SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 15 .- (Special.)-It was something of a puzzle for the spectators at today's game to determine whether they were at a prizefight or a ball contest. Eddle Householder, Parke Wilson and Atz were banished entirely; the first two for slugging, and Atz for unbecoming language.

The game was won by Portland, 6 to 2. It was done by a terrific cannonade in a single inning. Things started off in the first inning with a rush for the Seals. They ran up three runs, but that was They never again made the Atz was at this point removed

Since the Potland High School wor the baseball championship of the Interscholastic League by defeating Hill Military Academy last Saturday, school spirit at that institution has been waxing strong and vigorous, reminding "old grads" of the days when the High School was always in the lead. On Mon-day night Hopkin Jenkins, one of the instructors, gave the team a dinner at a local restaurant and plans were out-lined for next year. After the dinner, silver loving cups were presented to Claude Schmeer, who coached the boys to victory, and Carl Ganovy, for his fine work in batting. Several speeches were made, all full of the old-time High School spirit and enthusiasm, and then George Newell, the clever little catcher who has led the league, was elected captain for the next season. After the election, the dinner broke up with three rousing cheers for the school, Coach Schmeer and Mr. Jenkins.

For the headliner the management offers the DeMuths, waitzers, who perform a whiriwind dence of re-markable character, the dances being introduced in a comedy sketch. Herb Bell, styled the Kaiser of German comedians, tells stories in dialect that bring down the house and keep the audience laughing as long as he is on the stage. Madame Lloyd is the so-Will Decide Tennis Champinoship. prane soloist, of whom the musical people of Portland have heard so much. Her selections are such as would grace Her selections are such as would grace the highest class of operatic concert the hignest class of operatic concert. Claude Feeley performs acrobatic twists; Russel and O'Nell have a diverting playlet, strictly comedy in character, and Harry Walton does a Chicese act. Richard Burton renders a popular ballad and the Staroscope has a supply of War pictures, very vivid and thrilling.

W. M. Killingsworth on St. Johns' Land Between the Rivers.

The real center of the universe around which everything revolves seemingly, is St. Johns, the real and only hub, the center to waich everything gravitates truthfully on a water level, is St. Johns. Snow-capped St. Helens was made specially for St. Johns. The pride of Oregon, old Mt. Hood, with his locks of white, belongs to St. Johns. Both these glittering, snow-capped mountains were robed in spotless white (emblem of purity), typical of the men, women, hoys and girls of St. Johns. The sun-kiesed productive valleys of Eastern Washington and all Oregon deposits their wealth at St. Johns. The mountains, rich with century-stored minerals, deliver their hidden treasures to St. Johns. The mighty Columbia belongs to St. Johns. The Willamette River was surely created for St. Johns. The mingling of the waters of the two rivers was for St. Johns' creation, as well as her everlasting salvation-all for St. Johns. If you want to gaze on the smiling, happy faces of beautiful, concented women, go to St. Johns. If you want to witness the most energetic type of manhood, go to St. Johns. . If you have mors on your back and want it removed, go to St. Johns. If you desire to witness the spirit that made bleago the second city in America, so to St. Jones. If you doubt that the foundation of the New York of the Pacific is not being laid-to remove all doubts, go to St. Johns. If you want to see the most hustling, bustling men and women on earth, go to St. Johns. If you want to know how woolen mills conducted on a paying basis, go to St. Johns. If you desire to see a great forest disappear, changed to lumber in a day, go to St. Johns. If you are interested in chipbuilding and shipping, go to St. Johns. If you want to see the only drydock in Oregon, go to St. Johns. If you want to be happy, thrifty and prosperous, go to St. Johns. If you want to see men with an elastic step, go to St. Johns. If you want to witness a startling eye-opener, a plumber on the run, go to St. Johns. If you want to know that these plainly stated facts are true, go to St. Johns. If you can't find what you want in St. Johns, then you ertainly can in Walnut Park. Walnut Park is the center around which everything moves, including Portland and St. Johns. Walnut Park attempts to do her share of setting the pace of progress for all Oregon, including the Lawis and Clark Fair. Walaut Park commands entire situation, hence has no opposition. Walaut Park owners care not how you like this ad., we do. Walaut Park owners pay good money to tell people a few truths-we lo. Walnut Park residents, from eye inspection, firmly believe Mt. St. Helens, Baker and Hood were placed solely for their admiration-we do. Walnut Park owners believe no improvements could possibly be made on the foundation perfected plan. It was built a long time before man—we do. Wainut Park' owners are independent, as all citizens should be who pay their bills when they have the money—we Jo. Walnut Park owners are determined that the public shall know something about Walnut Park. Render, you know we do. Walnut Park owners elieve thought is a substance, and once received is never forgotten-we do. Walnut Park owners, believing this, have spared no time, money or printed space to tell you in conclusion this truth. No shantles can ever be built in Walnut Park. Good buildings or none. We do intend to make Walnut Park the best built residence district of Portland, hence the highest values. Do yourself and your family a kindness by visiting Walnut Park today and selecting a homesite on terms to suit your pocketbook
