Marted. It entered the field with fair prospects of success with Spokane, Bolse, Sait Lake and Ogden. But at no time was the league financially on its feet. A second-rate lot of players were signed, which dis-susted the fans who had been used to seeing better ball. The distance between Botse and Spokane made traveling ex-Botse and Spokane and Salt Lake and Ogden from Spokane made traveling ex-penses too great for the receipts. Lucas had many followers east of the moun-taios, who were disgusted because he had been ousted from the presidency of the league. Williams of Spokane also had his cremies, and Rishell, the successor of Lucas, was none too popular. The at-tendance at the games, especially at Og-den, was poor, and Spokane and Salt den, was poor, and Spokane and Salt Lake were the only two that held up their end of the expense. Baseball will never be a success in that district with the class of ball furnished the public. their services and sitting on the plat-form with the president. The musical part of the programme began with a voluntary on organ and plano, played by Prof. C. W. Kanther and Miss Mabel Gardner. Miss Mabel Edwards gave a very impressive vocal solo, a duet was sung by Professor Kantner and W. C. Woodward, the choir closing with the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah." The annual address before the Chris-tian Associations was delivered in the were banquoted by the citizens of Eu-gene. After the banquet they were driven around the city and up to the summit of Skinner's Butte, where a magnificent view of the whole upper Willamette Valcan be had. The excursionists seem to be a joily set and thoroughly enjoyed their short stay in Eugene. The train left for San Francisco at 7:45 P. M.
