TRAVELING MEN WILL HIT TRAIL

Saturday Will Be Their Day at the Exposition - Grounds.

BIG STREET PARADE, TOO

Attractive Programme Is Arranged for the Occasion and an Immense Attendance at the Centennial Is Assured.

On Saturday the conservative and peace-loving citizen will please draw down the shutters and retreat to the cyclone cellar with rations for 24 hours. Saturday the Exposition, Portland and the surrounding section of earth will belong to the traveling men, and not to the traveling men of any one organ-to the traveling men of any one organ-ization or society, but to every sort of traveling man on the Pacific Coast. The traveling men never do things by halves, and therefore Saturday will be a day of 24 joyous hours. Already the knights of the road are beginning to arrive in the city and rest up for the ordeal awaiting them. They have de-termined to live up the Errostton termined to liven up the Exposition and make the old hills opposite ring back the happy shouts of men who know how to be young again just for a Delegates From Puget Sound.

This afternoon at 2:45 o'clock there will arrive at the Union Station a special train from the Sound country, carrying 1206 traveling men and their friends. Special railway guards will spend ten days visiting the Fair. A programme for their visit is friends. Special railway guards will be attached to each car to see that enough of the cars is left to bring the passengers into the city limits. The train will be met by the Administration Band and by every knight of the road who happens to reach Portland before the special. After characteristic greetings, the visitors will be hurried off to quarters and told to rest up for Saturday.

The chimes lent by the Mission Glenwood Hotel, of Riverside, have been wood Hotel, of Riverside, have been Saturday.

The real action will begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the Cus-tom-House. Here the travelers will gather to form in parade. It is requested that the ladies of Portland send roses to the Custom-House at this hour, to be used in decorating the traveling en, especially those from the Sound where roses do not bloom so

The parade, under the guidance of Major McDonell, will leave the Custom-House at 10:30 o'clock, sharp, and pass on Davis to Sixth, on Sixth to Morrison, on Morrison to Third, on Third to Washington, on Washington to Park, and back to the Custom-House, where it will disband. There will be three bands in line, and everyone will be on foot except the speakers of the day and those too feeble to take the long tramp. for whom carriages will be in service. Every traveling man in the parade will be presented with a beautiful badge with a disc representing the Forestry building and the date of Traveling-Men's day, with streamers of the Ex-position colors attached.

An Attractive Programme.

(a) "A May Morning"
(b) "Rose Climb Up"
(c) "Prince Ivan's Love Seng"
J. Adrian Epping. Star, National president T. P. A.

Western Academy Glee Club.

photographs will be taken. From 5 until To'clock dinner will be served to them at the American Inn, and after dinner there will be special fireworks and the traveling men will "hit the Trail," and hit it hard. Each visitor entitling him to one admission to every Trail attraction, and there will be merry time in that section of the Exposition grounds.

H. C. Starr, National president of the T. P. A., and G. W. Smith and J. C. Simering, members of the National Board, will reach Portland today from St. Louis to take in Traveling Men's day.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION

They Will Give an Interesting Programme at the Fair.

Next Wednesday will be one of the memorable dates of the Lewis and Clark Exposition. It is on that day that the Daughters of the American Revolution will hold sway. The completed programme as announced yes-terday shows a number of interesting features, and the entire programme is one of a patriotic and inspiring order.

The day will open at 1:30 P. M. with the living flag, of which much has al-ready been said. This spectacular novelty will be shown in the athletic field. Four hundred school children are being drilled in the evolutions of the "living fing." Following this, exercises will be held in the Auditorium, General Thomas Anderson presiding. The programme here will include the singing of "America" by F. M. Goodrich and a charus of 20 boys; greeing from "Sons of the American Revolution." by Colo-Senator nel James Jackson, address, Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraski, and several selections by the Lakme quar-The exercises will close with the singing of the 'Star Spangled Banner by the Goodrich choir.

the Goodrich cholt. At 4:30 P. M. a pretty reception will be given to visiting members and in-vited guests. Band concerts and fire-

EXCURSIONS FROM SOUTH.

California Promotion Committee and Other Organizations Coming.

On Monday next 120 members of the California Promotion Committee will arrive at the Exposition on a special train from San Francisco. The Fair of-ficials and the California Commissioners have arranged an elaborate programme for the entertainment of the visitors.

At noon on Monday the whole committee will be entertained at luncheon at the American Inn, and in the evening the corporation officials will hold

THE DALLES EXCURSION, PHOTOGRAPHED AT THE UNION DEPOT ON 178 ARR IVAL.

in the New York state building. The committeemen will remain in Portland several days to get thoroughly familiar with the Exposition. Officials of the California State Board and will spend ten days visiting the Fair. A programme for their visit is now being made out. Hostesses of the California building. Mrs. George C. Pardee, Mrs. Frank wood Hotel, of Riverside, have been put in operation in the California building and have been played several times by an expert operator. Hereafter they will ring every hour.

FAIR INSTEAD OF GOWNS.

Walla Walla High School Graduates

Will Come to Exposition. The Exposition management has been advised that the graduating class of the Walla Walla High School has de-cided to forego graduating exercises and spend the money that would ordi-marily go for gowns in a trip to the Portland Exposition. The class, 18 strong, is due in Portland next Wednesday afternoon. It will remain here for three days, spending most of the time in viewing the big Fair. Rooms have

For Bunker Hill Day.

An important meeting of the New Eng-An Attractive Programme.

After the parade disbands the travelers will make their way to the Fair grounds, where, at 2 o'clock, the following programme will be rendered in the Auditorium:

Music Administration Bend Day—Bunker Hill Day—June 17, at the Exposition. The orator on that latter occasion will be Congressman Thayer, and he will principally speak on the message the Bunker circuity speak on the message the Bunker circuity speak on the message the Bunker circuity speak on the message the Bunker. cipally speak on the message the Bunker Hill fight brought to the United States. Governor Douglas of Massachusetts can-not be present, but has chosen Theodore B. Wilcox to be his representative. The host and hostess will be Senator Faircanks, the commissioner from Massa-chusetts, and Mrs. Fairbanks.

Homer Davenport to Lecture.

Homer Davenport is to deliver another lecture in Portland on "The Power of the Cartoon." Arrangements are now being-made for the lecture, which will occur at one of the downtown theaters or else Immediately after the conclusion of the programme, the traveling men will assemble on the grand staircase, where photographs will be taken. From 5 caricature and ornithology. His lectures in the past have met with the highest success because of his power in portray-ing the ideas be wishes to convey in a delightfully humorous and at the same time interesting manner.

Beside the Dog-Eulers, There Will Be Head-Hunters and Tree Dwellers From the Savages of Luzon.

The igorrotes, the black-skinned, dog-eating and bolo-throwing natives of the glades and jungles of the far-off Philippines, are coming to the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and are due to arrive in Portin viewing the big Fair. Rooms managed already been reserved for accommodation at a Hoyt-street rooming-house.

Sometimes and the aggregation, including men, women and children. After negotiation over a period of several men, women and children. After negotia-tions extending over a period of several weeks the Exposition officials have at last come to an understanding with Ed-mund P. Felder, the man who proposes to bring the dog-eaters to Portland, and money has ben cabled to Manila to bind the agreement with the agents of the > drawing card at St. Louis, and that they would be one of the most attractive features of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, the officials decided to try their utmost to secure them. An agreement was reached and money cabled to Manila.

States, as they live in the wilderness of the islands, and are afraid of water. This will be the first time that they have ever THE EXPOSITION left their native country. The same trouble had to be overcome when the tribe of Igorrotes was taken to the St. Louis Exposition. It was only after the most vigorous persuasions and entreaties that the savages decided upon boarding the ship. Then three or four of them jumped into the water and swam to shore just as the vessel left the harbor and turned its prow toward America.

The Igorrotes to be brought to the Exposition are not the ones that were in Scattle several months ago, as they are now at Coney Island in New York, where they will remain the entire Summer. The managers of this aggregation could not agree as to terms with the Fair left their native country. The same troucould not agree as to terms with the Fair officials and the negotiations were dropped. Besides the band which will be in attendance at the Exposition will inin attendance at the Exposition will include the head-hunters, who, until the United States took possession of the Philippines, were very ferocious and fought among themselves almost constantly. The savage that succeeded in obtaining the most human heads was selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtained more human heads than he. Then the dethroned chieftain would be be-tom.

There will also be several families from the tree-dwellers, savages who live almost entirely in the lotty heights of the immense trees in the jungles of the laborates in the tree-dwellers in the tree and climb through the branches with an agility second only to monkeys. They are a very timid tribe and are said to resemble animals more than any other race of people known. It is said that they do not know the value of money and that they do not know the value of money and that they have to be paid if frinkets.

The Igorrotes, head-hunters and the tree-dwellers will all be encamped together on a plot of ground, several acres to the fair reports from committees from committees from committees from committees and this reports from committees and the tree-dwellers will all be encamped together on a plot of ground, several acres to the fair reports from committees and the tree-dwellers will all be encamped together on a plot of ground, several acres to the fair reports from committees and this reports from committees and that they do not know the value of efficially reported to be 11,285.

The James Cartwright, Mrs. M. A. M. Ashiey.

Marsh: assistants, Mrs. C. W. Sherman, Mrs. A. M. Ashiey.

No. 19—Mrs. George W. Weikler, Mrs. Bobert Lewis; assistants, Miss Chariotte Sherlock, Miss Hazel Weidler.

No. 11—Mrs. Healt Weidler.

No. 12—Mrs. H. H. Northup, Miss Abfie the representatives of Whatcom County Mrs. White Reed furnished a short musical programme and Mrs. Olive M. Leonard and hall reports from committees do the tended and full reports from committees and the residue over the carried over the contributes of the immense trees in the jungles of the Issue and the requests of the members of the banquet, one of the signally important features of the banquet, one of the signally important features of the signally important features of the signal provided and the residue over the carried over the ca bring the dog-eaters to Portland, and money has ben cabled to Manila to bind the agreement with the agents of the Igorrotes.

Edmund P. Felder, who was a Commissioner to the St. Louis Fair from the Philippines, has been in Portland for some time, endeavoring to come to a satisfactory agreement with the Exposition management, but until this week his efforts have been without results. But foots have been without results. But realizing that the ignorrotes proved a great drawing card at St. Louis, and that they would be one of the most attractive feato the limitations of the privileges of the Hildegards Plumme Igorrotes, it is not thought that they Miss Jean McClure.

reached and money cabled to Manila. While the coming of the dog-eaters is practically assured, the management has been reticent in making a public announcement until definite information, comes from Manila, which is expected within the next two or three days.

Will Sall Shortly.

It is thought that the natives will sall for Portland within a few days, which will bring them to the Exposition the early part of next month. Some little difficulty-may be experienced in persuading the savages to be brought to Portland difficulty-may be experienced in persuading the savages to be brought to Portland with the savages to be brought to Portland difficulty-may be experienced in persuading the savages to be brought to Portland with the savages to be brought to Portland difficulty-may be experienced in persuading the savages to be brought to Portland with the port of the savages to Booth No. 5. Louis the E. Coleman, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. H. E. Col

Woman's Auxiliary Makes Great Preparations.

WILL BANQUET THE GUESTS

Committees Have Been Assigned to All the Features of the Work for the Celebration on June 15.

man; assistants, Miss Helen MacEwan, Miss Wiedler, Miss Hoyt, Miss Grace Wagren. Aldes-George and Lewis Freeman, Robert Marsh, Simeon Reed Winch, M. Mc-Clure.

Chairman of the table committee, Miss Susie G. Cosgrove; assistant, Miss Mary Susie G. Cosgrove; assistant, Miss Mary McKay.

Tables will be presided over by the following women:
No. 1-Mrs. George H. Lamberson, Mrs. A. Meier; assistants, Miss Clara Teal, Miss Sarah Harker.
No. 2-Mrs. W. L. Brewster, Mrs. S. B. Linthicum; assistants, Miss Clementine Wilson, Miss Emma Failing.
No. 3-Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. J. Wesley Ledd; assistants, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Miss Salile Lewis.
No. 4-Mrs. James W. Cook, Miss Elva Humason; assistants, Miss Clarissa Wiley, Miss Jessie Farrell.

Humason; assistants, Miss Clarissa Wiley, Miss Jessie Farrell.

No. 5-Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Mrs. Willtam D. Fenton; assistants, Miss Anna Farrell, Miss Cariotta Parker.

No. 6-Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, Miss Failing; assistants, Miss Canby, Miss Kate Failing.

No. 7-Mrs. Harriet K. McArthur, Mrs. George Taylor; assistants, Mrs. L. L. George Taylor; assistants, Mrs. L. L.

savage that succeeded in obtaining the most human heads was selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtained more human heads than he. Then the dethroned chieftain would be behaded with great pomp and ceremony by his successor. The arrival of the United States soldiers stopped this barbaric custom.

There will also be several families from the tree-dwellers, savages who live alternoon is much enthusiasm manifested over the soldiers not shown as a selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtaining the member of his band obtaining the member of his band obtaining the selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtaining the selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtaining the selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtaining the selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtaining the selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtained by the selected as chief, and he would remain in control until another member of his band obtained by the selection of the Women's Auxiliary of the Oregon Pioneer Association was held at the home of the Chairman, Mrs. C. M. Cartwright, No. 5-Mrs. A. B. Croasman, Mrs. J. M. Freeman; assistants, Mrs. C. W. Sherman, Mrs. C. W. Cartwright, No. 5-Mrs. A. B. Croasman, Mrs. J. M. Freeman; assistants, Mrs. C. W. Sherman, Mrs. C. W. Cartwright, No. 5-Mrs. A. B. Croasman, Mrs. J. M. Freeman; assistants, Mrs. C. W. Sherman, Mrs. C. W.

No. 1-Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. T. T.

will be prohibited from partialing of their favorite food, roasted dog.

The Igorrotes and the members of the different tribes will give daily exhibitions, such as war dances, bolo throwing and contests of strength and adverse for the large for the large

SPEEDY CURE OF MISS COODE

She is Made Well by Lydia E. Pink-bain's Vegetable Compound, and Writes Gratefully to Mrs. Pinkham.

BUILT UP HER HEALTH

For the wonderful help that she has found Miss Cora Goode, 355 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Ill., believes it her duty to write the following letter for publication, in order that other women afflicted in the same way may be benefited as she was. Miss Goode is president of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes:

Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I tried many different remedies to try to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unreasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help ms. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for hemale troubles, having used it herself some years age with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to be out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since."

No other medicine has such a record

No other medicine has such a rec of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorches, falling, inflammation or ulcerations sion of the uterus, ovarian troubles, faintness indigestion, nervous prostra-tion or the blues, should take imme-diate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Her experience is very great, and she gives the benefit of it to all who stand in need of wise counsel. Address, Lynn, Mass.

retary Himes yesterday at Pioneer headretary Himes yesterday at Pioneer head-quarters, in the rooms of the Oregon Historical Society, City Hall. Many plo-nears will attend the reunion this year who have never before been present at a pioneer meeting.

The secretary is frequently besought to grant permission to children of pioneers to attend the reunion. This he campot do, for reasons which should be ap-parent to all.

T. Strain.

No. 14—Miss Kate Holman, Mrs. Charles
T. Kamin; assistants, Mrs. Russell E.
Sewall, Miss Caroline Kamm.
No. 15—Mrs. H. S. Gile, Mrs. P. J. Mann; assistant, Miss Frances Warren.

pariors, and ten young ladies of Belling, ham will assist in receiving and act as ushers. The programme follows: Double quartet, Treble Clef Club of Portland-Miss Helen Lytle, Miss Helen.

Brigham, Mrs. J. E. Howard, Mrs. Jordan Purvine, Mrs. W. C. Holman, Mrs. Ernest Laidlaw, Miss Ethel Shea and Mrs. Walter Reed. Solo, "Gypsy John" (Clay), Dom J. Zan. "Because" (D'Hardelot), Mrs. Walter Reed.
Trio, "Forget-Me-Not" (Ratolli), Miss Helen Lytle, Miss Ethel Shea, Mrs, Walter Reed. Solo, "A Red, Red Rose" (Hastings), Dom J. Zan. Double quartet, Treble Clef Club, "Twns in the Month of Maying" (Strong).

Duet from "La Favorite" (Donisetti),
Mrs. Reed, Mr. Zan; Carl Denton, accom-

Musical Programme by Band.

Hundreds gathered on Lakeview terrace last night and listened to the soft strains from Innes' Band, as they floated up from the water front. The warm Summer air was particularly inviting, and even after the musicians stopped playing the terraces were covered with the crowd.

The most important selection played during the evening was Tachaikowsky's festival overture. "Bil." written in commemoration of the occupation of Moscow by Napoleon, and his subsequent retreat from the Russian city. This consists of three easily recognized themes, the first taken from the Russian hymn, "God Preserve Thy People"; the second from the "Marsellaise." and the third the Russian national anthem, representing the three periods of supremacy. air was particularly inviting, and even the three periods of supremacy.

This evening there will be a second Wagnerfest, at which several of the most famous selections of the great composer will be played by Innes and his band. puring the afternoon the band will play the Oddfellows, in the Auditorium. Arrangements have been made for the Administration Band to play every other day on offeenment island. Heretofore there has been no music on the island, and visitors at the Federal exhibits have expressed a desire to have a little music. so from now on the band will render concerts on the other side of the lake

Power for Government Building.

Workmen are busily engaged in com-pleting the electrical machinery in the Government building, and it is expected that by Saturday sufficient power will be generated to operate all the exhibits.

The Government has many machines on display, that need more or less electrical energy, such as the stamping presses, coining machines, moving pictures, panoramas, cartridge-making apparatus, and a variety of others. These have been out of commission since the Exposition, opened, simply because there was no opened, simply because here was mo-power, but by Saturday everything will probably be in running order.

The Art Palace has also been closed since the Fair opened for the same rea-son, but arrangements are being per-fected to secure additional power as soon

BUSINESS ITEMS.

SCENE AT THE RECEPTION GIVEN BY THE DALLES VISITORS IN THE OREGON BUILDING