Giants Defeated in a Pitchers' Battle Which Allows Only One Run.

FIVE HITS ON CORBETT

Williams Allows Two Less Than the Portland Man and Both Make the Fielders Do Their Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—San Francisco defeated Portland today in a hotly contested 11-inning game and won by a score of 1 to 0. It was today Corbett's Portland's new pitcher, first contest on the Coast, and he pitched a splendid game, allowing but five hits. Williams, the local pitcher, also pitched a good game, only three hits being made off his delivery. Up to the tenth neither team scored, but in the eleventh Wilson went to first on a hit, was sacrificed to second and came in on an error of Atz, who threw wild in trying to head off Williams at first. Pitcher Corbett arrived today just in time to get into a Portland uniform and line up with the Giants. His performance under these conditions is regarded as remarkable. He made a great hit with the fans and gives every indication of being a top-notch pitcher. Score:

HUNT CLUB'S MEET

Eight Events and Paper Chase the Features.

HORSES IN FINE FETTLE

All of the Events and the Jumps in the Infield Will Be in Full View of Crowd in the Grandstand.

Members of the Portland Hunt Club will make the weather man present that will be worth while if he will only keep the tears out of the clouds this afternoon. Rain is the only thing that will keep the Spring meet of the club, which will be held at Irvington race track, from being one of the most successful in the history of the organization. There will be eight events and a paper chase, with all of the jumps in the infield and in full view of the crowd in the grand stand. Riders and horses alike are in fine fettle and the races that will be given will equal those that are to be given next month by the Multnomah Fair Association.

The paper chase will be interesting to the spectators, for it will give them an idea of the skill and good horsemanship that is necessary in riding through a chase. The course selected is one that will keep the riders in full view of the audience almost all of the time. The course over which the riders will make the run is very short, but it will show how much stiff riding is done in a paper chase over a distance of from eight to 15 miles. The paper chase is set for 1:30 o'clock and will take place promptly at that time.

Following the paper chase will come the regular racing programme, and they will start promptly at 2 o'clock. The first race on the card will be the four and a half furlongs. Nine horses will face the starter in this event, and it will be the largest field that Starter Adams will send away during the afternoon. Another big field will start in the third race. The big event of the day has dwindled down to three starters, Racine, Mowring and Oregon Kid. This race will be two miles and promises to be a horse race from start to finish. Mowring is the only horse that has been worked over the entire route. He was given a work-out Wednesday morning and he traveled the distance most impressively. Four horses will start in the one mile and 50 yards. This also promises to be a horse race.

Mile trot for ladies will be an interesting event and five horses will start. The pony race has attracted the attention of every boy in the city, but the entries will not be known until just before the race.

List of Entries. The entries follow: SECOND RACE. Four and one-half furlong run; cup donated by F. W. Leadbetter; Will Wehring (J. C. Muehle), yellow; Jim Budd (V. R. Howard), blue and white; Call Bom (John Latta), red and black; Bedad (E. R. Tongue), orange and blue; Tekoa (William Corbett), white; Sally Smart (William Walters), white; Morrison (E. H. Jenkins), green and white.

Chase), green and white; Call Bom (John Latta), red and black; Lady Myrtle (E. H. Jenkins), yellow; Bedad (J. C. Muehle), yellow.

EIGHTH RACE. Two-mile run; Portland Hunt Club cup—Racine (P. W. Leadbetter), red with white sleeves.

Fourth Round at Chess. OSTEND, Belgium, June 16.—The fourth round of the international chess tournament was begun this morning. Teichmann was the opponent of Leonhardt, Wolf was matched against Marshall, Maroczy faced Larrach, Taubenhaus opened his game against Burne, Teichgruber played with Marco, Blackburne contested with Janowski, and Alpin had Schichtner as his opponent. When the first adjournment was made, Teichgruber had disposed of Maroczy and Teichgruber had beaten Marco.

When play was suspended for today the following additional results had been recorded: Teichmann went down before Leonhardt; Wolf and Marshall drew; Taubenhaus adjourned his game with Burne; Blackburne was defeated by Janowski; Leonhardt thus keeps his lead over the rest of the contestants.

Will Get Around Anti-Betting Law. ST. LOUIS, June 16.—Today was the final day of the life of the "breeder's law" to place the racetrack betting under the control of the state. The repeal bill goes into effect tomorrow, and the penalty for violating the anti-betting bill is imprisonment in the penitentiary. Of the two St. Louis racetracks, the Union will close, but Delmar will continue. It is stated that the Eastern system of speculation on race results will be adopted. In reply to an inquiry at Jefferson City today, Governor Folk said: "If the Turf Association is found to be conducting its business contrary to the statutes of the state it will be stopped."

Winners at Woman's Golf. SHORT HILLS, N. J., June 16.—The semi-final round at 18 holes, match play, over the links of the Westchester Golf Club, for the woman's Metropolitan golf championship, was played today. Mrs. Charles T. Stout was paired against Miss Elizabeth H. Harris, of Rye, N. Y., and Mrs. H. Harris, Apawamis, was pitted against Miss Gertrude Travers, of the Nassau Golf Club, Glen Cove, L. I. The feature of the play today was the match between Miss H. Harris and Mrs. Stout. The latter won by 4 up and 3 to play. Miss Travers beat Mrs. Harris by 7 up and 5 to play.

Miss Moore Tennis Champion. NEW YORK, June 16.—Miss E. H. Moore, the ex-National champion, won the singles tennis title here today in the women's event of the Metropolitan championship tournament. She defeated Miss Helen Homan by the score of 2-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Final for Golf Cup Today. GREAT RIVER, L. I., June 16.—The final issue for the annual cup which is presented by the Westbrook Golf Club will take place tomorrow between Walter J. Travis, of Garden City, ex-British and ex-American champion, and Jerome D. Travers, of Glenside, L. I.

WILLAMETTE RIVER

WM. KILLINGSWORTH AT LABOR

This picture is a fair representation of the stubbornness manifested by numerous speculators in real estate coming under my personal observation during the past 25 years. I have from time to time published by circulars and otherwise, indisputable arguments why Portland was certain to become a large commercial city of great magnitude, and that when the City of Portland was built it would surely be built on God's natural foundation, on the table land

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

The facts were presented in such a manner that no sane man, woman or child could for one brief moment truthfully doubt it. But, still, seemingly the more you talk and show some people the more determined they are to invest their hard-earned coin in any district but the best. However, it pleases me to note that investors are now growing wiser. Reader, this space is paid for by me, also time given with the hope of waking you up as I used to do, when the land between the rivers was covered by a dense forest, and to again call your attention to a sure and certain investment which will show greater gain on each dollar invested in the next five or ten years—in fact for all time to come—than any other property in the City of Portland.

It is Walnut Park. These home sites are now selling for only $9 and $10 a front foot. Certainly we have a 20-year building restriction in each bond, and a general warranty deed given. Do yourself a kindness this day by visiting Walnut Park. Take any Upper Albin car; all trains arrive at central Walnut Park office. Truth, nothing but truth. Be convinced by casting your eyes upon the beautiful homes under construction and the grand, sublime, unobstructed scenic beauty the residents of Walnut Park can do and will forever enjoy.

Be wise, select today your home site. Pay as you please. We have money to burn. Why? Because we have never received or sold anything but the best in Portland—LAND BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

Central office, Walnut Park, phone Scott 5224. Suburban office, 303 Chamber of Commerce, Phone Brown 452.

N. R.—I mean exactly as stated above—when Portland has 500,000 population in ten years, Walnut Park will be the center; here is now my central office and will become in time a living reality. Send for Walnut Park map and folder.

DERBY DRAWS FAST HORSES. Fine Line of Horses for Seattle's Big Race.

SEATTLE, June 16.—(Special).—The best class of horses that ever went to the post for a Derby event on the Pacific Coast will be lined up in front of Starter Ed Duke for the Seattle Derby tomorrow.

For some reason the stables are fencing Sandstone. "Scotty" Ferguson, of Seattle, owns this promising colt, and it may either be local or imported. It has been all guesswork. Gloomy Gus is the only horse that has been worked out with the proper weight up. Sherwood was up on Edroon the other morning when that candidate for the 1200 purse was working out. Sherwood is a heavy lad, and with the ten-pound work saddle on Edroon, Tommy Fitzgerald's horse was going under just about the conditions he will start on Saturday. Gloomy went the distance, a mile and an eighth, in 1:57.

Edroon is owned by Tom Fitzgerald, a local liverman, and is another colt bred at the farm of Burns & Waterhouse of Hoopland, Cal. He is a son of Eddie Jones.

Sandstone, which will carry the stable money, is a son of the famous Sandringham, whom King Edward VII, then the Prince of Wales, ordered killed because he was so vicious. Sandringham was a very docile horse while his temper was good, but the Prince became discouraged over his action in the stable. One of the groomers who could handle the stallion saved his life and Sandringham was brought to this country and sold to John Madden of Hamburgstadt. Diamond Jubilee, one of the most famous horses in England and the winner of the English Derby, is a full brother of Sandringham, and so is Persimmon. Florizel II was a sister. Sandstone was bred out of Sandringham's dam, and his temper was good.

The Kentucky farm, Tommy Clark, one of the most successful jockeys on the Coast, will be up on Sandstone.

Sherwood will be up on Autohood, Wolf's colt, bought in New York for the Denver Derby. Wolf brought him here instead of sending him to Colorado. The other day Autohood worked out a mile and a quarter in 2:08.

W. M. Cushman, of Baker City, is going to send Estella J. to the post in the Derby. Estella J. bred a mile and a quarter the other morning in 1:25. She will be ridden by Loague.

Sea Air won her first start at this meet and won several stakes here last year and in California. She is owned by T. McLaughlin, but was brought to the Coast by Chicago people. In her workout yesterday Sea Air did a mile and a quarter in 2:15 handily. Jockey Wright will be up.

Baker did a mile in 2:10 and finished tired the other day. This is not dope sufficient to bet on, but he is a sluggish sort of a colt and not a work-horse. He won a few races in California this winter.

Ketchel Gets Decision. HELENA, Mont., June 16.—Young Ketchel, of Butte, was given the decision this evening in the seventeenth round of their 20-round fight with Ed Lee, of Havre. It was a good, fast battle. The referee stopped the fight in the seventeenth round, giving the decision to Ketchel.

Mails brought by the turbine steamer Virginia reached Montreal in six days 11 hours from Moville, Ireland, which is quicker by several hours than via New York.

PACIFIC NATIONAL LEAGUE. Boise 3, Spokane 2.

SPokane, June 16.—Spokane had another hard-luck story this afternoon, losing the fourth straight to Boise. Smith, who seemingly is an all-round player, helped Boise considerably
