ITS PLEA NOT ACCEPTED

If It Does Not Pave Between the Rails Steps to Declare Its Franchise Void Will Be Taken

At the meeting of the Executive Board yesterday afternoon the Consolidated Railway Company was told in unmistakable terms that the municipality would no longer endure its dilatory tactics with reference to making repairs to the tracks in various parts of the city, and the City Attorney was instructed to proceed against the corporation unless there was mpt action in the direction indicated. The matter came up in its most glaring form in connection with the queetlon of acceptance of the pavement of First street, between Madison and Columbia. It was shown that Contractors Geblach & Joydin had compiled with all the require-ments of their contract, with the excep-tion of putting on the finishing touches plong the track of the street rallway company, and this it was claimed, could not be done until the corporation had compiled with the specifications in relation to paving between its tracks. In the course of discussion that followed the Consoli dated management was reprimanded se-verely by several members of the Board for its dereliction, very little importance being attached to its attempted defense or The plea that there was a flaw in its title to the franchise, and it did not propose to expend several 'housand dollars in making improvements on a track that it making improvements on a track that it was liable to lose.

Under the circumstances, the contractors' work was accepted, and the City Attorney instructed to take measures looking to the forfeiture of the railway franchise in the event that the corperation did not comply with the law.

Almost precisely the same state of affairs was found to exist on Williams avenue, from McMillan to Morris street, A. B. Manjey, a resident of the district, adnue, from McMillan to Morris street, A. B. Manley, a resident of the district, addressed the Board in the interest of property-owners, setting forth that the contract for improving the thoroughfare was let five moaths ago, but up to the present time nothing of any importance had been accomplished. The street was all torn up by the railway company, and the contractors were powerless to proceed until the conperation had settled matters relative to the style of track it proposed to adopt. Manley said that Fuller and Swigert of the railway company, had stated gert of the railway company, had stated to properly-owners two weeks before election day that they would not make the improvement unless forced by claim-ing that the specifications were unjust. They hold that they have already inid 60-poind rails, which are test pounds heav-ier than called for in the franchise. The specifications call for a 7-inch groove rall in concrete and stone blocks:

Maniley further stated that the City &
Suburhan Company laid light rails on Williams avenue several years ago, and about three years ago put in a double track on account of the increased traffic, replasing the old tracks with 60-pound
"T" rails. He understood from City Engineer Wanzer that it was practically impossible for the contractors to put in the pavement against a 42-inch "T" rail, and asked that the corporation be compelled to lay 7-inch grooved rails.

The City Attorney was instructed to examine into the matter, with a view of ove rail in concrete and stone blocks:

examine into the matter with a view of examine into the matter, with a view of forcing the corporation to take action. Contracts for street improvements were awarded: East Davis, Bechill Bros., $10,-185.82; J. R. O'Nell, $239.37; Union avenue, expected that they will evacuate before the time specified.

Chief Campbell, in his report, recom-construction of an engine house on the Maradam road near the Ore gon Furniture Company's building, and it was ordered that plans for the structure he prepared at once and bids for its construction invited.

Inside the grounds a casino 8046 feet in dimensions has been erected, the architecture being colonial of the latest design. Wide verandas run around it and the river breezes blow upon it most comfortably. The building is frame, neatly painted in noticeable if not gaudy colors. Altogether, it's an attractive structure, and the unsophisticated might readily and the unsophisticated might readily mistake it for a Summer hotel. This is the palace of chance and within

This is the palace of chance and within it one may lay bets with certain accommodating gentlemen on the outcome of the daily races at Latonia, Gravesend and St. Louis. It is the old story of the Portland Club and the Warwick over again, except that it is over the line in Clackamas County and beyond the confines of Tom Words principality. The only commerce, so far as can be learned, that will be indulged in is that of selling and buying pools. Roulette, faro and the erstwhile delights of Portland gambling-houses are taboo.

Refreshments will be served, particularly those which are dispensed at a bar and all those who itch for quick fortunes will find things made pleasant and homelike against their coming.

Apparently the sporting fraternity is wearled of trying to pry the lid off here in the city and have sought this pastoral field for their activities.
