German View of Fall of Delcasse From Power.

ANGLO - FRENCH ENTENTE

Kaiser Credited With Causing Exposure of Fact England Traded Moroccan Gold Brick for Real Advantages.

CHICAGO, HL, June L-(Special.)-The Chicago Daily News' Berlin correspond ent says Delcasse's retirement is halled as Germany's most glorious political achievement since the Franco-Prussian war. The Dally News corresponden is able to state that the collapse of the French foreign minister is regarded not only as the death-blow to the Franco-Russian alliance, but also as removing the greatest obstacle to Franco-German friendship. The Kalser's elevation of Count you Ruelow to the rank of Prince directly due to Delcasse's dismissal. Russia's disasters, France's recent com olications with Japan and the utter de feat of French policy in Morocco are the three things held principally responsible for Deleasse's political death. Von Buciowa personal success with the Kaiser, however, is enormous. He long ago acquired the art of handling his impetuous master, and 'today is the only man in the country who wields the slightest influ-ence with him. The Chancellor endeared himself to the monarch by smoothing over the consequences of the Kaiser's rash acts, telegrams and speeches, and by preventing rejectitions of them. His latest achievement was the cancellation of the anti-French speech the Kaiser was ready to deliver at Metz last month.

ROUVIER TAKES THE REINS

Gives Up Finance Ministry for That

PARIS, June 7.—Premier Rouvier, as Minister of Foreign Affairs, took up the active direction of the Foreign Office to-day, conferring with the chiefs of departments upon various pending foreign questions. Jules Cambon, the French Ambassador to Spain, whose name has been mentioned as the possible successor of M. Deicasse was among the callers at the Foreign Office, but M. Rouvier's permanent retention of the portfolio of Foreign Office is now considered settled, as President Loubet and Parliament wish him to surrender the portfolio of finance and give his undivided attention to the reign situation. Either Former Minister of Public Instruction Poincare or former Minister of Public Works Baudin will probably suc-ceed M. Rouvier as Minister of Finance. Important diplomatic changes are also thought likely to be made as a result of the Cabliet changes. One report is that the Marquis de Reverseaux, Ambassa-dor at Vienna, will succeed M. Bihourd as Ambassador at Berlin and Jules Cam-ben may be transferred to St. Peters-

The officials do not confirm these reports, saying it is loo early to forecast the changes resulting from the new regime.

M. Rouvier's first meeting with the diplomats today brought out much discus diplomats today brought out much discus-sion among them concerning the effect of the change in the French Cabinet upon European politics. The prevailing view is that Germany will be the gainer, as against Great Britain and Buesia. M. against Great Britain and Russin. M. Deleaser's polley made the France-Rus-stan alliance first and the Angio-French alliance more recently the central features alliance more recently the central features of his action. Recent tendencies, particularly among the powerful Socialist element, have been against the Russian alliance and toward a strict interpretation of the British alliance. M. Rouvier's strong personality makes him independent of the Socialists but the diplomats incline to the view that the policy of France will no longer show a strong sentimental attachment for Russia or Great Britain. This is not expected to take and marked no longer show a strong sentimental sitachment for Russia or Great Britain. This is not expected to take and marked immediate impression, but to be a gradual development of the present situation.

The care taken by M. Rouvier of French finances is considered to be one of the causes why the bankers refused further leans to Russia. During Japan's protests against Admiral Rojestvensky's alleged violation of the neutrality of the waters of French Indo-China. M. Rouvier inested on a rigid application of the neutrality rules against Rossia. This makes the diplomats believe that his diplomacy toward Russia will be straightforward and practical rather than sentimental. They foresee that this may exert considerable influence toward peace, as Russia

Into forcese that this may exert considerable influence toward peace, as Bussia is likely to learn that French policy is dictated by French interests instead of the desire to uphold the animone. Concerning Great Britain M. Rouvier is credited with being her firm friend, and the indications are that the Anglo-French understanding will receive a practical interpretation as a platonic board of tical interpretation as a platonic bond of friendship, instead of the broad construc-tion heretofore given that it amounted to a virtual alliance. The friends of M. Dei-cause therefore claim that the coricilla-tion of Germany tends to loosening the ties with Great Britain and Russia.

The diplomate also incline to the view that the Moroccan issue, which heretofore has been between Germany and France. may enter a new phase between Germany and Great Britain, if the latter is indis-posed to accept the effect of German diomacy in destroying the Anglo-French agreement relative to Morocco

A number of other demands were made by the teamsters which have received favorable consideration, but the parties were so far apart on the chief demands made by the unions that there was no use in taking them up. There is a faint pos-sibility that the conference may be resumed tomorrow, but unless a radical change is made in the position of one side or the other there is no prospect of a settlement of the strike.

Suicide Flurries Bourse.

PARIS, June 7.- The suicide of M. Eggley, a prominent banker, caused a slight flurry today on the Bourse, where he had large interests. Eggley dealt heavily in Japanese bonds, but owing to his personal sym-pathy with Russia he sold these in the open market before the recent naval battle. As the result of this battle there was a rise in Japanese bonds and Eggley was compelled to make a settlement at largely increased figures. His losses brought on despondency, which, it is supposed, led to suicide. The case caused only a temporary uneasiness on the Bourse.

The signs of the times point to an enormous increase of intelligent public interest in health: to a new generation with purer, stronger blood and therefore more active, braver brains and body. To enrich the blood and increase the red blood corpuscles, Dr. Pierce years ago found a visgetable compound, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, that would quickly cure the bad symptoms by increasing the red blood corpuscles and thereby feeding the nerves on rich blood. This "Medical Discovery" also acts upon the digestion and assimilation of food, so that the blood gets its proper elements from the products of digestion. Pead the lungs, stomach and heart on rich red blood and you have surely a healthy body which will throw off the germs of disease which lurk everywhere. Get as near nature's way as you can.
