Unimportant Defect Not Good Ground for Dismissal.

RULE FOR JUSTICE COURTS

Supreme Court Hands Down Number of Decisions-Pendleton Laundryman Must Pay Damages for Injury to Employe.

Where a technical defect exists in the from the Justice's Court, the Circuit Court should not diamies the appeal, but should order the certificate amended. Where an injury to an employe has but obscure, the question whether there was contributory negligence is entirely one for the jury.

SALEM, Or., June 10.—(Special.)—The upreme Court today handed down decisions in appealed cases us follows: W. J. Woods, respondent, vs. Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, appellant, from Baker County, Robert Eakin, Judge: reversed and remanded; opinion

This was an action to recover damages for the killing of an animal on defendant's railroad track. The plaintiff recovered judgment for $20.50 in the Justice's court, and defendant appealed to the Circuit Court, where the appeal was dismissed for the reason that the transcript was in-complete in having a defective certificate. The Supreme Court holds that where the appeal from the Justice Court is takes good faith, a defect in the transcript of cause for dismissal, but the plaintiff's motion for an order to have the certificate amended. The case is remanded with such instructions.

Mergaret Busch, respondent, vs. John Robinson, appellant, from Umatilia F. Robinson, appellant, from Umatilia County, W. R. Ellis, Judge: affirmed; opinion by Chief Justice Wolverton. The plaintiff was employed in defend-ant's laundry, and while feeding a mangle, her foot slipped and her hand was cushed and burned between the rollers, be brought this action for damages on the ground that the injury was due to the negligence of defendant in not providing her a safe place to work. She prevailed court below, and the defendant appealed, alleging as error the action of the lower court in overruling a demurrer and a motion for nonsuit.

The defect complained of was a crack in the board on which she stood at the time of the accident. As she stepped upon the board, one part of it was depressed, letting her foot slip through the crack. She knew of a knot or knot hole in the board, but her attention had not been called to the crack, and she testified that she did not know of it. The Supreme Court, in affirming the decision of the lower court, holds that in a case of this kind it is not inferrable from allegation that the defect existed, that the injured person knew of it, and after verdict the complaint is not insufficient because it falls to allege want of knowledge of the defect; also that the danger was latent rather than an obvious one, and the question whether the plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence was one for the jury, and not the court.

Brown vs. Kemp.

Joseph W. Brown, appellant, vs. May Kemp, executrix of the F. A. Kemp eatate, and Thomas Williams, respondents, from Polk County, R. P. Boise, Judge, Polk County, R. P. Boise, ned; opinion by Justice Bean.

In this case the Supreme Gourt given val to the rule of law that if ys real property to another, out of a parcel of land, a part lying neither on the highway nor on the granter's other land, it will be useless to the new owner unless he can have access to it; hence, by presumption of law, the deed carries with It to the grantee a right of way over the unconveyed part, and this rule applies as well to an equitable as to a legal con

Kemp vs. Brown.

Mary Kemp, respondent, vs. Joseph W. Brown and the County of Polk, appellants, from Polk County, R. P. Boise, Judge, affirmed; opinion by Justice Bean, It is held that when viewers have made a report assessing the damages in the with a trip on a steamer on the Sound matter of the location of a road of public a salmon bake dinner on one of casement, the County Court cannot refuse to confirm the report on the ground that the damages assessed are inadequate, when that fact does not appear from the face of the report, but must be shown by evidence allunde.

Sharkey vs. Candiant

Frank G. Sharkey et al., appellants, vs. C. F. Candiani et al., respondents, from Lane County, J. W. Hamgiton, Judge, remanded for modification of decree; opinon by Justice Moore.

This was a sult to determine the right of possession of mineral land in the Blue River district, the land in controversy being a part of the Doctor lode, the plaintiffs cliaming by virtue of their location of the Louise and Lucky Boy No. 4 claims. The defendants set up abandonment on the part of plaintiffs, and the court below found for defendants

The Supreme Court finds that there was no intention to abandon all the claims mentioned, and the case is remanded for new survey and a modification of the

ASSISTANT TO THE GOVERNOR

Land Agent Is Not an Officer of the State.

SALEM, Or., June 12 .- (Special.) -- Attorney-General Crawford today ren-dered an opinion in which he holds that dered an opinion in which he holds that the Governor is the proper person to sign indemnity achool land selections, thus approving the practice that has prevailed in the past. The question was raised by United States Land Com-missioner W. A. Richards, who called attention to the fact that Oregon has State Land Agent whose duty it is a State Land Agent whose duty it is to select indemnity land. The Com-missioner asked whether it was in ac-cordance with the laws of this state to have the selections signed by the

After reviewing all the acts bearing on the subject, the Attorney-General holds that the office of State Land Agent has never been created as a state office, but the State Land Agent is merely an agent of the Governor to assist him in the performance of his duty as Land Commissioner.

The decision of the Attorney-General makes no change in the practice that has been followed nor in the powers of the State Land Agent.

GUESTS OF GRAYS HARBOR

NEBRASKA LUMBERMEN WILL VISIT THREE CITIES.

Hogulam Plans Trip Over Bar, Cos mopolis to Show Mills, Aberdeen Has Souvenirs Ready.

ABERDEEN, Wash., June 11 .- (Special.) Gray's Harbor will be visited Thursday and Friday next by the retail lumbermen of Nebraska and their wives. The special train on which they are traveling will reach Hoquiam from Tacoma Thursday evening, in time for supper, which is to be served by the women of Hoquiam in the Hoquiam Hotel, which will be beautifully decorated for the occasion.

It is proposed on Thursdy night, after supper, to give the visitors a ride down the bay on the tugs Daring and Printer, which have been chartered for the trip. If the night is pleasant the tugs will go over the bar and give the Nebraskans a sight of the grand old Pacific. If the weather is unfavorable, this part of the programme may be changed.

programme may be changed.

The visitors will sleep on board their train at Hoquiam, and Friday morning will be served with breakfast at the Pomona and New York Hotels. After breakfast they will come to this city, where charge.

The first thing on their arrival will be the serving of a lunch at the Elks' club-rooms, under the direction of A. A. Brauer. After luncheon the guests will be taken through the various mills and then to Coambpolis, on the Harbor Queen, for inspection of the Grays Horbar Commercial Company's plant at that place. Early in the evening the train will start for Centralia.

Souvenits of a very unique, handsome sort will be distributed to the visitors. These will be books made of cedar, fir and spruce, the three leading wood industries of the barbor. There will be three leaves tied with satin ribbon, the date of the visit and some other information of value to the visitors will be printed on the wood.

SHOT AT PLAY BY SISTER

Two Los Angeles Children May Die of Their Wounds.

LOS ANGELES, June 12-Raym Coin, aged 14, and Mabel Cooper, aged 10, were accidentally shot today and perhaps fatally wounded with a shotgun in the hands of Claudine Coin, the I5-year-old sister of the boy.

The boy and the girl who was shot were slaying together at the house and be-ame engaged in a quarrel. The boy slapped the little girl's face, and Claudine Coin, picking up the shotgun, which was standing in the corner of the room, simed at the two children, saying: "If you two don't stop that racket, I'll shoot you both." with the remark, her finger accident-ally touched the trigger of the gun and the heavy charge of No. 7 shot struck the two children in the faces, producing terrible wounds. The boy's skull is frac tured, and it is thought he can no vive. The charge struck the girl the temple, producing what may be a

The address on behalf of the county was ably handled by County Judge Bean, who spoke of the desire of the county to provide better roads for the traveler.
Mr. Bean assured the visitors that the county was willing to lend its aid to providing good roads within the county.
President Moore, of the Good Roads Assections. sociation, responded to the welcoming speech, delivering the principal address of the morning session. President Moore gave a splendid address and the audience was eager to catch every word that fell from his lips. Hon. Martin Dodge, director of the Bureau of Good Roads Inquiry of the Agricultural Department, was then presented and addressed the meeting for over an hour. Mr. Dodge spoke of the support given by the Government to the good roads movement. He presented a number of ideas, but the most interesting had to do with the plan of readjusting the road fund so the cities would assist the country districts to improve their highways. The speaker, in closing, said the construction of permanent roads. not only put money into the pockets of all, by reason of the increased traffic but it meant more schools, more churches more public libraries, a higher civilina.

Sermon by Dr. Morrison.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene June 12.—(Special.)—Yesterday the 29th annual commencement exercises of the State University were auspiciously opened when the Rev. A. A. Morrison of Portland, preached one of the mos effective baccalaureate sermons ever heard in the history of the university.

"Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace Whose Mind is Stayed On Thee" was his text, and his method of treatment was highly practical. The preacher's personality was so strong, his manner of presentation so impressive, that the 1600 people present were held fast in his magnetic control. Promptly at 11 o'clock the orchestra played Tobani's favorite march and 30 seniors, dressed in caps and gowns. marched up and took their seats in front of the speaker. Some of the uni-versity regents, members of the facul-

He stated also that his work would not stop with the construction of an electric and boat line, but would be extended in scope, as soon as the matter could be looked into further, but in what direction he would not say. It is understood that the basis of Mr. Manley's report would determine whether Manley's report would determine whether money would be put into the project and his statement tonight sets at rest any doubt as to the outcome. Local trustees of the project will meet tomorrow here to confer with Messrs. Manley and Cowper-Thwatte for the purpose of completing the details of agreement entered into a month
