Late Quartermaster Is Said to Have Entered Stateroom of Wife of Brother Officer on the Way From Manila.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS Work. June 8 - (Special.) - Captain J. J. Berry, late Quartermasier of the transport Sheriden, who is charged with having entered the stateroom of Mrs. Mack, the wife of brother-officer, while drunk, somnam-a brother-officer, while drunk, somnam-bullstic or temporarily insane; was on trial yesterday before the court-martial especially ordered to try Captain Berry. Colonel E. Z. Steever, Fourth Cavairy, is president of the court-martial, and Cap-tain J. J. Bradley, Fourteenth Infantry, the judge-advocate. Attorney C. E. S. Wood appeared for Captain Berry. Soon after the court-martial convened this morning, it was decided to hold the trial of Captain Berry behind closed doors and the public was denied hearing the de-tails of what promises to be one of the most sensational Army scandals that has been tried at the barracks in a long time. The charges against Captain Berry were filed with the War Department by Major filed with the War Department by Major Parke, Fourteenth infantry, who was a passenger on the Sheridan. The charges against Captain Berry not only include ess, conduct unbecoming an offiand a gentleman, but are said also cer and a gentleman, but are said also to include general incompetency.

It seems that Mrs. Mack, wife of a Lisutenant in the Artillery Corps, was a passenger on the Sheridan, and that Captain Berry entered her stateroom and started to disrobe. Mrs. Mack fiel, screaming, and when a number of officers of the Fourteenth, who were on their way to Vancquiver Barracks, reached Mrs. Mack's stateroom they found Captain Berry clad stateroom, they found Captain Berry clad only in an undershirt. The scandalous action of Captain Berry raised a merry rumpus, and in spite of an effort to hush rumpus, and in spite of an entire to non-up the matter, it was reported to the War Department at Washington. Major Parke prepared a carreful state-ment of the facts and charges against Captain Berry, which resulted in his being ordered under arrest, and the appointment of a court-martial to hear the case against him.

The two sessions of the court-martial held today were in a measure only pre-liminary, although several witnesses were heard. When the afternoon session end-ed, the court-martial adjourned until Sated, the court-martial adjourned until Sat-urday, and from what little information could be learned of the proceedings, it is intimated that the trial will be a long-drawn-out affair.

Ruthford, Fourth Cavalry; J. LeR. Irvine, Artillery Corps; J. J. Bradley, Fourtsenth Infantry, Judge-Advocate, convened this morning it is understood that there was an objection to Captain F. W. Sladen, Fourteenth Infantry, serving on the board. It is said there were several reasons given for the objection of Captain Sladen, one being that he was a brother-in-law to Captain J. J. Bradley, who, as Judge-Advocate,

At the conclusion of the court-martial he testimony will be forwarded to Washington, and after review by the Scarp-tary of War, the findings, if approved, will declare for the dishonorable dis-charge of Captain Berry.

A proposal to affiliate with the Federation of American Catholics was defeated, chiefly on the ground that by doing so the order of the Knights of Columbus would lose its individuality. Several resolutions of interest only to the order were also disposed of.

Denver is coming to the front as the next convention city. The officers of the National Convention have received telegrams from the Governor of Colorado, from R. W.
