MAT GET WOOLEN MILLS.-It is considered probable that the proposition to establish a large woolen mill at Bellwood will succeed. T. W. Clark has been working on the matter for several months. This week J. M. Nickum and A. M. Mow-This week J. M. Nickum and A. M. Mowrey, large owners in the Sellwood sawmill plant, notified Mr. Clark that they would take $10,000 of stock in the concern, besides give concessions asked for in regard to furnishing cheap fuel. Another large Fortland firm takes a considerable block of the stock. Money to build the plant is mainly to be furnished by Bastern capitalists, and on receiving information that Mr. Nickum and Mr. Mowrey would not only take $10,000 of the stock, but furnish cheap fuel, Mr. Clark telegraphed the backers information to that effect.

Kemmerer: Coal

This King of Koals is a product of the State of Wyoming and a few of the reasons that it is called the king are as follows: First—That it contains a larger per cent of fuel properties,

LESS ASHES NO SOOT

And will last longer than any other coal on this market with the exception of the anthracites.

This coal once tried will make friends for itself, it keeps the house clean and the housewife happy, it keeps the house warm thus preventing pneumonia and other dread diseases in the Winter time. Its intense heat makes the cook go about her work with a song on her lips and through these various qualifications has it earned the pame King of Koals.
