MINISTERS ARE

Methodist Clergymen Speak to Democrats of Pure Politics.

PEACE PIPE IN EVIDENCE

All Factions Declare War Hatchet Buried-Division of the Spoils Next on the Political Programme.

Two ministers at a Democratic love feast was the novel some at a follifica-tion of the Multnomah Democratic Club-lust night. They were Dr. F. Burgette Shori, pastor of Taylor-Street Methodist Church, and Dr. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of Grace Methodist Church.

Mayor-elect Lane spoke after they had fullshed, and confessed that their remarks had given him a new idea of the strength of ministers in elections.

More than 100 faithful brethren of the Democratic party packed themselves into the narrow room in Hibernian building, rejoice over the election of Dr. Lanc-ley said that the old sores had all on healed and haired over and never more would the house of Sweek-Maning-Haney-Malley-Powers et al. antagonize that of Peery-Thomas-McCoy-Nicholas et al. A. E. Ream and John Manning were sure of it on the one side and George H. Thomas and G. W. Allen on the other. And it mattered not that the Multnomah Democratic Club had been started by the one element and the Young Men's Club by the other-they now dwelling together in lovely

Speak on Unity.

Other speakers were W. T. Vaughn Councilman-elect from the Tenth ward Charles Petrain, Democratic nominee for Municipal Judge, and J. R. James, Re-

The biggest stalwarts in the Democratic party were in the audience and when they applauded the very ground beneath the building quaked. Alex Sweek, chair-man of the Democratic State Central Committee, and J. B. Ryan, secretary, were there; also Bert E. Haney, secretary, were there; also Bert E. Haney, secretary of the City Central Committee. Others were John Lamont and L. T. Peery, each boomed for Chief of Police; also Harry Gurr, Pat Powers, General Killfeather, William Horan, "Citizen" Parker feather, William Horan, "Citizen Parissr and Sam Wolf, the last named of whom won several hundred dollars of Frank C. Baker's bet money en Lame's election. Other conspicuous figures were: M. J. Mailer, James Foley, L. Wilhelm, Other conspicuous figures were: M. J. Mailey, James Foley. L. Willielm, "Kaiser" Wilhelm, Patrick Maher, C. J. Schnabel, E. Versteeg, Sam Wolfe, A. F. Fiegel, John Berry, S. C. Armitage, Watter T. McGovern, William Reidt, Warren Thutcher, D. F. Cumpbell, John Henry Stevenson, E. Maher, Phil Harris, Fred Eller, T. B. McDevitt, Sr. who ran for Municipal Jodge on the Citizens' ticket, was present; likewiss O. P. M. Jannson, president of the Municipal Association. The gathering was presided over by A. E. Ream, vice-president of the club, in the absence of President C. B. Williams.

T. Vaughn remarked that before an other year or two years rolled round thousands of voters would be rallying to the Democratic banner who have not been known to do so before. Charles Petrain announced that if the sacrifice of himself in the election had helped the election of Lanc he was very willing to be offered up. G. W. Allen denied that the existence of two Democratic clubs signified the existence of two rival facsignifications in the party. He made known that a new movement was under way-that for taxation of franchire privileges, so that taxes might be better equalized. George H. Thomas averred that the Democratle party was only so strong as the weakest link of its chain of men in office and cautioned the party to nominate only the best men. Next came John Manning, saying that for the first time in the history of Port-land Democratic elements had gone into the election without any grievances against each other.

Watchdog of the Mayor.

The Executive Board, he said, was the watchdog of the Mayor and could pro-tect the public against contract frauds; therefore he insisted that its members be such men as any citizen could trust with

Mr. Manning was going to confer with Chamberlain. Word and Lane for ful-fillment of every piedge made to the voters. He would adopt their advice "and then nobody can say I didn't try to do what was right."
Dr. Short made an energetic speech and was cheered many times. He paid the was cheered many times. He paid the Democratic party several fine compliments, though himself a Prohibitionist, and said Tom Word was entitled to re-election. Speaking of the influence of ministers, Dr. Short said the present agi-tation in Philadelphia was started by them, and added:

"When you laugh at the strength of the ministers, you laugh at your one fool.

inistry, you laugh at your own fool-ordiness. The speaker suggested that some clergyman such as Dr. Hill, Dr. Brougher or Dr. C. T. Wilson be appointed by the Mayor to some office of trust "to help deliver the goods for rightecusness." and remarked that if Dr. Hill should be appointed Chief of Police, Prosecuting At-torney Manning and Deputy Haney would have more work than they could

Dr. Wilson Speaks.

Dr. Wilson said the fining system was the cause of Republican defeat. "You may talk of a Sunday school policy or of blue laws, but the ministers of this city never have asked for impossible things; only for enforcement of the laws."

Dr. Lane said that without the support of the decent clean element of the Re-publican party he could not have been elected and would have had no more show than a snowball in Arizona. "A man holding office and falling to carry out his promises to the people," said he "is as utterly unfit to hold office as he who goes to jail for stealing a st pair of trousers. He ought to be driven outside the pales of civilization. I shall be firm in what I think is right without being officious or playing to the grand-am first a citizen and then a Deme crat. But that man serves his party best who serves the scople best. I wish only to be abown a better way than I know and I will follow it."
