elmer E. Johnston saw Fairman's boat waiting at the house for him, he dug up what he owed and packed his trunk and left.

Johnson refused to pay his board and room bill until yesterday, and even refused to vacate the premises when ordered in writing to do so. The sight of a man, attired in a blue uniform and shield, however, had its effect on Mr. Johnston.

Cases of Runners Postponed.
Cases of two hotel runners, arrested for violation of the ordinance governing sidewalks at the Union Depot, were postponed in the Municipal Court yesterday, in order that some plan may be formulated to keep the numerous "runners" in their proper places. The cases will be called in one week.
